GLAD NEWS FOR THE UNFORTUNATE!
THE LONG SOUGHT FOR DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY,
AND
CHEROKEE INJECTION

Compounded from Roots, Barks and Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

☞It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day.

☞It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with it. A medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞By the use of the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

☞For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write to us and we will mail free to any address, a full treatise.

☞Price Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

☞Price Cherokee Injection, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

☞Sent by Express to any address on receipt of price.

☞Sold by all druggists everywhere.

THEY ACT AS A CHARM,

By strengthening, invigorating, and restoring the system to a healthy condition, and by bringing on the monthly period with regularity. No matter from what cause the obstruction may arise. They should, however, NOT be taken the first three or four months of pregnancy, though safe at any other time, as miscarriage would be the result.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose they would not let one of their family go to a party that had devoted years for their benefit, because his advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Ball and M. Paul Ricord devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my general success; but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhœa and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be cautious in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. Blooming in the meadow green;
Spreading out thy shining petals,
Lowly clinging to the sod.
Lowly clinging to the sod, dearest,
Bowing in the sunny hours,
Bowing in the rainy hours,
Bowing in the stormy hours,
Lowly clinging to the sod.

Yellow daisy! how I love the,
While the robins sing around,
While the robins sing around thee,
Murmuring sound the sing-song sound,
Murmuring sound the sing-song sound.

Even when alone I wander,
Dost thou greet me from each spot,
While I sit and silent ponder,
Gazing with expressive look.
On thy fine, uniform volume,
Nature's sparest, fairest book.

With its glowing, amber pages,
Eloquent with truths divine,
Traced with shining, golden letters,
On each surface, fine and fair.
Ever dost thou, brightly glowing,
Smile upon the hours that wane.

HOW TO AVOID THE DRAFT.

"It will be remembered that the New England Congressmen refused to permit the repeal of the 'commutation clause,' until authority had been given to buy substitutes in the States in rebellion. In this new traffic in flesh and blood, Massachusetts bids fair to surpass all competitors, as she did in the good old times when she pretty much monopolized the carrying trade between Africa and the Colonies, and voted, with Connecticut and New Hampshire, against Pennsylvania and Virginia, in favor of that clause of the Constitution which prevented Congress from prohibiting "the immigration or importation of such persons as any of the States now existing shall think proper to admit," prior to the year 1808. Governor Andrew's "swarms" preferring to continue their manufacturing operations at home, he has already matured an elaborate system to enable them to do so; and his agents will be hard at work at Nashville and Newbern, Vicksburg and Hilton Head, long before any one else has moved a hand. By this "inter-State traffic"—as it used to be called—"patriotic" Massachusetts will be able to ransom her own citizens and to continue without interruption in her career of shoddy prosperity. But there are some of us who are not so fortunate as to understand exactly how to combine devotion to a great moral idea with the thrifty pocketing of sixty-six and two-thirds per cent. dividends; and unless we can imitate the examples of the philanthropists, or improve on it, it will be necessary to shoulder our muskets. To escape this necessity, seems now to be the aim of every true patriot—most especially of those whose patriotism should be undoubted, if we may judge by their frequent proclamation of it—and we therefore suggest an improvement upon the Massachusetts plan, with the confident assurance that it will be fairly and carefully considered. It is this: To reopen the trade in human flesh in Africa. According to the evidence made public in the Arguelles case, likely negroes can be delivered in Cuba for about three hundred dollars a head, or just what it used to cost a white man to escape the chance of being shot. The business, however, is not now conducted under favorable auspices. The risk of capture is considerable, and this greatly increases the expense. Indeed, we are inclined to believe that the prime cost of able-bodied men would be very inconsiderable in many sections. In their heroic efforts to suppress unholy rebellions, it often becomes necessary for established Governments—like that of Dahomey for example—to execute thousands of traitors at a time. It would be doubtless highly satisfactory to them to replenish their exchequers; and it would certainly be gratifying to the condemned, to have an opportunity to cross the Atlantic, and make amends for their offense by striking a blow in a war waged for them and their race; and if they should not, it will not matter, as rebels have no rights which loyal men are bound to respect. To be sure, if gold continues to advance, the price of exchange upon Timbuctoo and other great centres of trade may become so excessive as to render the price of a substitute there as high as that of one in South Carolina; but then, those who have not been degraded by a life of sin very ought to be worth a good deal more; and it may also happen that the variegated beauty of Mr. Chase's notes will atone, in the eyes of the dwellers by the shores of Lake Ngami, for its inconvertibility. The green, and the red, and the brown, and the gilt, which adorn his uniform currency, are likely to be much thought of by the pure negro. It should be added that, while the scheme is thus a perfectly feasible one, it is also entirely loyal. In his last annual message Mr. Lincoln again submitted to the consideration of Congress "the expediency of establishing a system for the encouragement of immigration." His sanction is therefore already given, and if the scheme succeed, and anything happen to him, we will not lack material from which to choose his successor.

The Spanish are thinking of a maratime canal around the Isthmus of Panama, to supersede the Panama Railroad. The plan is estimated at twenty millions of dollars.

The President's Call for Troops.

From the N. Y. Evening Post.

Let the Government, or the Lieutenant General in command, deal frankly with them, tell them plainly how numerous a force is required, and how rapidly it must be under arms, in order to secure the success which is now, as all believe, within our grasp, and the East would turn out regiments as fast as the West did its hundred day men in May. Such a call, so made and so understood, would encourage everybody. It would be responded to by the best blood of the country, it would create a new enthusiasm.

But the shape in which the President has chosen to put his demand is, we are constrained to say, pretty sure to do the very reverse. We infer from a peremptory draft, as we believe everybody believes, that the war is speedily to be ended; to demand men for three years, when the struggle should be and must be over in six months, to call for them at a time when the country had got it firmly imagined that a hundred thousand would suffice to terminate the struggle, this does appear to us to misunderstand the spirit of the American people, and to blunder.

This is apparent in the first place, because it is sure to be misunderstood by our enemies abroad and at home. It will be received as a confession of weakness, and not as a sign of strength. It will be regarded as a compliment to the resisting power of the rebels; it will be quoted as an official acknowledgment that unless our army already so vast, is made stronger by half a million of men, it will fail. In the second place, because it is sure to encourage the hopes and efforts of the rebel sympathizers. Quite people, rather desirous of peace, even at the sacrifice of the Union, are influenced by the tone of current events. Those who never believed in efforts or success, are confirmed in their unbelief. Those who have been lukewarm, are chilled. Those who have been ardent, are disheartened. The tone of the press, the tone of conversation, the tone of public meetings, are all affected by it. Even those who are loyal, and who have been encouraged by the general tone of the press, and the general tone of conversation, and the general tone of public meetings, to believe that the end was near, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, are disappointed. They had begun to think that the end was near, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was about to collapse, and that the rebellion was
