The groom said after-wards, that his inster housed like a man 214 that had seen a ghost. A few days after wards, his steward received a letter from him, directing him to forward a certain sum of money at specified periods to a sum of money at specified periods to a sum the last communication received from him.

The sudden disappearance of Jane Wilmot excited a great deal of talk in the country round. Various rumors were, of course, in circulation to account for it, but that which received the great. for it, but that which toot the was most to enerally credited, was that Mr. Meygenerally credited, was that Mr. Mey-rick had taken her away with him.
