Terrific Gale. In our dispatches by telegraph on last Wednesday morning information was received of a ter-rific gale on lake Michigan. We have just re-ceived tha Chicago Times which contains a graphic description of the fearful scenes withe near that city and along the lake. The gale is represented as being the most terrific and deuptive that has visited that place for a long time, yet, strange to say, but few lives were lost. The Times says: "In the black night, with the merciless elements tossing as they never tossed before, driving everything before them,
