Criminal Court.—Frank Kelly, an Alderman of the Third Ward, was tried for misdemeanor in office, in not paying over certain money, about fifty dollars, to Mr. Michael Grady. It appeared from the testimony that he is an imbecile, occasioned by excessive drinking. The money was collected from his sureties. Mr. Kelly was found guilty in manner and form as he stood indicted.

Another charge was brought against him by one Mr. Donavon, who testified that Frank Kelly had taken him into custody and instead of giving bail for his appearance, Kelly accepted one hundred dollars which the prosecutor gave him. Prosecutor was discharged or acquited, but could never get the money back. On this charge Kelly was also found guilty.

The next case brought up was the Commonwealth vs. David Grain, James Forter, Joseph Beaver, Wm Brown and John Fay, for riot. These chaps got merry one day, hailed a colored boy who was driving a horse, took seventy-five cents from him and committed snudry other outrages. They were found guilty.

The next case brought up was Commonwealth vs. Peter McClorry, for assault and battery. He was fined $20 and costs.

Commonwealth vs. Edward O'Donnel, Chas O'Donnel and James Cilly for riot on the 25th of last April, was on trial in the afternoon.

Grain Elevator.—The men employed in excavating the foundation for the grain elevator at the head of Liberty street, continue to dig up relics of the olden time. A tombstone was dug up yesterday containing the name of Michael Laughlan, who died in 1832, and another lies near with the inscription, Michael Loughrer, who died in 1823. This building is going to be one of the largest in the city. It will take two million feet of lumber to finish it. It will be built of square logs, the brick buildings being objectionable on account of their aptness to draw moisture. The lower part of the building, that is the stone work, will cost about thirty-six thousand dollars. The building will be covered with slate and well weatherboarded with the same material, so as perfectly to secure it from the effects of dampness.

Mortality of the City.—Interments in the city of Pittsburgh, from June 9th to June 20th, 1864, as reported by Dr. Geo. L. McCook, Physician of the Board of Health, is as follows:

Males	11	White	20
Females	9	Colored	0
Adults	15	Children	5
		Total	20

Of these there were: Congestion of brain and lungs, extensive burns, disease of liver, consumption, rubeola, tabes mesenterica, convulsions, small pox, bronchitis, scarlet fever, one each; typhoid fever, inflammation of brain, still born, two each; congestion of brain, four.

Of the above there were: Under one year, three; from one to two, one; from two to five, seven; from five to ten, one; from fifteen to twenty, one; from twenty to thirty, two; from thirty to forty, four; from fifty to sixty, one.

Steubenville Tunnel.—That work is progressing quite rapidly. A large number of hands are now employed in excavating, arching and hauling the rubbish and earth away with carts. The central portion of the tunnel, under the hill, is already arched and men are busy at each end bringing the arching to a state of completion. In a few months we may expect to hear the cars of the Steubenville road rattling across the Monongahela bridge, through this tunnel, and connecting with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Malicious Mischief.—A number of boys congregated about the Wharf, amused themselves the other evening by throwing stones at a large number of car-boys full of acid, belonging to the Penna. Salt Manufacturing Company. They broke the necks off several and committed damage to the amount of about fifty dollars. Two of the lads have been committed to answer, and one is released on bail to appear at Court. This is the only way that some boys can be taught civility.

Drowned.—On Thursday afternoon John Duncan, a workman in the rolling mill of James Ward & Co., at Niles, was drowned while bathing in the Mahoning river, in the slackwater about a quarter of a mile above the mill. Duncan had swam half-way across the river and was seized with cramp. A fellow workman, named John Bagnell, was bathing at the same time, and when he saw Duncan drowning swam to him and caught him twice by the hair of his head, but was unable to rescue him.

Killed.—Corporal William Montgomery, a member of Company L, 102 Regiment was killed on the 16th instant while engaged in battle, the ball entering the right shoulder and passing out at the left arm. Corporal Montgomery was much thought of by his companions in arms and his death will be much regretted. John E. Shromyer, Michael McWilliams, Benjamin Truxie and Thomas Welsh of the same company are wounded.

A Boy Drowned.—Coroner McClung held an inquest on the body of a boy, about 16 years of age, who was drowned in the Allegheny river on Thursday. He was riding one of two horses that were pulling a flat full of oil barrels, and he either jumped off or was thrown off the horse, and not being able to swim was drowned.

Col. J. H Lehman.—We learn that Col. Lehman, formerly of this city and who was captured at Plymouth, North Carolina by the Rebels is now held as a hostage among others in Petersburg to prevent the Union Soldiers from shelling the city.

More Horses Killed.—Two horses were killed on last Sunday evening, in Washington county, by lightning, during the prevalence of the storm that evening. The horses belonged to a man named George Garren, of Robinson township.

