LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 12, 1864.

Fearful Railroad Accident.—A fearful railroad accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad on Friday night, a few miles west of Latrobe. It appears that the locomotive No. 237, attached to the stock train, having reached that point, the boiler exploded with terrific violence, smashing six or seven cars in the train, killing three men, and spreading death in the midst of a large number of cattle in the train. The cause of the accident is not as yet been ascertained, but it will no doubt be investigated into. The terrific violence with which the boiler exploded cannot be better illustrated than by the fact that a considerable portion of the track was entirely torn up, and the crossties were displaced and splintered, while the cars were shattered to pieces. The bodies of the men were mangled in a frightful manner, and were so badly crushed that they were hardly recognizable. The three killed were the conductor, engineer and fireman; all of whom were well known in this city. The conductor, Wm. S. Waters, is represented as having been a very worthy man, and resided on Rush street, in the Ninth Ward. His body was not recovered until an hour and a half after the accident, having been entirely covered up by the wreck. He was a very trustworthy man, and his loss will be sincerely lamented by his employers. He leaves a wife and several small children. The engineer, Mr. Charles Gilchrist, was a resident of Johnstown, and had served as a lieutenant in the army. He leaves a wife and one or two children. The fireman, Jones, had but a short time previously returned from the three years service, and was not long on the road. His body was badly mutilated.

The engine, tender and some of the cars were reduced to a complete wreck. The former was blown to fragments, and the entire locomotive is now but a mass of debris. The express and mail trains were both detained in consequence of the damage on the track. A special train was sent out on Saturday morning to clear away the debris and take charge of the bodies. It was found that of the cattle with which the train was laden several hundred were killed outright, and others were maimed so badly that they had to be shot in order to relieve them of their sufferings. Besides the valuable lives lost, the company will, no doubt, have to sustain very heavy damages.

Proceedings of the Democratic Executive Committee of Allegheny County.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee, held on Saturday, at the St. Charles Hotel, D. W. Hazen was elected Secretary of the Committee, and S. Fulle, Assistant Secretary, and James Irwin, Treasurer, and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Committee shall appoint Committees on Finance, Public Meetings, Printing, and Public Documents and Naturalization, that the Committee on Finance shall be composed of five members, and each of the other committees of three members, that the Chairman may place upon said committees persons not members of the Executive Committee, and the announcement of the appointments shall be made in the Daily Post.

Resolved, That the Allegheny county members of the State Central Committee be and they are hereby instructed to request said Committee to urge an early printing of the Electoral and county tickets throughout the State in order that the same may be fully and freely distributed.

Resolved, That this Committee will hereafter, until after the ensuing Presidential election, meet at ten o'clock a. m. every Saturday, at the McClellan Club Rooms, corner of Smithfield and Fifth streets.

In obedience to the above resolutions adopted by the County Executive Committee, the Chairman appointed the following Committees:

On Finance—C. Guy, D. A. Patrick, Eody Patterson, John Macklin, P. C. Hansen.

On Public Meetings—Colonel James A. Gibson, John M. Bailey, C. McGee.

On Printing and Public Documents—John M. Irwin, John Quinn, D. H. Hazen.

On Naturalization—John A. Large, John McGee.

The Chairman addressed a few words to the Committee, in which he stated that it was highly important that prompt action should be taken, in order that the campaign just opened may be prosecuted properly, and it is to be hoped that the gentlemen upon said committees will meet at the earliest practicable period to arrange their plans of action and put the same into active operation.

The Draft.—Our city has nearly filled its entire quota, and we may be under no further apprehension of the draft. Only two wards yet remain who have not reached their full complement, and the enrolling officer has but a few more men in all probability they will do so within a few days. Allegheny has also performed her share, and we confidently hope that she will succeed in averting the draft. It is true that the wheel will be set in motion in those districts where less energy was displayed, in order to give an opportunity to others to levy their full quota, the whole county will be free from any draft whatsoever, as by that time not a borough or a township will be deficient in their quota. It is difficult to state with any certainty when the draft is to take place—some would have us believe that it is not to be enforced for upwards of ten or fifteen days yet, while a Washington exchange learns from an official bulletin from Secretary Stanton to Gen. Dix that the draft is to be enforced immediately. It likewise states that no postponement will be granted, but that volunteers will be credited up to the last moment. The best advice that we could give to those citizens who have not as yet been crowned with success would be, not to depend on reports in such an important and interesting matter as this, but to double their energy and lose no time until they have accomplished their end. This is the only way through which they may hope for success.

