----The Excitement.- The feverish excitement n regard to the late battles ought and to be fought along the Rapidan still continues una-bateds Hope and fear reign alternatively in the bosoms of those who have friends and relatives engaged on those sanguinary fields. The news comes in slowly, and, in some instances, contradictory. There is no doubt that several severe battles have been fought with immense es of human life on both sides. It is impossible to give any news of a local nature, at this time, that could be relied on. The names of some of the officers killed and wounded have arrest and rescue on Wednesday last, and subbeen given. field of strife, yet out of the number engaged nine tenths will still come of the field unscath- bright. The air, since the rain, has become much ed. Many of the former citizens of Pittsburgh and vicinity are now confronting a powerful enemy and some must fail victims to the scourge of war, but still many will return unharmed, wearing the proud laurels of victory. It is to be hoped that this is the final struggle and that soon the sweet words of union and peace will aber the hearts of millions who are now borne down with the sorrows occasioned by a protracted and a relentless warfare.
