e Defense of the City. ion of how we are to defend the city, and preserve our property from destruction is one of very great importance, and deserves property to preserve. We are all aware that efforts against our city if they find an opportunity to do go, and already the noted M'Causland has expressed himself to that effect The immense resources of Pattsburgh, together with the vaft, and that he wished the rebellion would be wealth of the citizens, would be too great s temptation for freebooters like these to resist, and the pleasure of destroying a city whence the Government obtains so much sid in guns and have been taught to look upon us from their earliest youth with an eye of hatred, and who now thirst for revenge for the injuries which they say they have received from Hunter and other northern generals. But there is no necesatty forus to prove that the rebels would at tempt to destroy Pittsburgh if possible, this is an acknowledged undubitable fact, which no reasonable man will try to controvert, and reports inform us that they are in such number that they will attack us if bossille, therefore, the state of the question is this : What are we to do, and how are we to defend ourselves in case merciless freebooters make a descent or the Monongahela valley? We are now in a not prepare curselves for the danger which apmation.

We would advise the citizens of Pittsburgh to arouse themselves to a sense of what their duty demands of them, shake off their apathy, and show themselves ready to meet the invader on his own grounds, on the field of battle to defend our children, our homes and all that is dear to us, or claims our affection. Let the citizens act in concord with the Committee of public safety and have men and arms in readiness for the first necessity. If we do not do this we will be continually exposed to invasion, and our city will be open to the firebrand of the marauder who is now scouring the plains of Pennsylvania in search of prey. If we were organized, armed and drilled, we might | John McClung .. defy their efforts, but in our present state we can Alex. Aiken do nothing. In place of arousing ourselves to a sence of our condition, and preparing ourselves to meet the worst, will we calmly await the issue of events as if we were not concerned in the matter? Shall we rely implicitly on the word of a General against whom serious charge have been brought already of incompetency, and who might abandon us in the moment of danger? We would be the last in the world to say any thing derogotory to the name of General Couch, but certain it is that those who have been so unfortunate as to have placed their reliance on him for protection, are now excited to the highest pitch of indignation against that Gen'l. A prudent man would rely on no one whosoever he be, for the preservation of his life and property. Shall we rely on one whose competency is seriously doubted, and who is charged of having abandoned his protegees in the hour of neril? We do not wish to sustain the unfortunate inhabitants of Chambersburg in their assertion, that Gen. Couch made away with his personal effects previous to the arrival of the invaders, but certain it is that he did not remain invaders, but certain it is that he did not remain there, and the citizens were abandoned to the mercy of a horde of wolves in human form. We must not permit such scenes to be renewed in must not permit such seenes to be renewed in arms would be required, if the invaders menacour midst, we must rely on no one but our own

The Committee of Home Defense.—This committee we are happy to state, manifests a great deal of willingness and alacrity in taking nessures for the public safety, and it is very certain that they could not have been selected with better judgment. They have met several times since the committee was formed to investigate into the present state of affairs, and take action accordingly. The resolution which was unanimonsly adopted by the committee authorizing the mayor to proceed immediately with the enrollment of the citizens in the several wards of the city, in order to organize a strong and ef-nicient militia force is highly beneficial, and we delight to be able to state that in adopting this | Hooker passed throughour city on Wednesday neasure, they have perfected that which every citizen thinks proper to be done. The Committee propose having the militia well drilled in case of danger, which is nothing less than a strict necessity, as no one could suppose that a raw mi-litis regiment would be able to contend with any nope of success, with a tried regiment of invaders who have already learned experience in warfare in numerous field of battle. We hope that this resolution will be approved of and put into operation immediately, as the many benefits which may be expected to derive from it can be better imagined than explained.

The Installation of Archbishop Spaulding.—The installation of the Very Rev. Bishop Spaulding of Louisville, Kentucky, in the archiepisopal digatry at Baltimore, is represented as having been a very grand affair, and created quite a sensation in that city. At an early hour all the avenues leading to the Cathedral were thronged with people, anxious to inspect the ceremonies which were announced as about to be of extraordinary magnificence. There was a grand procession of prelates from the archiepisopal residence to the cathedral, and several other circumstances which added greatly to the solemnity of the day. The new Archbishop addressed the people, and spoke eloquently on the government of the Church. Among the distinguished prelates present was also Rt. Rev. Bisho, Domenec of this city, together with Rev. Dr. Keegh, of Glenwood. The cocasion was one of unusual solemnity and mag. gether with Rev. Dr. Keogh, of Gienwood. The occasion was one of unusual solemnity and mag. nificence, and one that will be long remembered

The great National Weather Indicator.
This simple and beautiful Instrument, with a Themometer attached, although, but just intro-The mometer attached, although, out just introduced hundreds attest to its accuracy in fore-telling changes of the weather from wet to dry, and visa terso. The acting moving principle is the pistule of a flower tound in Syria, and is so highly sensitive that it is acted upon by every change of the atmosphere. No Bayometer here tofore manufactured will tell with accuracy the approaching rain, but this National Horoscope, the work of natures own hand fills up the void which man could not accomplish and voints its which man could not accomplish, and points its unerring finger to all changes of the weather.
