The Draft .-- The time allotted for recruiting volunteers is fast going by, and only half of the fifty days now remains within which the various towns, wards, &c., will be allowed to fill their respective quotas under the President's quisite quota, while others were not so fortunate, and have yet to perform much towards ering. However, the present state of affairs is encouraging, and if we do not discontinue our efforts, we may entertain hopes of having them crowned with complete success.

Railroad Accident .-- A fatal railroad acneighborhood of Johnstown, in which one man was burnt up, and another was severely injured.
