Our Loss on the Weldon R. R.

Full Particulars of the Affair.

HEADQUARTERS OF POTOMAC, Aug. 21. Our losses at the Weldon Railroad, Friday, were greater than heretofore reported.

The number of prisoners taken by the rebels is now put down at 1500. It seems that our troops were surprised, many of them being in shelter tents at the time trying to escape heavy rain that had been falling for several hours previous.

The rebels appeared about noon on the right of the road, in front of the 3d division of 5th corps, but this was evidently a feint for the purpose of forcing our lines. About 3 p. m. they charged in heavy force between the 5th and 6th corps, and succeeded in tearing the flank of the former, capturing a large number of prisoners. This part of our line was forced back some distance, when the ninth corps, which had been relieved the night previous by part of the second corps, checked the advance of the rebels and taking a few prisoners. A heavy column of rebels at the same time charged on the left of our line west of the railroad, held by 2d division, Gen. Ayers, which they broke, and here they also took 500 or 600 prisoners of a regular brigade, which was commanded by Gen. Hayes, who is believed to be a prisoner, as he cannot be found.

A whole line was thus forced back with heavy loss in killed and wounded. The rebels, however, suffered worse than we in this particular, their men lying thick all over the field. Before dark our men were reformed, and being reinforced, a desperate charge was made, and our lost ground, which we held until night, the line which had been taken from us in the afternoon, Col. Carlisle reported a prisoner, also Col. Hart, who was shot through the chest, and narrowly escaped capture. Lieut. Clark, of his staff was killed in the arm. Lieut. Meade and Merroll, Capt. Smith, of Crawford's regiment, had their horses shot while carrying their orders, and in the confusion the various commands, the last named was a prisoner, but seeing a favorable chance, Capt. Doolittle, of Col. Wheeler's staff was ordered to surrender, when he, getting furious at an epithet applied to him, seized a musket and bayoneted the rebel against a tree.

Col. Wheeler's brigade, third division, was flanked when they failed to rear, charged and drove the rebels, and took a number of prisoners. The entire number of prisoners captured by us is about 300, and some stands of colors. Our loss is estimated at over 3,000.

Nothing but skirmishing took place along the lines to-day, both parties being busy entrenching themselves. A battle is looked for at any moment, as the enemy seems determined to regain possession of the road, while we are determined to hold it.

The prisoners taken mostly belong to Beauregard's and Hill's corps; they are healthy, although clad as usual.

LATER--8 a. m.--Considerable artillery firing has been going on on our left since 4 o'clock, and in at times quite brisk. No musketry can be heard, the distance from headquarters being too great.