Pittsburger Shot.—John Agnew was shot at Paducah, on Sunday the 12th inst. by a soldier. The shooting was deliberate and malicious. Deceased was formerly a citizen of Pittsburgh, latterly of Paducah, where he was engaged in the leather business.

F Lawrence County.—This county has paid into the Treasurer of the Sanitary Fair at Pittsburgh, upwards of $7,000 and promises more.

Sale of Buildings.—To-day the sealed proposals for the purchase of the Sanitary Fair buildings will be opened. These buildings are to be sold either separately or together. The gas pipe and several other fixtures are to be sold along or separately. When these buildings are disposed of, the Fair will be about wound up.

Butler County.—The last June court in Butler county revealed an increase of crime, as the grand jury acted on thirteen cases of affiliation, two cases of bigamy, one case of infanticide by burning an infant on a cook stove.

Greene County.—Hiram Smith of Centre township, Greene county, had his barn burned on last Monday morning, losing in all the barn and about $1,000 worth of wheat, wool and other valuables.

Arrested.—Two men named Kelly and Jackson were arrested yesterday by the Mayor's police for an assault and battery which occurred near the point.

Arrested.—Yesterday a large number of boys were arrested, for bathing publicly in the Allegheny river. This is a good idea, and may result in saving the lives of some of our youth.

Merited Appointment.—W. C. Moorhead, Esq., has received the appointment of Solicitor of the Western Transportation Company, vice John P. Hampton, resigned.

Floral Hall.—The entire receipts of this Hall during the Fair amounted to $8,250.

Corns and Bunions.—We take pleasure in announcing the fact that Dr. Randell, who performed so many cures equally of inveterate corns, diseased nails and bunions has returned to the city, and may be found at No. 20 Fifth street. Dr. R. has cured many cases where the patient had tried all systems before, and has certificates from Thomas M. Marshal, Esq., Wm Phillips, Eli Young, and many well known citizens who have suffered from these troublesome pests. On Saturday we were shown the following certificate from Henry Briggs, of Beaver county: "Dr. Randall extracted a most painful corn for me last summer,—the same inflamed my foot and rendered me perfectly lame, but in less than ten minutes I was ready to leave his office, and have never felt a twinge since. His cures are invaluable, and I wish his skill encouragement."

Dr. R. has made this branch of surgery the study of many years, as thousands of testimonials from all parts of the world clearly establish, and it is admitted by Surgeons and Physicians of Medical Schools and Colleges that he is the only real choropedist in this continent. Office hours from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Desirable Tavern Stand for Lease.—We would again remind our readers of the advertisement of Mrs. J. McDonald in another column. She offers for sale the good will and lease of that most desirable and commodious tavern stand on the Steubenville pike, at Chartier's Creek, three miles distant from the city, and within a few rods of the Steubenville Rail Road Station, when completed. The stand is beautifully situated and we know of no place where a better business could be done than there as it is on a much travelled road within a short distance from the city. The house is well fitted for a tavern stand, being large and commodious, having the bar described room in the main building, and being surrounded with a vegetable garden sufficiently capable of supplying the table with vegetables. To persons wishing to embark in the public housekeeping business, this stand is a very inducing one, and they would be repaid by viewing it. Mrs. McDonald desires to quit the business, hence the reason for offering it for sale. Further information concerning the house may be obtained by calling upon Mr. Robert McElraw with James Brownlee, No 16 Diamond.

Government Loan.—The ten-forty Bonds of the Government are not yet quite all taken. A few are left which those who have funds to invest can purchase at any of our banks. Investments of this kind are popular while almost any other bonds are a little uncertain at the present time and with the present fluctuation in the standard currency. By an advertisement in another part of our paper it will be seen that this loan is redeemable in coin and may be subscribed for from fifty dollars up to any given amount. The bonds bring about ten per cent. in currency, besides being good for their face, payable in gold when due. It will thus be seen that an investment of this kind affords as good a profit as one in any other stocks, while the holders has the government bound for the redemption. For particulars see advertisement in another column.

B. L. H. Dabbs.—Between Liberty street and St. Clair street bridge, on St. Clair street, just opposite the St. Clair Hotel, Mr. B. L. H. Dabbs has op. ned an extensive Photograph Gallery, where he has in employ a large number of artists and other persons engaged in taking and finishing pictures. The gallery, No. 46 St. Clair street, are about three hundred specimens of his photographs of all sizes and styles. Mr. Dabbs has also for sale choice frames of every quality and price, oval and square; he also keeps for sale a great variety of photograph Albums, varying in price from fifty cents to fifty dollars. Persons desiring to get quite a good, clear photograph taken would do well to call with Mr. Dabbs, and examine his specimens. Those who get a likeness will never regret it for he will not permit a defective one to go from the office.

