

The Daily Post.

PITTSBURGH, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 22, 1864.

SLAVERY AND THE REBELLION.

When the Southern leaders forced their nation into rebellion, every one saw that if it persisted in it, it would eventually put an end to negro slavery.

On the 16th inst., in Congress the fanaticism of that body returned to their favorite amusement of killing slavery by legislation; they had a partisan purpose also to subvert.

According to this madman of the Tribune, all who do not favor his crazy and chimerical vagaries are necessarily advocates of slavery.

The following reasons for its rejection by one who opposed the proposed amendment, will strike the reader as being entirely unanswerable.

The abolition press is singularly tenacious in its adherence to Valandigham's defiant return from banishment.

It is this statement of the Gazette to be in what a lamentable and despicable position does it place our National Administration?

For this backing down, this utter "caving in," this exhibition of the white feather upon the part of the Administration, the country is indebted to the fearless position assumed by Fremont and his Cleveland convention.

THE ABOLITION PARTY.

Although the Pittsburgh Gazette for three years insisted that slavery was the cause of the war and that hostilities must continue until the institution is utterly exterminated—even if it takes "the last dollar and the last man," it yesterday made the following evasion.

The trouble with the thick skull of person who penned this, is that he and his brother fanatics can not see any thing but slavery that is in the way of crushing the rebellion.

This gallant and meritorious soldier has been assigned the command of the 10th corps in place of Gen. Gilmore. It was thought by the patriotic WILLIAMS, M. C. that he was not loyal enough to maintain command of the apartment of the Monongahela.

VERY CURIOUS REVELATIONS.

Thurlow Weed on Republican Rascality.

The Evening Post Overhauled—Mariposa Bedivius-Opyke, Ketchum and Field Fingering Fremont's Funds—The Money that made the Weekly Hero Go—About Greeley, Galton, Hunt, Camp and Cotton Campaigns.

THE CATLINE SLANDER

Inside View of Radical Roguery.

From the Albany Evening Journal June 18. The Evening Post attempts to reverse its position, making itself the assailed, instead of the assailing party.

Having borne quite long enough the reproach consequent upon these slanders, I take pleasure in calling attention to the distribution of a circular addressed to Washington, a claim against the navy agency.

The members of the firm, detected at last, and now being tried by court martial, kept a systematic set of books, from which Senator Grimes was permitted to make some extracts.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

THE CATLINE SLANDER

Inside View of Radical Roguery. From the Albany Evening Journal June 18. The Evening Post attempts to reverse its position, making itself the assailed, instead of the assailing party.

Having borne quite long enough the reproach consequent upon these slanders, I take pleasure in calling attention to the distribution of a circular addressed to Washington, a claim against the navy agency.

The members of the firm, detected at last, and now being tried by court martial, kept a systematic set of books, from which Senator Grimes was permitted to make some extracts.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

THE CATLINE SLANDER

Inside View of Radical Roguery. From the Albany Evening Journal June 18. The Evening Post attempts to reverse its position, making itself the assailed, instead of the assailing party.

Having borne quite long enough the reproach consequent upon these slanders, I take pleasure in calling attention to the distribution of a circular addressed to Washington, a claim against the navy agency.

The members of the firm, detected at last, and now being tried by court martial, kept a systematic set of books, from which Senator Grimes was permitted to make some extracts.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

THE CATLINE SLANDER

Inside View of Radical Roguery. From the Albany Evening Journal June 18. The Evening Post attempts to reverse its position, making itself the assailed, instead of the assailing party.

Having borne quite long enough the reproach consequent upon these slanders, I take pleasure in calling attention to the distribution of a circular addressed to Washington, a claim against the navy agency.

The members of the firm, detected at last, and now being tried by court martial, kept a systematic set of books, from which Senator Grimes was permitted to make some extracts.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

THE CATLINE SLANDER

Inside View of Radical Roguery. From the Albany Evening Journal June 18. The Evening Post attempts to reverse its position, making itself the assailed, instead of the assailing party.

Having borne quite long enough the reproach consequent upon these slanders, I take pleasure in calling attention to the distribution of a circular addressed to Washington, a claim against the navy agency.

The members of the firm, detected at last, and now being tried by court martial, kept a systematic set of books, from which Senator Grimes was permitted to make some extracts.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

Let Mr. Weed, then, confine himself to these. However, if he chooses to initiate another silly article of the same sort for the Evening Journal, he has our free consent.

TO-DAY'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

NEW LOCK STITCH AND DOUBLE LOCK STITCH MACHINES. Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company.

CONCERT HALL. SCHOENSTOCK. No. 62 Fifth Street.

THE HAIR PREPARATION. LUBIN'S COCOANUT CREAM. For Oiling, Dressing and Beautifying the Hair!

COLORED HAIR. ALEXANDER'S HAIR DRESSING. For the Hair of Men and Women.

THE GREAT SANITARY FAIR. For the Relief of the Sick and Suffering.

WHITE, ORR & CO. 25 Fifth Street. For sale at reduced prices.

H. D. BRECHT & CO. Manufacturers of Looking Glasses, Gilt and Rosewood Mountings, Portrait and Picture Frames.

"DREAMING OF HOME." Beautiful Words and Taking Music. Its popularity will be unbounded.