Theatre-The entertainment at the Theatre to-night, which will be varied and entertaining, will be for the benetit of the "leading lady" of the company. Mirs. Kate Ryner. The talented and versatile beneticiary, deserves well of our play- goers. Besides being an actress of great care and industry, shels an old Pittsburgh favorite, which entities here to a share of the oare and at- tention which our people are slaws ready to bestow upon genuine merit. We trust to see a full house at the theatre this evening. Inde- pendent of Mirs. Ryner's claims as ameritorious actress, there is one other reason why she should be patronised liberally by our people. Her husband, at the first call of his country, obeyed the impulses of a patriotic nature, and isolider harge claims upon our care and at- tention. Let us therefore give Mirs. Ryna a substantial benefit; the entertainment she offers is well selected.
