A Nest Correspondence.

Letter from Gen. McClellan.

Our readers remember the splendid military review purchased by the admirers of Gen. McClellan...

It will not lessen its value...

Mr. FRANK SELLERS, M. E. SELLERS, Ladies Donating.

NEAR OAKLAND, N. J., July 27th, 1864.

Ladies—Upon my return to my home for a few hours yesterday I found awaiting me your very beautiful gift with the accompanying note.

I regret exceedingly the delay in acknowledging it, which has resulted from my absence from home, and trust that you will, even at this late day, accept my sincere thanks for this most gratifying token of your regard.

It much increases my pleasure and gratification to learn that it has been the means of aiding so much to the fund for the benefit of the gallant men in whom we all feel so deep an interest, and who deserve so much at our hands.

I am, ladies with much respect, very sincerely your friend.

Geo. B. McClellan.

Mrs. FRANK SELLERS, M. E. SELLERS, Miss MARIAN SELLERS.

Peace and War Democrats.

Since the present unhappy war broke out, there seems to have arisen a new class of Democrats...

Some are denominated war, and others peace Democrats...

It is not necessary to say that the war Democrats are essential and indispensable to the existence of the Union...
