OUR DEGENERACY.

One of the alarming signs of the times, going to show our degeneracy as a people is the little regard generally paid to the sanctity of the Sabbath. Ever since RICHARD M. JOHNSTON'S "Sunday since RICHARD M. JOHNSTON'S "Sunday mail report" was read in Congress, we appear to have been declining in true piety. Since the war broke out our de-cline in piety has been most marked, causing serious reflections and appre-tensions in every thoughtful Christian. This was particularly visible in yester. day's Pittsburgh Commercial. That pa-per desecrated last Sunday by the issu-ing of severel extras containing meagre and unsatisfactory "war news," but instead of its apologizing to the public for its impious innovation it triumphs and chuckles in the following provoking manner:
