Compounded from Roots, Barks and Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such a Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Stone in the Bladder, Strictures, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and Albus (or Whites in females), where all the old pan ceas Have Failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day.

As a diuretic and alternative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet or Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, allaying and mollifying; removing all scalding, and almost unendurable pain that is experienced by the use of the ordinary Injections.

By the use of the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to health and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write to us and we will mail free to any address, a full treatise.

MEDICAL.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.

THE PRIVATE MEDICAL ADVISER, an invaluable treatise of 64 pages, by

DR. JOHN HARVEY,

published for the benefit of the sex.

On receipt of ten cents it will be sent post paid, in a sealed envelope, to all who apply for it.

It gives a concise description of all the diseases peculiar to females, together with means of cure, and treats of Conception, Pregnancy, Miscarriage, Sterility, Sexual, Abuses, Prolapsus, Uteri, Female Weakness, Consumption, &c., and much other valuable information not published in any work. Every lady should procure a copy without delay. Three Editions, 50,000 each, have already been published and distributed this year.

HARVEY'S CHRONO THERMAL FEMALE PILLS

the most infallible and popular remedy ever known for all diseases of the female sex. They have been used in many thousand cases with unfailing success—and may be relied on in every case for which they are recommended, and particularly in all cases arising from OBSTRUCTION OR STOPPAGE OF NATURE, no matter from what cause it arises. They are effectual in restoring to health all who are suffering from Weakness and Debility, Uterine Discharges, Nervousness, &c., &c., and they ACT LIKE A CHARM in strengthening and restoring the system. Thousands of ladies who have suffered for years and tried various other remedies in vain, owe a renewal of their health and strength wholly to the efficacy of

Dr. Harvey's Female Pills.

They are not a new discovery but a long tried remedy—the celebrated

DR. JOHN HARVEY,

one of the most eminent physicians, prescribed them for many years in his private practice, and no physician was more truly popular or widely known than him in the treatment of

FEMALE DIFFICULTIES.

All who have used DR. HARVEY'S FEMALE PILLS recommend them to others. Nurses recommend them—Druggists and Dealers recommend them in preference to other medicines, because of their merits. No lady objects to taking them for they are elegantly

Prepared by an Experienced Chemist.

Price One Dollar.

Cut this notice out if you desire Dr. Harvey's Pills or Book, and if you cannot procure them of your Druggist, do not take any other, for some dealers who are unprincipled will recommend other Female Pills, they can make a larger profit on—but enclose the money and send direct to

DR. J. BRIAN, General Agent,
76 Cedar Street, N. Y.

Box 5079.

Who will take all risk if properly directed; and you will receive them post paid, securely sealed from observation, by return mail.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) Why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians, of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose then they would rather see one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost despaired of the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Ball and M. Paul Ricord devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my generous success; but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhœa and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. McCLELLAN CAMPAIGN SONG.

Hark! hear ye the bugle that rallies the people to save this great Nation from ruin and shame!
Whose loud notes are ringing o'er hill and o'er valley,
Proclaiming our faith in McClellan's proud name.
Then up with our banner! Our gallant young leader,
Is our best and our bravest—his deeds are our fame!
No jokes from his lips when our whole land is
With the blood that has burst from the hearts of our brave,
Let the face of our country "gleam the hot breath of battles,
Where our heroes have struggled, is watered to graves.
Then up with our banner! Emblazon upon it
We will give to our country the man that she craves"

McClellan shall lead us!

He will carry the flag he has led on to battle—
Not a star would he tear from its broad field of blue,
The flag that will soon, in triumph and glory,
Float over the heads of our fathers triumphantly new.
Then up with our banner! Our hero and sister,
Can conquer all storms that fanatics can brew.
We don't label him "honest"—experience teaches
That trumpeting trademarks but cover deceit.
No rebuke from his lips of his senseless detractors;
His quiet appeal to all falsehood can meet.
Then up with our banner for George B. McClellan!
Our hopes and our honors we throw at his feet.

