PITTSBURGH: MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 15, 1864. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

ROBERT L. JOHNSON, RICHARD VANCE, WILLIAM LOGAN, JOHN A. BURNETT, EDWARD P. DUNN, THOMAS M. BRIDGES, GEORGE F. HENRY, PHILIP S. GERRARD, GEORGE G. LESTER, MICHAEL SELLER, PATRICK M. AVOY, JOHN H. WATSON, OLIVER S. DICKENS, ABRAHAM B. DUNNING, Wm. Montgomery.

Direct the attention to an able speech of Hon. WALTER H. LOWRIS, delivered before the Democratic Central Club of Pittsburgh, and published in to-day's paper.

How to Save the Draft. Last year the Abolitionists told the people to vote for CURTIN and save the draft; that his election would more to crush the rebellion, than the destruction of Lee's army. Mark the result: OCTOBER 14th, 1863, CURTIN ELECTED--MAJORITY OBTAINED--ED BY FRAUD, 15,335.

OCTOBER 18th, 1863, DRAFT ORDERED FOR 300,000 MEN!

FEBRUARY 1st, 1864, DRAFT ORDERED FOR 200,000 MEN!

MARCH 15th, 1864, DRAFT ORDERED FOR 200,000 MEN!

WHOLE NUMBER CALLED SINCE CURTIN'S ELECTION, 700,000 MEN!

JULY 18th, 1864, ANOTHER DRAFT ORDERED FOR 500,000 MEN! Makes Only 1,200,000.

Having experimented for nine months in drafts to the rolling number of 1,200,000 men, supposing we send LINCOLN back to Springfield, and see if there is no way of stopping the infernal slaughter which these conscriptions.

MR. VALLANDIGHAM. We owe the Dayton, Ohio, Empire an apology for not noticing at an earlier day its spicy and tart allusions to the Pittsburgh Post; our excuse is, that in the hurry of business, our time has been occupied in the consideration of more important matters, not but that we fully appreciate the importance of the "Empire."

Had we not had a proper appreciation of it before, its gallant defense of Mr. VALLANDIGHAM--when none was needed--would have caused us to place a proper estimate upon its principles and calibre. It is a common thing for small but presumptuous people, to endeavor to shine by the reflection of others; to become brilliant by borrowed light; to seem to be the ambition of the Dayton, Ohio Empire, whose very name indicates that, like a Colossus, it imagines itself capable of bridging creation. But enough of this.

Some two or three weeks ago, we, alluding to the return home of Mr. VALLANDIGHAM, spoke of the Administration's winking at it for its own propretion.

That VALLANDIGHAM was permitted to return home, is as sure as his living, and the interesting inquiry is, what the Administration expect to make by his presence in Ohio? They expect through him to make a blunder which will cost the National Democratic Convention at Chicago, who will not be able to see him, and who will not be able to see him, and who will not be able to see him.

For these and similar utterances, intended to guard the Democracy from a trap which we presumed the National Administration had set for it, by allowing Mr. VALLANDIGHAM to return home, the Empire treats us to a column of flippant abuse, which is utterly without point or emphasis, because there was no occasion or cause for it. Our remarks were intended to serve the Democratic party, not to damage or disparage Mr. VALLANDIGHAM. But this is a distinction probably too nice for the heated individual who penned the Empire's criticism.

In the heat of the conflict, when VALLANDIGHAM was hearing himself with such a staccato and indomitable fortitude against the persecutions of a corrupt Administration, the Post although published in "Abolitionized Allegheny county" in the Empire styles it, having no "axe to grind" by doing so, did not shrink from its duty in denouncing the act which, in the dead of the night kidnapped him for the expression of his opinions of public affairs. Had the blatant and fussy Empire been in our place, it might perhaps have endeavored to "grind an axe" by justifying instead of denouncing the outrage. At all events, and in conclusion, the Empire now, that Mr. VALLANDIGHAM has returned in defiance of the Administration and in triumph, can lose nothing in the way of "axe grinding" by constituting itself its peculiar champion. It had better wait for that "axe" hereafter; upon which he relies for the vindication of his course and character."

