Hadly Injured.—An accident occurred to Capt. Grace and family day before yesterday of a serious nature. The Captain had hired a carriage and driver to take him, his wife and his sister out the Perryville road to visit friends and see the country, and when about six miles out the horses took fright and ran off the road, tumbling down a steep place, rolling over several times and breaking the carriage to pieces. We understand that Capt. Grace received several cuts, bruises and other injuries of a serious character. We did not learn whether the ladies accompanying him were much injured or not, but think they escaped safely. The Cantain of July Celebration.

These figures make a pretty fine show for the wool trade of the Grand River Valley in this locality, thus early in the sanson—in the mere opening of the trade. Judging from the smoure of this staple article already sold in our market, this jear's ellp will nearly, if not quite double in quantity that of any other season.

The finest ellps of wool yet brought in, and probably the best grown in Kent county, about 1.6c0 lbs, has been received by W. Hinseldi, from W. R. Davis of Oakfield, and Luther Johnson, of Alpine. Numerous other large and fine ellps have been purchased from various ordine clips has being the finest, choicest, and in every particular averaging the best wool. Who will best them next year? That's the question.

Mr. Hinseld has already shipped 10,000 lbs of wool this year, and he sends off 3,000 lbs more totals. New York Hide Market.
