We believe, moreover, that the Govern-ment has lost an opportunity not likely to recur, to appropriate to itself and the cause the universal willingness to respond to a popular call for men. It has chosen a work the ment days of the second a way the people does not ilke : one that a not work well. Members of Congress have the work user. Accuracy of congress have misrepresented the people, and been coerced into going contrary to their judg-ment in giving the measure their support -a fact they will not fail to realize. - Ed-itarial Pittsburgh Commercial.

"Adrah a tresourge commutation, was found to be una-vallable; while a draft, without commutation, was deprecided by all right-minded men as a measure too deposite to be thought of even in this great na-ilonal extremity.

Men must be had ; but we have learned from ex-perience that a draft, with commutation, will not procure that a draft, with commutation, will not draft, without commutation, would be a measure too barbarous to think of .-- Communication Pitts-burgh Gazette.

A LAMENTABLE FACT.

constant prattle in that connection, causes our rather verdant neighbor to sometimes tell more than its more cautions Abolition contemporaries are willing to admit. Alluding to the late call of the Administration for more troops it remarks:

It is ten days since the Government called for twelve thousand men for one hundred days, to ebeds the operatic as of the robel horse thieves in Maryland yet, so far as we can ascertain, not a single regiment has been filled in this State. This is a lamentable fact, but it is nevertheless true; and is it any wonder? Do these Abolition editors imagine that there is no end to human suffering and patience? Is it any wonder that the people of our State, even while the infrontier, and in the neighborhood of the J. M. Trimble, Highland. they are?

The Austrian Navy at Sea. The possibility of a naval war in Europe between the German Powers and Great Britain, gives a circumstan-tial interest of the moment to a statement which we find in the Triester Zeitung between the German Powers as to the performance of the Austrian fileet on its way from the Adristic to the gate Don John, all of them noble shins of their respective classes, well appointed. well officered, and armed. But they had hardly got out to sea before a strage and appalling calamity fell upor

The crew of the Kaiser, with the exboth ships, having been overtaken by a tempest, were considerably damaged, the iron-clad particularly being obliged to put into Lisbon for repairs. Neither crew could be mustered once on the passage for artillery practice, and the probable efficiency of these bulwarks of Teutonia against the royal navy of England may he more easily imagined than Cotton Growing in Mexico.