Any of our readers who may have Beeswax to dispose of, are directed to the advertisement of Joseph Fleming, druggist, corner of the Diamond and Market street, who will pay the highest cash price for large or small quantities. Should you be in want of anything in the Drug, Perfumery, White Lead, Oil or Patent Medicine line, you could not go to a better place in the city, where you can get a finer assortment, or at more reasonable prices.

TELEGRAPHIC.

FROM OUR FIRST EDITION.

Situation of the Opposing Armies.

NEW YORK, June 24.—A Tribune special, dated Headquarters Army of the Potomac, June 21st, says: The troops of the Army of the Potomac proper are now disposed in a semi-circular line around the town, our left extending across the Petersburg and Norfolk Railroad on the south, and our right resting on the Appomattox at the Mills House, four miles north of the city. Gen Butler's forces occupy a position on our right and front to the north and westward toward the Petersburg and Richmond railroad.

There are different opinions as to the number of rebel troops lying in front of Petersburg. It is known that Beauregard's troops are there, as the great majority of prisoners thus far represent themselves belonging to his command. Gen. Lee's army, however, confronts Butler's and is so disposed as to defend any movement of Grant against the Petersburg and Richmond railroad. The occupation of this road by our forces would undoubtedly compel the abandonment of Petersburg, while at the same time it would hasten the downfall of the rebel capital.

The Petersburg terminus of the Norfolk, Weldon and Lunenburg Railroad came in our possession, with Gordonsville occupied by Hunter, and the cavalry constantly cutting the Danville Railroad, the fall of Richmond even without further aggressive movements on our part, becomes simply a matter of time.

An Important Movement by Gen. Meade.

NEW YORK, June 24.—A Tribune special, dated Headquarters Army of the Potomac June 23d, Tuesday, 11 p. m., says: As I write, another important movement of the army is being executed. The general headquarters are to be removed at 9 o'clock in the morning. Of course any details at present would be unwarranted. The movement has been one of Meade's own choosing, and we have not, and never could be taken from our position there, and the public will be cautioned in understanding the change to be prompted by the progress of advantages, and not forced by necessity. The utmost confidence prevails in the command.

LATER.—Since the above was written, dispatches from headquarters have been received, and the movement is carried to that it accomplishes is being made.

Important Proceedings in Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—In the Senate last night the bill to repeal the fugitive slave law passed by a vote of twenty-seven to twelve. The bill having passed both houses, only awaits the President's signature.

The bill of Mr. Morgan repealing the Seven clause, was taken up. Mr. Wilson's amendment providing the draft be for one year, was rejected. Mr. Wilson stated that the Secretary of War desired the repeal of the commutation clause.

Mr. Colamer proposed an amendment to make the commutation $500, which was rejected. The bill to repeal the commutation clause passed by a vote of 24 to 7. Adjourned.

Hampton and Fitz Hugh Lee Driven from White House.

NEW YORK, June 24.—A special dispatch to the Times contains the following: A dispatch from the Army of the Potomac, dated Wednesday, June 22d, says that no serious fighting had occurred since the night attack on Sunday.

A wounded officer, who arrived by the Lizzie Baker, says General Sheridan had a fight on Tuesday with Hampton and Fitz Hugh Lee, at White House. The rebels, being dismounted, at first threw our men temporarily into confusion, but they soon rallied, and drove the rebels two miles.

Meade's Secret Movement

NEW YORK, June 24.—A World special dated Washington, June 23, says: Advices from the front to yesterday (Wednesday) noon, are in hand, but state that it is almost utterly impossible to give intelligence of the movements which are in progress. Important results are in progress, but it is not deemed prudent to give any particulars for the present. The position of affairs around Petersburg remain unchanged. We still retain all the rebel works which our forces captured.

The Rebels Strengthening their Works.

NEW YORK, June 24.—A Herald headquarters correspondent of the 21st says: The bridges across the Appomattox connecting Petersburg with Pocahontas and Richmond, are daily shelled and rendered unavailable to the rebels. They are busy strengthening and enlarging their works.

Meeting of National Democrats.

NEW YORK, June 24.—A World Washington special says: It is officially announced that a meeting of the members of the National Democratic Convention will be held at Washington on the 20th inst, at noon, for the purpose of a general consultation, and for the deliberate consideration of important business.

Fight on the Night of the Twenty-first.

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY POTOMAC, June 22.—There was fighting on the left all last night, with results unknown. It is reported that the 12th New York battery lost four guns.

Nothing Later from Sheridan.

FORTRESS MONROE, June 23.—A steamer from Bermuda Hundred reports that no further fighting had occured up to 10 o'clock this morning. Nothing later from White House or Sheridan since his arrival there.

