LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 8, 1884. Arrival of the 62d Regiment.-The 62d ent which went out in July, 1861, under he lamented Col. Samuel Black, returned yesterday evening about 4 o'clock from the seat of war, under command of Col. Sweitzer, now acting Brigadler General. This gallant Regiment went out full tweive hundred strong, and as their ranks became decimated by the severe conflicts through which they passed, the breaches were often filled up by recruits, and yet but about dred are left to enjoy the pleasure of returning home to greet their friends and rela-The Regiment was expected at one o'clock but owing to an accident to the engine beyond Altoons the train was detained till fou during which interval of time hundreds of kind friends lingered around the railroad station swaiting their arrival. When they did come to the outer depot they were detained again for a halfhour. After a long wait the train pushe down and haited opposite the end of Wood street where thousands of well wishers gathered around them. There was then and there such greeting as none but those who are long absent We saw the tears flow freely from ioldiers that had often braved the terrors of war with hearts undaunted. Mothers and sisters wept with joy that the lost had again beer found, having escaped the thousand dangers o

The Great Western Band was in readiness and after å brief time given for friendly saluta tions, Col. Sweitzer gave command to march to the City Hail, where a collation was served up for them, of which they freely and gratefully partook. After dinner was served the Regiment marchedto the Girard House to give over their arms to the proper authorities. These poe soldiers look much worn and tanned, ! pear strong and full of mirth and good humo We understand that about sixty or seventy of them have re-enlisted and after a brief period of time spent among their friends they will again return to the seat of war. There never was a more brave Regiment in the field, and their honor is untarnished by a single act of disobe-

Love for the Negro .- A case of recruiting by substitution has just occurred in Allegheny city, which shows how a poor colored boy can and has been imposed upon by professing

A boy or young man named Buck was subs tuted for a drafted man named Aaron Cozard. The latter paid $700 for the substitute, while Back only got $100. Two other parties nabbed the rest. In addition to this it appears they put him in the Watch-house and kept him there five days under the charge of stealing a watch. which charge was false, as it is proven that he has had the watch for months and that it is his own. This was done to frighten the boy and to make him agree to give part of his money away. Men that could commit such an act deserves to be severely dealt with, but in all probability they will slip out of it.

Railroad Accident .- An accident of a be rious character occurred this week on the Central Railroad about a mile west of Middletown, Pa., by which several persons were injured. Some workmen were engaged in repairing the road and had left, setting up a red flag to de-note danger. The engineer did not notice the flag as it was near the ground, but dashed along at full speed. The locomotive (No. 235) and eight-cars ran off the track, tive of the cars and the locomotive, being dashed to pieces. The train was in charge of A. C. Barr, Conductor, and Samuel Kourts, engineer, the latter was badly injured. A Scotchman named Michael McCogne, was also severely injured. The engineer is not to blame, as the rule of the road is to wave a signal flag in case of danger.

The Steamboat Iowa.—It is asserted by persons worthy of credence that the steamboat lows which left Nashville a few days since for Cairo, is hard aground a few miles above Cairo. The Iowa is worth about fifty thousand dollars. A part of her furniture has been removed and it is not expected that she can be got off the bar

Serious Accident. As the cars came in on | the Allegheny Valley Baliroad yesterday even-ing, about six o'clock, a cow came on the track and the locomotive struck her and was thrown from the track and it and the baggage car was smashed to pieces. One man was either thrown from the windowor jumped from it and was se riously injured in the arm. The passengers a got off the train and came in by the Citizens No. 63 Nassau street, New York city, are au- Passenger cars, the accident having occurred near this city, opposite Sharpsburg and near the garrison. We have not heard whether o not any person was injured.

Contents of the Weekly Post-The Werkly Post of this week will contain about twenty-five or thirty columns of reading matter comprising political, miscelland eous, local and news items. An account of the St. Xavier's cademy exhibition, at or near Latrobe, Westmoreland county, the commencement of exer class of Pittaburg Female College, letters from the army, &c. will be interesting to many and will render this issue especially, a very desirabla paper.

