LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 1864. Missing Papers.—Any of our readers who find copies of the "Daily Post" from June 14th to July 13th, with a blank space for leaving or sending them to this office, or our files are thoughtless from that date.

Central Board of Education. The Central Board of Education met Tuesday evening, July 12th, 1864.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Mr. McAuliffe, from the Committee on Teachers, presented a report which was accepted and read.

Table with 4 columns: Principal, Teachers, Primary, and Intermediate. Lists names and counts for various schools.

High School.—Principal, 1 Professor of Mathematics, 1 Teacher of Drawing, 2 Assistant Teachers.

Colored Schools.—One Principal and one Assistant. School No. 1000, Professor of Mathematics $1000, Teacher of Book-keeping and Penmanship $500, Teacher of Drawing $250.

Provided, in case of the appointment of teachers, in less than one year's experience in teaching in Public Schools, then said teachers to receive $20 per month.

Sanitary Pairs.—The following bills were presented and warrants authorized in payment therefor: Dr. P. Schumann and Dr. J. H. Deane, $100; Dr. J. H. Deane, $100; Dr. J. H. Deane, $100.

Weekly Review of the Oil Trade. We clip the following from the Oil City Register, giving a review of the oil affairs in that city for the past week.

The business for the past week has been moderate active. The tendency in prices is still upward, notwithstanding the fact that many of the large dealers have ceased to operate.

Teachers' Salaries.—At a meeting of the Central Board of Education, last night, the following scale of salaries for the teachers of the city schools was decided on.

Principals, $800; Grammar Teachers, $400; Intermediate Teachers, $300; Primary Teachers, $200; High School—Principal, $1000; Professor of Mathematics, $1000; Teacher of Drawing, $500; Book-keeping, $500; Teacher of Penmanship and Book-keeping, $500.

Sanitary Pairs and their Results.—The series of Sanitary Pairs being several months ago at Chicago is now nearly closed. Its substantial results have been in the highest degree satisfactory.

Recruiting in the City.—The recruiting of one hundred days' men is progressing rapidly. Yesterday one company was in readiness and this evening another will be prepared to start for the front.

Rebel Scouts.—Several rebel scouts have been captured within the vicinity of Harrisburg. One of them was found to have a large amount of money in his possession which excited suspicion.

Fire in St. Louis.—A very destructive fire occurred in St. Louis on the 12th inst., destroying the property of Barwell & Johnson, owners of the Olive Street Hotel.

Killed.—A man named Andrew Ziegler, of Williamson, fell under a freight train while in the act of jumping over it at that place, on the 11th inst.

Lawsuit.—Some of the employees on the Stuebenville railroad sued the contractor before Alderman Donahoe for their wages. It appears that they agreed to work for two dollars per day and the contractor refused to give them more than one dollar and seventy-five cents per day.

Corps and Business.—We take pleasure in announcing that Dr. J. H. Deane, of Harrisburg, has been appointed Surgeon of the 10th Maine Infantry.

Trusses and Supporters at Banker's Drugstore, 63 Market Street, below 4th.

Charlotte Bismarck.—We are indebted to Mrs. Bismarck for two sheets of music, entitled "Bismarck's March," which will be published by the Daily Post.

Dupres and Green's New Orleans Minstrel.—Last night they had great success at the Theatre. Their songs were well received and their dancing was much admired.

Golden Era.—We are indebted to the Golden Era for a copy of their new book, "The History of the United States," which is well worth a perusal.

For Sale.—The good will and fixtures of a liquor store, now doing a good business in this city, is for sale. The owner is leaving the city and desires to sell at once.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. J. H. Deane, of Harrisburg, who is seeking for a partner in his business.

Harper for August.—The favorite Magazine has been published and is now on sale. It contains many interesting articles and is well worth a perusal.

The Sporting Papers.—The following papers are for sale at the Daily Post: The Sporting News, The Sporting Chronicle, The Sporting Review.

Its Results Invaluable to Baltimore. Gov. Bradford's Call and its Results.

New York, July 13.—A gentleman from Baltimore informs the Evening Post that the battle on the Monocacy, though a defeat, was invaluable in results to Baltimore, as it held in check the rebels until the authorities could make arrangements to repel the attack, if any made.

Gov. Bradford's Call and its Results. The call was responded to by thousands. At midnight bells were rung, and 6000 men hastened to the place of meeting, among them four veteran soldiers of the Revolution.
