A fatal accident has lately occurred at Point orstion: Let mis add what, I doubt not was, although unexpressed, the santiment of the Ookavenion as it, is of the people they represent, that when any one State is willing to return to the Union, it should be received at once with a full guaran-tee of all its constitutions! rights. If is frank, carness and persisting effort to obtain those ob-jects should fail, the responsibility for ulterior consequences will fail upon those who remain in arms against the Union. But the Union must be preserved at all hazards. I could not look in the face of my gallant comrades of the army and navy who have survived so many bloody battles, and tell them that their labors and the asprifice of so many of our sign and wounded brethren had been in valu; that we had abandon-eff that Union for which we have so often perili-ed our lives. A vast majority of our spenje. A stati accuent has takely occurred at Mont Bianc, being the first since Dr. Hamel's accident in 1820. Two Aus-trian gentlemen had made a successful ascent of the mountain, and gere de-scending to the grand plateau. A young oorter, Ambroise Couttel, was some dis tance in front, not attached to the rope. He mok a direction too near the edge of the plateau, and just as the guide of the the plateau, and just as the guide of the party shouted to warn him of his dan-ger, he was engulphed in a crevasse be-fore the eyes of the others. The cre-vasse was ninety feet of sheer depth, and ed that Union for which we have so otten perior ed our lives. A vast majority of our people, whether in the army or navy, or at home, would, as I would, hall with unbounded joy the perma-nent restoration of peave on the basis of the Union, under the Constitution, without the ef-fusion of another drop of blood. But no peace can be permanent without Union. vasse was minery lett of sheer depth, and the rope was not long enough to reach bottom. The guides approached the edge of the crevasse and leant over. They say the traces of the man's fall, and called, but received no answer. The cold on the plateau was intense, and feeling convinced that the man was dead they continued their route. The Coal Diggers Meeting.

The reports that have reached us as to the proposale of Niagara diplomatists suggest to us the alarming thought that in the next American way we may be called upon, whether we wish it or not, to play a prominent part. The negligent apa-thy of statesmen has let slip the oppor-tunity of securing the gratitude, and friendship of the Southern people. strued to extend to enlistments actually made on the high seasas well as to those effected in the British ports. Thus it ap-pears, while a great hue and cry is made pears, while a great hie and cry is made in British journals and among rebel sympathizers in Great Britain about the American plan of facilitating immigra-tion, and a tedious suit and vexatious delays follow from the enlistment of a few sailors for the United States service, as in the case of the Kearsarge-all on the plea of a violation of the Enlist-ment act-a hole is found in the law big enough to drive a rebel privateer through with but little difficulty. This is a fair sample of British justice and fair play, and is fully on a par with the hoasted neutrality of the British govern-ment in regard to the contest now waging in this country. A day of retribu-tion will surely come.

A WONDERFUL PLANT.-Within Union tears : few years one of the most singular veg-etable productions has been discoverd in the Damara country in Africa. The plant grows to be a century od/ and its trunk attains a circumference of fourteen feet, yet it never produces more than two leaves, and these, singularly enough, are the first or seed leaves of the plant. Imagine two leaves of a melon to keep on growing and spreading over the soil until they reach the fangeli of six feet, and some idea can be formed of this veg-etable wonder. These two leaves, which are split into innumerable thongs that lie curling upon the surface of the soil, are all the foliage that the plant, ever pro-duces. The plant inhabits the dry regions, where rain rarely or never falls, and has no need of a large surface o foliage. Flower stems spring from the large trank; and produce comes about the size of those of the spruce fir. This strange plant is allied to the pine family.

COTTON IN ENGLAND.—It appears from the report of the English Commissioners of Oustoms, that the supply of cotton during the last year was equivalent, so far as bulk whent, to about six sevenths of the old supply from America, but considerably interior in quality. The Commissoners argue from the cot-ton returns that the blockade of the Confederate ports must certainly have been maintained with greater strictness and efficiency in 1863 than in 1863.