Camp Reynolds.—There are at present five thousand men in Camp Reynolds, and the number is daily on the increase. It appears that they are not so well accommodated as formerly, and we judge from reports that they are altogether in a very bad condition. We hope that the reports are not true, but certainly they require that the matter should be investigated into immediately by the proper authorities, and not have the new recruits already suffering from the privations of a campaign. It is a very serious undertaking to provide for such a large number of men, and have them all accommodated in a satisfactory manner, and for this reason we would think that an investigation into the real condition of the camp should be referred to some energetic and responsible persons capable of fulfilling all the duties annexed to a position of such importance. A few hundred men could be well provided for in Camp Reynolds as it stands at the present moment, but, in our opinion, five thousand are too many unless things be carried on in a large scale. We hope that the authorities will remedy this evil, so that no blame can be attached to them for having neglected to fulfill their duty towards their fellow citizens in the army.

The Crops.—From the Bi-Monthly Agricultural report we understand that the crops are not in such a bad condition as was expected during the frightful drought which prevailed throughout the entire extent of the country in the months of June and July. The reports which are being daily received inform us that more than an average crop has been gathered in some places while in others it has not fallen below the average. In our part of the state fruit has been deficient this year, but we are amply provided with grain, watermelons, &c., from other sections of the country while in other respects we can rank with the highest. We may hope that the prices of the necessaries of life will be reduced, or at least will not be on the increase.

Musical.—Our fashionable Professor Jervis Sherratt is about to reopen his school for divine musical instructions. His ability as a teacher is well known in the city, and no doubt his school will be extensively patronized.

Probable Infanticide.—On Sunday morning last, by a boy named [illegible], four days old, was found in the canal at Duquesne borough. The body was entirely nude, and had been in the water for several days. In all probability it was drowned by some heartless person for some unknown reason, though as yet we have no clue to the perpetrator of the deed. The Coroner went out yesterday afternoon to hold an inquest.

Struck by Lightning.—On Saturday night, during the violent thunder storm which passed over our city, a man named Graham was struck by lightning while walking in the street, in Allegheny. The electricity first gave him a severe shock in the back of the neck, and thence passed down the whole length of the body into the ground. He was badly stunned for a while, but afterwards walked home with some difficulty.

Violent Rain Storm.—Violent rain and thunder passed over our city on Saturday night. It commenced to rain about nine o'clock, and in a few minutes the streets were overflowing with water. The lightning flashes were very vivid, and it is feared that much damage has been sustained in the neighbourhood, though as far as we have ascertained the damage sustained in the city is inconsiderable.

We are in receipt of a copy of a new national melody entitled "Liberty and Union," words by O. B. Barr, and Music by Prof. J. Wamelink. Having examined the production, the first from the pen of Mr. Barr we can give it unqualified praise. George B. Morris in his palmiest days never wrote a more stirring song. The sentiment is eminently patriotic, unlike the flimsy trash without reason or soul. The music by Prof. Wamelink is well worthy the high reputation of the author, as an artiste of the first class. The patriotic ladies of the North will find something here worthy of their taste. We compliment Mr. Barr on his first appearance in the field of song and hope he will not suffer his talents to lie hidden when a bleeding country needs a patriot muse.

The above with all the late songs and piano pieces can be had at Messrs. Wamelink & Barr, No. 12 St. Clair street.

SECOND EDITION.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

Report from Rebel Papers.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Sept. 9—evening.—The batteries on the right and centre of our lines kept up quite a lively fire to-day at intervals. The noise made by the cars as they passed toward the front attracted the attention of the enemy, and they endeavored to interrupt the operations of the road, but without success.

Among the regiments whose term of service is about expiring is the 8th New Jersey. It lost a large number of men at Chancellorsville, Gettysburg and elsewhere. Major Healy has been in command during the campaign and has been wounded seven different times. None of his wounds, however, were of a serious character.

The Richmond Examiner of to-day contains a dispatch from Hood's army, dated Sept. 7th, which says: Yesterday our advance drove the enemy from Jonesboro and recaptured the hospital, containing ninety of our wounded. Sherman continues to draw back toward Atlanta, for the purpose, it is reported, of strengthening his works on the eastern, western and southern approaches thereto. Fifteen hundred will cover our losses from all causes in the battles and skirmishes of last week. The army is now in fine spirits.