Latest from New Orleans.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The Columbia from New orleans, June 18th, has arrived. Gen. Canby is visiting Admiral Farragut, off Mobile. Gen. Sickles arrived at New Orleans on the 18th inst.

Our Cavalry at Work Again.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June 23—6 A. M.—Wilson's division of cavalry moved on Tin the direction of the Weldon railroad, and when last heard from had reached Rives' Station and were tearing up the track along the road. The Second and Sixth corps moved from their old positions on the right toward the Weldon railroad. Gen. Lee seems to have anticipated a movement by our left flank or else he declines our right. When near the Jerusalem plank road the Second corps was confronted by Gen. Hill's corps and a smart engagement ensued. A battery of the Second New York Artillery was annoying the enemy, who succeeded in getting around its flank and charged it. The infantry supporting the battery were surprised and after a faint show of resistance retired, leaving 4 guns in the hands of the enemy.

Important Movements Expected —Our Lines Extended—The Draft Commutation Clause.

NEW YORK, June 24.—All headquarter's correspondent of the Philadelphia Enquirer, dated 21st, says: Events of federal movements may be shortly looked for. Our lines have been extended on our left so as to cut the Petersburg and Weldon railroad, thus effectually interrupting the line of communication between Richmond and the Gulf Southern States. Distant artillery firing was heard to the left to day, probably a division of cavalry engaging some force of the enemy. Our base at City Point is one of the best we have had during the entire campaign.

The Post's Washington special says: The caucus of Union members of the House last night gave evidence that the draft commutation cannot be abolished at this session of Congress.

Latest from the Front.

PHILADELPHIA, June 24.—A special to the Bulletin says that the rebels made a rear attack on Wright's and Hancock's corps, and captured four guns of Knight's N. Y. Battery, and took 400 men, being a well depleted regiment. Our men were rallied and re-took the ground and captured 700 prisoners. Our line was then reformed, the men were becoming accustomed to Lee's new practice of acting entirely on the defensive, and most have been confused by his bold and sudden onset. The 2d division of the 9th corps were within easy supporting distance on the right, and the 9th corps were ready for any hostilities of the left. Charges were made by the rebels who suffered severely with their fresh assault. There was heavy firing in front of the 9th corps.

The New York Gold Market—Our Losses since Leaving the Rapidan.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The Commercial says the large prices have brought a good deal of gold, which is bought out in small lots at about 2,10 by the brokers and sold at 2,13@2,15, but no large amounts can be sold at that figure. A sale of $50,000 was made at 2,15. Parties from Washington say the gold law will be modified in favor of the use of checks.

The Post leans upon the best official authority that Grant's losses in killed from the time of leaving the Rapidan till reaching the James, was not over 4,000. The wounded were less than 5,000, a large majority of the injuries being very slight. The permanent loss in the army will not be over 20,000.

Slavery Abolished in Maryland.

BALTIMORE, June 24.—The Constitutional Convention of Md., in session at Annapolis, passed to-day by a vote of 53 yeas against 27 nays the following article of the bill of rights: Hereafter in this State there shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except in punishment of crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, and all persons held to service or labor as slaves are hereby declared free.

New York Gold Market.

NEW YORK, June 24 —Gold without decided change, opening at 2,12@2,16; closing at 2,15 @2,16.

PITTSBURGH PRODUCE MARKET

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST,
SATURDAY, June 25, 1864.

BUSINESS—Yesterday exhibited an improvement; the demand for the leading articles were more extensive. Prices generally ruled the same as the previous day. Sales were good at the lowest range, the only four announced for the day being at the steamer Union, which leaves for Zanesville at 10 a. m. The weather was intensely hot. Among the sales we note as follows:

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST,
SATURDAY, June 25, 1864.

BUSINESS—Yesterday was dull, buyers manifested no disposition to operate to any extent. The stock on hand is very limited especially of crude. The receipts yesterday by the Allegheny river only amounted to 430 barrels. The river is low all the way to Oil City, nothing but light flats and keels can navigate the stream. Buyers generally were asking a concession larger than holders were willing to except, hence we have nothing to report. The rates were altogether nominal.

CRUDE—We heard of crude being offered at 4dc. packages included, without finding purchasers for bulk lots or bbls retained the asking rates were 5@5½c.

REFINED—Sales 500 bbls Bonded, delivered in Philadelphia; 110 bbls at Erie at 75c for present delivery, delivered on cars; 1,000 bbls Bonded, present delivery at 85c.

RESIDUUM AND NAPTHA—Prices nominal.

New York Dry Goods Trade.

The cotton-goods market has received a great impetus, and prices have advanced 25 per cent. within the last ten days. The excitement is extreme. The stock of goods is very light in all hands. Raw cotton has advanced to 190 cents for middlings, and will probably be higher before wheat we will be purchased and resd. The demand for prints is