Hotels or no hotels to suit the occasion,
When gravest of destinies balance the scale,
He acts like a man and he talks like a statesman.
Though we never yet heard of his "splitting a rail."
Then up with our banner for George B. McClellan!
With him as our leader, say, how can we fail?

SPEECH OF HON. JAS. S. THAYER.

The following is a full and correct report of the eloquent speech of Hon. James S. Thayer, of this State, delivered in the Chicago Convention on the motion to make the nomination of General McClellan unanimous:

I may be considered inappropriate by some, for a member of this convention to rise at such an hour as this to make a speech, but as I have said nothing since I have been here, I beg the convention will excuse me for occupying a small portion of its time. I know that this is not a place for words, but that it is the grandest stage of human action of our day and generation, and for the future of our country. It will be marked, in my judgment, as a great event in history, that the Democratic party assembled in solemn council in 1864. Three years and a half of civil war, that has destroyed many things and changed almost everything, leaves to-day the Democratic party undestructible and unchanged. Amid all the rude shocks of the conflict, with some aberation of its own, you can still mark the grand current of its orbit, and the promise that it will circle round to the fulfilment of its highest and best destiny, the reconstruction of the Union, and the reestablishment of the Constitution. (Applause.) And in this, while all other parties, factions and organizations, after a long revelry in the guilty glory of this war, self-destructive, are about to expire in the ruin and wreck of ruin they have produced, I say then, that to-day the Democratic party, with its imposing and august presence and aspect, sends forth its heralds to the living leader. (Tumultuous applause.) And now, let me not call the roll of States, but ask you, as you come from the North and the East, what will you do? What answer does New Hampshire, Maine, and Vermont make from beneath their mountain homes, and old Massachusetts, from the sweet swelling mound of Bunker Hill, what say you and Connecticut from your Charter Oak, what is your response? (A voice—"The Constitution and the Union.") The Union, the Constitution, is your answer. New York, with her empire voice responds to them, and tells you here to-day that on your platform and with your principles we will reconstruct our Government, and again restore to this land, peace, prosperity and happiness to all. (Great applause.) And now let me say a word here, and it is this, we want in this contest brave men. We have a platform, we have a candidate, and now will you not come, ye men who hold the confidence for the Democracy of this country, ye men of the North, in the central States, and over the West. We want, I say, brave and intrepid men, because no man knows what is in the future. Yes, do you not see that while this convention has been in session they are seeking to array your Western Soldiery against you, to overturn the power, and overthrow them into a bow-string struggle upon, and throw you helpless amongst the Bourbons, wherever and all your liberties will sink to rise no more. (Voices—"Never, never.") And do not believe they can do it, for I do not believe they can find the men to stand forth in the future as they have done in the past, and the gentlemen of the present and in the future cannot be found who contain all the gentlemen of the past, or accomplish deeds of greater glory. (Applause.) Then, gentlemen, I say, let us stand by the platform as it is, in its length and breadth, adopt your leader as the choice of the people, indicated and approved by yourselves; let that name go forth—"McClellan, McClellan, for a leader"—across your western prairies, beyond the mountains, down the slope, until it mingles with the murmur of the Pacific; hail, ocean, let it pass to the East, and go up to those beyond your great lakes, and they will re-echo to—McClellan, McClellan, for our leader! and take care, ye men of the West, that when our throng that crowded Avenue on the eventful day in November next, that the banner of New York is not raised higher than any other on the line, beyond the great lakes. (Great applause.)

[Here the proceedings were suspended for a short time.]

MR. TOMPKINS OF NEW JERSEY.

Mr. CHAIRMAN:—I have carefully made a record of the speeches of the Chairman of the Democratic Committee, and I do not hesitate to pronounce it one of the most able and eloquent addresses that I have ever heard from the lips of any man. Sir, it is especially appropriate for medicinal use, it is, in most cases, superior to other wines. Its principle effects upon the system are many stimulating, diuretic, aperient and tonic. It will prove beneficial in diseases of the Kidneys, and Chronic Diseases of the Urinary and Genital Organs, with General Debility of the Constitution. Physicians may safely recommend it to patients in place of the many doubtful mixtures now offered as pure wine.
