LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 1, 1864. Artival of Geni Couch. Gen Couch arrived here last night after eleven o'clock to con-sult with Gen. Rowley for the safety of the city-He took up his quarters at [the Monongahela

Mass Meeting at Wilkins Hall. Yesterday at 11 o'clock, a. m., a grand Mass Meeting was held at Wilkins, Hall for the purpose of adopting measures in order to sustain Gen. Rowley in case the invading tide should turn its course towards the Monongahela valley, The assembly was very numerous, and all were willing to perform their utmost in defense of the city during the present emergency. On motion of H. A Weaver the Hon. James Lowry, Mayor was elected to preside over the meeting, and the following were elected to be Vice Presitents; Hon. W. P. Johnston, Thos. Bakeweil, Eq., I. H. Bennett, Major Wm. Frew, John Atwell, John F. Jennings, Christopher Zuy, Jos. R. Huiter, John W. Killin, James Bfackmore, John M'Donald, Gen. Thos. M. Howe, Anthony M'Tighe, John S. Cosgrove, John Harper, Wm. P. Phillips, John M'Quewan, Harvey Childs, A Garrison, James Park, Jr. Secretaries; John C. Harper, Daniel O'Neill, W.o.-M. Hartzell, James Onslow, Dr. P. Hill

Mayor Lowry briefly opened the proceedings by stating the purpose for which the meeting was held. Here upon the Hon. Wm. P. Johnson was called upon to address the assembly. He spoke of the emergency in eloquent terms, requesting the cooperation of the people in meet ing the present difficulties, and avert the danger if possible. After this several of her gentlemen ascended the platform, and addressed the audience to the same effect. The proceedings closed with the resolution requesting all manufacturrers to suspend business during the cris is, in order to make preparations to meet the impending danger; and the formation of a committee of seven to consult Gen. Rowler on the best me, sures to be adopted in desence of the city. The following are the members of the Committee : J. I. Bennett, Thos. Bakewell, Jackson Duncan, The miss M. Howe, James Lowry, Jr. T. B. Brunot and James Park, Jr. After this the meeting was " coursed till 3 o'clock, p. in .

The adjourned meeting of the forenoon was re-opened at 30'clock, p. in , gt the Controler's office. A resolution was past samestly requesting the citizens to suspend busin  during the crisis, and the principal manufacture. s to report the names of those men who are desirou. of joining the service, and who are at present in their employ. It was also made understood that if the above requests would not be complied with, martial law should be declared throughout the county on to-morrow. The names of those of ficers were taken who were esteemed competent of raising and organizing companies for the

The Enrolling Officer.-The officer appointed to enroll the names of individuals sub-ject to draft has been making his rounds through our city for the last few days, and that unwel-come visitor did not fail to make his presence felt in many of our wards. The greater part of the city have already been subscribed to the list of those who are about to serve their allotted time in the field, and bear their share of the trials and dangers which attend the glorious life of a soldier. But, if we must admit the truth. the speculative and ideal part of war is far more agreeable to our feelings than the stern reality, and if we could judge well of the expressions of some of the countenances we met yesterday, etc. This would as soon not have their names enrolled among those who aspire to distinction in the glorious trade. However, we rejoice to the salt and every one submitted peaceably.

On Friday night last a man named J. Ward returned to Lafferty's house, where he was stopping, in a state of intoxication. He retired to his room, and apparently went to sleep, as he created no disturbance. But on Saturday morning his lifeless corpse was found lying on the sidewalk, in front of Lafferty's tavern. It appears that deceased, not being able to bear the suffocating heat which prevailed during the night, went to the window and, in leaning over, ost his balance, with the above fatal results. The coroner having been notified of the fact, held an inquest on the body and rendered a verdict of accidental death. This is a lesson for drunk.

Volunteer for one Year,-Lieut. H. Scandutt has received authority to raise a company to serve for one year, and has opened a recruit ing station in the Diamond, Allegheny City. The highest local bounty will be paid to all recruits, and they will have the further advantage of serv ing under a man who has seen service, and is fully qualified in every way for the position, An excellent opportunity is now offered to the who desire to avoid the draft, and at the same time receive the snug little sum of two or three hundred dollars. Remember, the service is only for one year. Step up, gentlemen, before it

Thunder Steem .- On Sunday morning s thunder storm arose, and although it continues for a considerable time, and some loud peals were heard, hardly any rain fell. It would be very desirable at present to have such another fall of rain as we enjoyed last week, as it would refresh the air, and render the weather cool. which has been remarkably warm for the last few days.

Captain Negley was endeavoring on Sunday to raise a company of mounted scouts, the same to proceed at 8 o'clock on the same day 10 Uniontown, and thence scour the country in search of information in regard to the invaders. But not having succeeded as well as was anticipated, he did not start at the appointed time, but will probably do so this morning.

Runaway Horse.-A horse ran away with an express wagon on Saturday afternoon, down Wood street towards the river. He etarted from Fourth street, and ran with a reckless speed, running into several vehicles on the way and creating a universal scare among the pass eraby, down as far as Water street, where he was stopped in his career with some difficulty.