Theatre.—To-night Charley Wilkinson takes a benefit at the Theatre. There is not a more whole-souled gentleman connected with the old Urury than this same Charley, and we hope to see the fullest house witnessed this season. The scenes and plays will be attractive in the extreme, and a night could not be spent happier than attending this popular and far-famed institution.

THE POST---PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 8, 1864. TELEGRAPHIC. The Rebel Raiding Force 40,000. FROM OUR FIRST EDITION. FROM HARRISBURG.

. Skirmish at Hagarstown, Md.

OANNON PLANTED IN THE STREETS OF CHAMBERSBURG.

All Business Suspended

HARRISBURG, July 7.—The situation is as follows: The rebels drove a reg ular company of United States troops the advance cavalry of this Department, out of Hagerstown yesterday, with the loss of a few wounded and two killed on our part. Our force numbered only seventy. It had driven the rebels out of the town the day before, taking three prisoners—a lieutenant and two privates Our regulars retreated to the State line this morning.

Adams' Express and the Chambers ourg Bank have sent all their materials o this point. All business at Chambersburg is stopped, and cannon planted n the streets. There is a strong determination of the citizens to defend the place against any more raiding parties.
General Couch came here from Chambersburg this morning on a special train The authorities here think the raid is a very heavy one. At least thirty thousand rebels are on the march, they There are hourly expectations of hearing from Hunter on the enemy's rear in the direction of Willamsport, Maryland. His troops are expected to reach Cumerland over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. It is not broken anywhere

The enemy's line of march seems ter ding towards the Washington and Baltimore railroad, north of Fredrick City The first object is apparently to separate Washington from the North. Not uccessful at that, then to turn, sweep ing everything before them in the Cum rland Valley on their retreat towards Virginia.

The Raid-Rebels Stealing and Plundering-Great Destruction BALTIMORE, July 7.—The city is full of rumors, but the following is believed to be correct: Intelligence from Maryland Hights and the region beyond, and the region beyond, and the region beyond the beautiful that the region force. warrants the belief that the rebel force now on this side of the Potomac and o the Virginia side is not less than 30,000. Advices from Sandy Hook to ten o'clock this morning say that skirmishing was going on back of the hights, but the number of rebels there is small The rebels can be seen towards Sharps burg, driving off cattle, horses, and plundering the farmers in the valley. No large force is visible. Advices from Greencastle, Pa., this a. m., says that the rebels occupy Hagerstown, but the force is not known. While in Middle town yesterday, the tebels plundered the people of their horses and other prop The railroad is still unobstructed as far as Sandy Hook, opposite Harper's Ferry. It is believed there was only a small rebel force on the Virginia shore, have destroyed all the railroad property there, the telegraph and ticket office and burned a large quantity of forage.

Good News from our Armies Ex-New York, July 7.- The World has information from the front, stating that Wilson's losses have been a party exaggerated, Four of his guns were recapgenacu, rout of his guns were recap-tured from the enemy. Notwithstand-ing the rebult and into Maryland and the distrust in State affairs, as shown by commercial men in the high price of Pa. gold, there is reason to believe that farorable military news will soon be made known to the public by the measures that have been taken to guard Pennsylvania. It is believed that the rebels will not be in sufficient force to do any material damage. Very good news is expected from Sherman. Nothing less, in fact, than the capture of Atlanta. Military men here say that with the loss of Kene men here say that with the loss of Kene-say Mountain, the rebels cannot reason-ably hope to hold Atlanta, as there are no positions beyond the Chattahoochi at all equal to those this side of it.

Good news is also shortly expected from Grant's army. It is believed that Petersburg will shortly be in our hands. It is well understood that nothing the rebels can do by way of the Shenandoah Valley will induce Grant to send any portion of his army to the defense o Washington Movements are now under way largely reinforcing Grant's army by veteran troops, from points of less vital importance than Richmond. A Heavy Artillery Battle.

