Mayor's Office.-Yesterday morning a man named Jacob Eckhardt was brought before the Major-arrested by John Massner, and charg-1 00 ed with selling bad sausages, contrary to ordinance. Several adepts were called upon to taste the meat which they did and finally, after putting their heads together, they pronounced the case a strong one, and Eckhardt was fined accordingly. We understand that the tasting Committee afterwards presented their bills which the clerk, very good humoredly, refused 200 00 tofile for want, no doubt, of being presented in the proper shape. There were several other cases before his Honor. The principal one was an Assault and Battery, preferred by Mrs. Bentz against Mrs. Houk, Grant street. Officer Charles Ray brought the defendant before the Mayor who bound her in two hundred dollars ball to answer at court. The other cases were for disorderly conduct and intemperance. Accident .- On the afternoon of yesterday a boy named Reuben Walters, aged from three to four years, fell through a hole in the pavement four years, fell through a note in the preventant used for throwing coal down, on Wylle street, and was considerably injured. His face was cut and was considerably injured. Some coal leaf hauled a load of coal, took out the metal grating, which was not replaced and as the little boy was running along he fell through suddenly and very unexpectedly. On more than one occasion we have witnessed similar neglect in replacing the gratings that are used in closing $40,630 79 these openings and which alone renders the pavements unsafe to the unwary pedestrian. Pic-Nic .- About fifty couple of the gay and jolly young folks from Allegheny city enjoyed the pleasures of a pic-nic yesterday. They started at nine o'clock, a. m., went down the river about 2½ miles to M'Kee's Rocks and spent the entire day in innocent pastimes. We witnessed a portion of them returning. They expressed themselves well pleased with the days' entertainment. The evening was showery, but they didn't get much wet.