September, 10th a. m.—At a point of our line just West of the Jerusalem Plank road occupied by the third division of the third corps; the pickets have been so close together that they could converse without difficulty. On a part of this line and some distance in the rear of their advance, the enemy had thrown up a line of slight works with the intention, it is supposed, of falling back to them when occasion might demand. It was determined last night to drive them back to this line and thus straighten our own. About midnight when all was quiet the division was formed in line of battle, and the picket line being reinforced was ordered to advance. The Rebels were evidently not prepared for such a movement as they were completely taken by surprise and nearly the entire line captured. They made every effort to retake the lost ground but did not succeed. Our men now occupy the line and are securely entrenched, we took about one hundred prisoners while our own loss was very light. Desultory firing has been kept up in that vicinity all the morning, and the enemy evidently feel sore at being so taken by surprise, some of them called out to our men saying "that was a cursed mean Yankee trick anyhow, but we'll pay you up for it before long."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The aggregate of the bids for the new loan is 72 702 and 350, and the entire amount awarded is nearly $32,000,000, nine-tenths of it at over 4 per cent. premium. The remainder will be divided pro rata among those who bid at four per cent. Among the successful bids opened today are the First National Bank, St. Paul, $50,000 at 5 per cent.; R. N. Shoemaker, Cincinnati, $12,000 at 4½; T. Steele, Louisville, $10,000 at 5; First National Bank, Akron, Ohio, $15,000 at 4½. There were numerous successful bids from individuals and corporations from all over the country for amounts smaller than above stated. Some of the offerers prefixed remarks to their bids, saying if they should not be acceptable they would take 7-30's at par.

PHILADELPHIA, September 10.—The Bulletin has the following special: Mifflin, Pa., 10 a. m., an accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad near Latrobe last evening, 3 men were killed and one injured by explosion of the locomotive attached to a freight train, six cars loaded with cattle were totally demolished. The Engineer, Charles Carrekan was instantly killed; Wm. Walters, Conductor, is missing, both belonged to Pittsburgh; R. Jones, Fireman, was killed; Master of the cattle in forward car killed. The passenger train which left Pittsburgh at 5:40 p. m., Friday, was detained six hours. The wreck has been removed and trainsare now runing regularly.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—A Berryville dispatch of the 10th to the Herald states that Col. Lowell, with the 20th Massachusetts and two other cavalry regiments, yesterday destroyed four flour mills and several other smaller mills on Opequan creek, capturing several prisoners.

A Harper's Ferry dispatch states that the rebels are still in force near Winchester and Bunker Hill. All quiet at the front.

A Nashville dispatch states that Hood left but little of value in Atlanta, most of the Government stores and railroad material having previously been removed to Macon.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The opening of bids for the new loan was resumed this morning. The amounts are not so large in comparison as those opened yesterday, but the average premium is about the same. According to present indications, about two-thirds of the entire proposals having been opened, the loan will be taken up at 104 and over.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The Post's Washington special says: News is received from the Army of the Potomac that a heavy artillery duel took place on Thursday with no important results, and that Lee is still missing his troops on our left.

NEW YORK, September 10.—The Herald's New Orleans correspondent of the 30th ult. says: The latest arrivals from Brazos, Sanguey, Eagle, Thorn that several vessels sailed from New Orleans late last November with cargoes, and intended for the Corpus government or a general market have been seized by the French at the mouth of the Rio Grande.

The Herald's Matamoras, August 26th says: All communications in that direction is cut off by the French, Cortinas; he declares that he will defend Matamoras against the French, but as the city has no fortifications it will be difficult for Cortinas to hold it. Cortinas demands of the merchants of Matamoras a loan of $150,000 specie, which they refuse. Messrs. Zanu & Hard acting British and Prussian Consuls have been thrown into prison, together with others, for resisting this demand for money.

Gen. Megia was advancing on Matamoras with 4000 troops, he had marched and occupied Monterey.

BALTIMORE, September 10.—We learn from Washington that Farragut's vessel have passed the bar, and that Mobile surrendered without resistance. The rebel troops were withdrawn into the interior.

Lee is said to be massing his troops for an attack on the Weldon railroad, but our troops are well protected in their intrenchments, and it is thought can withstand any charge of infantry Lee may make.

Late advices state that a reconnoissance was made down the Shenandoah valley, and the enemy was not discovered in any force. This confirms the statement made of Early's having gone to Lee's assistance.

The President denies that Commissioners have been sent to Richmond.

CAIRO, Sept. 11.—Reports from Little Rock state that the rebel Gen. Price died recently at Arkadelphia of dysentery.

Seventy-five hogsheads of tobacco arrived from Paducah for New York.

The steamer City of Alton brings Memphis dates of yesterday and New Orleans advices to the 5th. Memphis was to be illuminated last night in honor of the recent victories.

The Post at Cairo is to be separated from the Western Kentucky District and attached to the District of Illinois, under Gen. Halbert E. Paine.

Gen. Meredith has left for Paducah to take command of the District of Western Kentucky.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—To Maj. Gen. Dix—This department has received dispatches from Gen. Sherman down to 10 o'clock yesterday morning, his army is concentrated at Atlanta, his troops are in position and well, he says Wilson and Steadman are stiring Wheeler up pretty well, and hopes they will make an end of him as Gellen did of Morgan.

