gentlemen, as to put on your spectacles and read the following.

FEATS AND FAILURES.
In nothing has the Administration of Mr. Lincoin been successful, save in its efforts to corrupt the people, and fasten itself indefinitely upon the Government. The foundations made be list in the affections itself indefinitely upon the Government. Its policy with foreign powers, from the surrender of Mason and Spiella, up to Mr. Sawand's late episte to our Minister at France, informing in that this Government had no idea of interfering with Marchon's unsurptions in Mexico, has been, not only humiliating business of each other.