Most of our readers have succeeded in making his escape from his uncomfortable position at Niagara Falls. His brother walked out and floated a rope down to him, and by this means he was enabled to walk across the rapids to Goat Island.

THE MASS CONVENTION AT PEORIA, ILL.

On the 3d inst., last, a very large mass convention assembled at Peoria, Illinois. The objects of this convention were to give utterance to a vigorous protest against the usurpation of the Executive Administration; to express popular opinion as to the best means of uniting the opposition to Lincoln; to discuss the most proper way of opposing our civil disturbances; and inaugurating a solemn and anti-destroying campaign in Central Illinois. The meeting passed off in the greatest harmony.

Letters from many distinguished Democrats were read. Among them the following from Hon. Thomas H. Seymour, of Connecticut. HARTFORD, Conn., July 29, Messrs. B. Morris, W. W. O'Brien and others, Committee:

GENTLEMEN--I thank you heartily for your obliging invitation of the 23d inst., requesting attendance at the mass meeting of the Democracy of Illinois at Peoria, on the 3d day of August next. You have done me a great honor by making your invitation to me, and it pains me, that I cannot return you a favorable answer. So many things of importance to the cause are occurring every day around me, which I wish to give notice of as they arise, that I do not feel at liberty to make engagements remote from the city. Besides, I have thought I could not be of much service at such meetings, which is another reason for being compelled to decline some invitation. Under best circumstances, I must beg you will kindly excuse me to the friends in whose behalf you have addressed me.

I see by your communication, gentlemen, that the gallant Democracy of Illinois fully appreciates the importance of the present crisis in political affairs, and are preparing to meet it like men. Fortunately, circumstances are favorable to your efforts. We notice with satisfaction a decided change of sentiment on the state of the country and its probable future, is beginning to prevail among the masses. This is apparent on all sides, and is likely to be productive of good results. Thousands who have heretofore been opposed to you, we must presume, from honest conviction, will now flock to your standard, and will fully assist to carry you State for the Democracy of the November election.

So at least the prospect is presented to my own mind. In this I see the force of truth, which, slow at first to make itself felt, becomes in its progress as resistless as a fire on the prairies, or a freshet in the Illinois or the Connecticut.

Your brief, yet spirited, letter presents the true issue before the American people, and suggests the means of delivering us from an Egyptian bondage. "Shall the people preserve and maintain their constitutional liberties?" By all means, and at every hazard! The negative of your inquiry is as easily answered: "Or, would like sanction and uphold the despotism which now prevails over them?" Never! That is not the voice of one man merely, who don't aspire to be heard beyond his own neighborhood, but of millions, who say again, never! "Is it not your duty, as citizens, never to assent to any measure that is not in accordance with the principles of the Constitution?" Yes, it is. It is a plain question of liberty or servitude, and should be dealt with accordingly. We were born free, and, by the blessing of God, we will remain so. The worst enemies we have to deal with at the present time are those who, if we may judge by their actions, have conspired to establish a despotism over the people of these States. The scene of their crafty and insidious intrigues, which bears the honored name of the Lincoln Administration, struck down the rights of the people, and trampled upon the rights of the Constitution.

THE RECALL OF GEN. McCLELLAN. A petition is being vigorously signed, intended to be presented to the President, asking him to recall Gen. McClellan from his present position. It is a universal impression that this popular general could rally fifty thousand volunteers to his standard.--New York Times.

WE are assured that Joseph Howard, the forger of the President's proclamation, which anticipated by a few days his call for a new draft and a day of fasting and prayer, was released from Fort Lafayette some days ago. A person of his name, at the present time, is in New York, an average of 70 daily, and has been since 1830 the previous year.