The weather is beautiful and all things bright. No recent intelligence has been received from Mobile. No movements are reported in the Shenandoah valley or in the army of the Potomac. Recruiting is progressing vigorously in most of the States. (Signed,)

E. M. STANTON,
Sec. War.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Gold opened under a bear influence, and holders desire to sell at 228½ and fell to 226. There were a considerable number of short sales effected to-day. The experience of the past few weeks is decidedly against the safety of large dividends on the part of sellers. The quotation subsequently went up to 226½.

The Commercial's Washington special the National Intelligencer to day comes out strongly in favor of McClellan for President.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—The Democratic State Convention concluded its work last evening by nominating E. J. Lewis as the remaining Elector and Jackson Temple as the remaining Congressman. At night a large mass meeting was held to ratify McClellan's nomination.

The Democrats have carried Story county, Nevada territory, owing to the presence in the field of two Union tickets. There is probably a majority in favor of the State constitution.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, September 10.—Mr. Vallandigham arrived here yesterday enroute for Pennsylvania, to address the people of various places, but meeting Gen M'Clellan's letter of acceptance he promptly authorized the Democratic Chairman to withdraw his name from appointments in Ohio, and returned home. Peace men are determined to maintain their integrity, they soon intend to call another meeting to determine a course of action.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 10.—The American has the following from Gen. Averill, dated 1 o'clock on Thursday night:

To Maj. Gen. Kelly, Cumberland: Early retreated this a. m. towards Winchester. I am on his heels. I have whipped Vaughan's cavalry, captured all his train which was not burned and taken by battle flags. He had no artillery. I cut off Imboden. (Signed)

W. W. AVERILL, Brig. Gen.

PHILADELPHIA, September 10.—Private letters from the front say a battle is imminent and inevitable. They also intimate that part of Early's force is in their front.

The loss of the rebel ram Tennessee was a far greater mishap to the Confederacy than we have supposed. They deemed her invulnerable, and had much the same faith in her that they have in Lee.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The Post's Washington special says: General Lew. Wallace has returned from the army to Baltimore to assume command of the 8th corps.

NEW YORK, September 10.—The rumor on the street that Mobile had been captured has not been confirmed officially.

LABORATORY OF JAMES R. CHILTON & CO.—We have recently made a careful analysis of the Sandusky Portwine, and do not hesitate to pronounce it pure. It contains all the properties of the Port Grape, and therefore for medicinal uses it is, in most cases, superior to other wines. Its principle effects upon the system are mildly stimulating, diuretic, tonic and tonic. It will prove beneficial in Affections of the Kidneys, and Chronic Diseases with General Debility of the Constitution.

Physicians may safely recommend it to patients in place of the many doubtful mixtures too often sold as pure Wines.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST,
MONDAY, September 12th, 1864.

BUSINESS.—There was a larger inquiry for the article, although the sales were not very large. There were no receipts by the river, and hence there was but a limited amount to operate with. Prices ruled about the same although one lot of 40 gravity was sold at 34c. We have also a sale of Refined Kerosene, the first one for some time past. The Allegheny river to Oil Creek is very low. Boats do not attempt to reach that point. Among the sales made were the following:

CRUDE—Sales 450 bbls, 33½c, pkgs returned, 85 bbls do, 40 gravity, 34c; 80 do, 33c, and 100 do, 35c.

LUBRICATING—Sales 85 bbls, Horse Neck, 55½c; 70 bbls do, Duck Creek, 55c.

TESTIMONIALS.

THE SUBSCRIBER HAS CERTIFICATES enough on hand to fill a good sized volume, all of them the free will offerings of those who have been cured by the most flattering from which he selects the following:

"The Great Purifier."—The Herald Chal lenged to Produce its Equal!—Triumphant Searcher Glorious!—Triumphant—

Sworn statement of David McCreary, of Napier Township, Bedford County:

In April, 1855, as near as I can remember, a small pimple made its appearance on my upper lip, which soon became enlarged and sore. I used poultices of sorrel, and a wash of sulphate of zinc without effect. Finding the sore extending, I called on Dr. Ely, of Shellsburg, who pronounced it CANCER, and prescribed a wash of sugar of lead and bread poultices. Finding these remedies of no avail, I called upon Dr. Shaffer, of Davidsville, Somerset county, who also pronounced the disease Cancer, and gave me internal and external remedies—the latter consisting principally of caustic—but all of no purpose, as the disease continued spreading towards the nose. I used preparation of arsenic in the form of salve. This for a time checked the disease, but the inflammation soon increased. I next called upon Dr. Statler, of St. Clairsville Belmont county, who also prescribed for the disease, but the sore continued spreading. I then used a celebrated remedy, but it had no effect whatever in checking the spread of the sore. In December, 1859, the same year, the disease had eaten away a great part of my lip, and attacked my nose,
