ILC FUSI---FILLISBUK Stitch, Stitch, Stitch.-In these days of fast and perfect Sewing Machines, there is no need of reading the pathetic lines of Tom Hood about the "weary and wan," who are evenlast-ingly engaged in the never-ending "stitch, stitch, slitch," for unfeeling and tireless, though per-fectly reliable and accurate, mechaniam exe-cutes the thankless task in a matter-of-fast way that puts pathos and poetry out of the question. Among those matchless and unitring automatic seamstresses, that of Wheeler and Wilson is justly conspicuous and celebrated. Meases. Wm. Summer & Co., of NO. 27 Fifth st, are the Agents for the sale of these Sewing Machines. Within the last three months over ian thousand of these machines have been manufactured and sold. They received the highest premium at the World's Fair, London, and the Industrial Exposition in Fairs. For family purposes they cannot be exaciled. The number constantly being neerived by Measra. Summer & O.o., indicated the want of the sale costly machine donated by them for the Sol-diers' be-aft. They have them of different styles and prices, and all warrantel for three years, which is an important consideration to the gurchaser. In passing along Fifth street, between Wood and Market, north side, a and wasted figure of a lady—not the wan and wasted figure of the Hood semastress-but one glowing with the bloom of health, is seen within the window, seated at, and oper-ting one of Wheeler & Wilson's matchless machines. The sight is very interesting and attracts the attention of many a passerby Memember the number, 27 Fifth Street. 2,00 1,00 2,00 2,00 $185,75
