"Old Curiosity Shop."

THE AID AND CO-OPERATION OF the patriotic people of West in Pennsylvania is hereby respectfully solicited for the above department of the great Pittsburgh Sanitary Fair, now in progress in this city. Numerous rare and interesting relics of the present war, of the Mexican war, and of the Indian and Revolutionary wars, and of the early settlement of the country, are connected with events and localities in this section of country, and in all the receptacles and attics of every description, in every part of the country, under the OLD CURIOSITY SHOP, will be the great attraction. The Committee, therefore, ask that all persons who are willing to help along the good cause, would send in such articles of the above description as they may have, or can procure from others, or know of, to the rooms where they can be found. Articles will be disposed of at the auction mart, or under the direction of the Executive Committee. But articles solely prized as relics, received for by any member of the Committee, will be carefully preserved and returned.

A list should accompany each article, giving its origin, history, etc., and if donated, by whom. Give everything you can and let it go.

By Order of the Committee,

JOS. S. MORRISON, Chairman.
GEO. H. CHRISTY, Secretary.

All articles to be packed, or boxed, or tied, and addressed to Bell, with, or addressed to either of the following members of the committee,

W. D. McGOWAN,
96 Water st., Pittsburgh,
HON. JAS. VEECH,
corner 4th and Grant streets,
DR. JOHN DICKSON,

A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING CERTAIN AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof:

SECTION 1. There shall be an additional section to the said article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:

SECTION 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors in this Commonwealth shall be in actual military service, under the call of the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are or shall be prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place of election.

SECTION 2. There shall be two additional sections to the seventh article of the Constitution of this Commonwealth, to be designated as sections eight and nine, as follows:

SECTION 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.

SECTION 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers or privileges in any case where the authority to grant such powers or privileges has been, or may hereafter be conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth.

HENRY C. JOHNSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN P. PENNEY,
Speaker of the Senate.

OFFICE OF THE
Secretary of the Commonwealth,
Harrisburg, April 25th, 1864.

PENNSYLVANIA, ss.

I do hereby certify that the above is a true and correct copy of the Original Joint Resolution of the General Assembly, entitled "A Joint Resolution proposing certain Amendments to the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Secretary's Office to be affixed, the day and year above written.

EDWARD MCPHERSON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In accordance with the foregoing Proclamation, I, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby declare and make known that the Amendments to the Constitution, as proposed by the foregoing Resolution, have been duly agreed to by two successive General Assemblies of this Commonwealth, and that the same are now submitted to the qualified electors thereof, for their approval or rejection, in pursuance of the requirements of the Constitution.

GIVEN under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the City of Harrisburg, this twenty-second day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-eighth.

By the Governor:

EDWARD MCPHERSON,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
