

The Daily Post.

PITTSBURGH, WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 10, 1864.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

ROBERT L. JOHNSON, Republican Party.

A HEAVY BLOW ON LINCOLN.

There are many Abolitionists who while they admit the incompetency of Mr. Lincoln to discharge the duties of his office in a crisis like the present still persist in their support of him for re-election, because they say "he is honest."

NEWS GRAPHERS.

A fire broke out in the jail at St. Scholastica Canada which three unfortunates were burnt to death.

THE INDIANS.

The Indians are reported as very discontented in the North.

THE WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT.

The Washington correspondent has issued directing that there shall be no more of the previous calls for troops.

ANOTHER NEW JERSEY EDITOR.

Mr. W. H. W. has suppressed another paper. He has no objection to Messrs. O'Brien and Co., publishers of the Evening Bulletin informing them more he would not attempt to suppress the execution of the draft.

MR. MORRIS'S CASE.

Mr. Morris's case is still going on in French and American circles, and among naval men and lawyers, respectively.

MINING AND COUNTERMINING.

The report that the rebels were endeavoring to mine our works in front of Petersburg appears to be true.

HEIMSTREEK'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Restores the hair to its original color and texture, and cures itching humors.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM.

This is the most delightful and pleasant balm ever discovered.

THE NEW IRONSIDERS.

An order has been issued by the Navy Department for the fitting out of the new ironclads.

THE COINAGE AT THE UNITED STATES MINT.

The gold deposits at the United States Mint for the month of July were $300,645 25.

DEED.

GARTER, on Monday morning, at the age of 64 years, died at his residence in the city of Pittsburgh.

The Executive ALLIANCE of the West Department and the leading Abolition press of the country seems to be exhausted.

The Gazette, about the same time that this was published by the Commercial, stated that GRANT had told some one who told another person, who gave the story to a reporter for the press, who published it.

After this assurance the General, as usual knickered the ashes off of his confidence.

GRANT shows that he does not know what to do; and after losing about a hundred thousand men, in pursuance of the Administration's instructions to go to Richmond overland, he is taxing his ingenuity to find out some new point from which to operate against Richmond.

But that stubborn and skillful commander is sorely taxed, subjected as he is to the interference of the bunglers at Washington.

THE WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT has issued directing that there shall be no more of the previous calls for troops.