NEW YORK, July 7.—A Herald's 18th corps correspondent of the 2d says: To day witnessed one of the most exciting day witnessed one of the most exciting artillery battles of the war, after two hours cannonading the rebel batteries were completely silenced, and the gunners driven from their place.

At 3: p. m. the rebels opened again furiously and soon the gramy's line. furiously, and soon the enemy's line works was enveloped in one continuous cloud of dust, caused by our shells. The rebel gunners could be seen running to the rear for places of safety. After two hours of fighting every rebel battery was silenced. Our batteries had been placed with great skill and care, so that at any mo-ment they can be concentrated on any given point. Our bombardment of the city is steadly doing its work. A num-ber of buildings have already been de-stroyad!

stroyedl The Rebel Raid Into Maryland. NEW YORK, July 7. - A World Washington special says: Notwithstanding the wild reports, it is learned that the rehels burned only one unimportant bridge west of Harper's Ferry, at Patterson creek. Governor Curtin telegraphs that 20,000 rebels had crossed the Potomac at Point of Rocks, when trains from here have run to-day to and beyond that

The Star says: Gen. Hunter has joined Gen. Sigel, and will make short work of the raid.

No Rebels in Maryland. New York, July 7.—A Tribune special, dated Baltimore, July 6th, 10 p m., says: The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company have just received intelligence from Bandy Hook, opposite Harper's Ferry, stating that not a rebel is to be seen or heard of at Harper's Ferry, or in any part of Maryland, and that it is believed that by to morrow morning there will not be one anywhere in that vicinity, they having skedaddled up the valley, it is thought, to escape being cap tured by Hunter.

From Charleston. NEW YORK, July 7.—A private letter dated off Charleston states that the rebel officers sent there have been placed in comfortable quarters, where the rebel shells most do fall. The occasion of the suspension of the habeas corpus, and the announcement of martial law in Kentucky, is anticipated to give trouble in enforcing the draft, and particularly in the enlistments of The Hebel Haiding Force 40,000.

NEW YORK, July 7.—A Tribune special, dated Monocacy, Md., July 6th, says: Gens. Wallace, Tyler and Howe are here, preparing for an emergency. A party of rebel cavalry was driven back from near Frederick to-day. Gen. Sigel reports the whole rebel force 40,000 strong.

Vice President Hamlin in the Ranks. Bangor, Me., July 7.—A portion of the State Guard left this morning to garrison Fort McClary. Among the privates was Vice-President Hamlin.

Destruction of Petersburg Certain. NEW YORK, July 7 .- A Tribune Washington special says. Petersburg is now covered by over 1,000 of our guns. and were Grant to give the word, its destruction would be the work of but a few ours.

FROM WASHINGTON

The Fight at Hagerstown, Md.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The Stur says ve have information direct from Hagerstown to the effect that on Tuesday p. m. at 3 o'clock a rebel squad, consisting o 15 cavalry men, commanded by Lieut Shaver, formerly of Martinsburg, Va., entered that place. This force appeared to be a reconnoitering party and they had only been in town a few moments when a detachment of our regular cay ally from Carlisle, commanded by Lieut. McLean, dashed into the place. A brief cavalry fight immediately ensued in the streets of Hagerstown, which resulted n the rebels being driven out of town with the loss of the Lieut, and 2 privates taken prisoners. About half an hour the town, their forces consisting of cavalry and mounted infantry. Lieut. Mc-Lean, of the Union cavalry, finding his force too small to cope with so large a number of rebels, slowly fell back to the Pennsylvania line, carrying with him his prisoners. The rebels after entering the town set to work to destroy the telegraph, but they had made no demonstration against the railroad when our informant left. They also plundered many of the stores and seem to have adopted a different form from the one they pursued last summer.
