MANHOOD,

THIRD EDITION, FIFTY THOUSAND, 96 pages, cloth covers, by

Robert E. Bell, M. D.,

Member of the royal College of Surgeons, London, addressed to youth, the married, and those CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

Sent by mail post paid, on receipt of ten cents. A careful perusal of this small book has been a boon to the afflicted, and has saved thousands from a life of misery and an untimely grave. It treats on the evils of Youthful Indiscretion, Self-Abuse, Seminal weakness, Emissions, Sexual Diseases, Genital Debility, Loss of Power, Nervousness, Premature Decay, Impotence, &c., which unfit the sufferer from fulfilling the OBLIGATIONS OF MARRIAGE, and illustrates the means of cure by the use of

DR. BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS,

and other treatment necessary in some cases, and which never fails to cure, and can be relied on. They do not nauseate the stomach, or render the breath offensive, and they can be USED WITHOUT DETECTION.

They do not interfere with business pursuits, and are speedy in action. No change of diet is necessary. They are warranted in all cases to be effectual in removing and curing the disease. Upwards of two thousand cases are on record that have been cured by using BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS, and certificates can be shown from many that have used them.

No Case of Failure ever Occurs.

Upwards of a Hundred Physicians use them extensively in their practice, and they cannot effect cures without them.

IMPORTANT NOTICE,

BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS

Are the original and only genuine Specific Pills. There are a host of imitators—BEWARE OF THEM.

These are Warranted.

They are adapted for male or female, old or young, and are the only reliable remedy known for the cure of all diseases arising from

YOUTHFUL INDISCRETION.

In all Sexual Diseases, as Gonorrhœa, Stricture, Gleet, and in all Urinary and Kidney complaints,

They Act Like a Charm!

Relief is experienced by taking a single box, and from four to six boxes generally effect a cure.

Sold by Druggists generally, in boxes containing six pills, price $1 or six boxes, $5; also in large boxes, containing four of the small, price $3.

If you need the Book, or the Pills, cut out this advertisement for reference, and if you cannot procure them of your druggist, do not be imposed upon by any other remedy, but enclose the money in a letter to the proprietor.

who will take all risk. If properly directed, and will send the Pills, secured from observation, by return mail, post Paid.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they can no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these refined parties. I suppose they would not let one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician in low spirits—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Bell and Paul Richard devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my general success, but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Specimatorrhœa and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. THE ISSUES OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Speech of Gov. Seymour at Milwaukee, Sept. 1, 1864.

Governor Seymour said: I fear that my broken voice will not allow me to address you as I would wish. I have come from an assemblage the most remarkable that ever met in this country of ours—an assemblage which was marked not alone by its enthusiasm and the vastness of its numbers, but also by its patriotic desire to restore peace to our distracted country, and to preserve its liberty and its union. It is in the spirit of that convention that I would address a few words to you. I know that I am animated by no selfish or merely partisan desire to influence your judgment. I have experienced too frequently the hospitalities and courtesies of those who differ with me here in Milwaukee, to question the purity of their motives. Three years ago I passed through this city and had occasion to address you at that crisis in our public affairs. It was a little time after the public mind was aroused by the attack on Fort Sumter. I had hoped that a spirit of compromise and conciliation might prevent the shedding of blood. Failing in the East to secure the adoption of measures to this end, I turned my face to the West. I addressed myself not only to those of my own political faith, but also to those who differed from me. I hope that the great West would take a position that would stop the flow of blood. The rapid increase of our population had increased your representative power in Congress. Had not Fort Sumter been fired upon, the West might have stepped in and distinguished the first exercise of her augmented power by the enactment of measures for the preservation of peace. Three years has passed away since I then stood near this spot. Then, seventy five thousand men had been called for by the federal government. It was believed to be a necessary call. I looked upon it otherwise. I feared that we did not appreciate the magnitude of the contest. Men of all parties, actuated by a spirit of patriotism, responded to the demand. It was promised that peace should be restored in less than ninety days. Three years have rolled away. The young men that responded to that call—where are they? More than five hundred thousand of our brave soldiers now sleep in their untimely graves. Look at the debt! An immense debt—over two thousand million of dollars—by the accounts of the Government itself. Over two millions of men have been called for since that time to bear arms in the struggle. Five hundred thousand more are to-day being called for. The nation is crushed down with taxation, and the war not ended. A point of time has arrived when it is the constitutional duty, as well as the constitutional right, of every American citizen to inquire whether it is for the public interest to continue the war; and to sit in judgment upon the conduct of the Federal Administration. That duty we cannot escape. That duty we must meet in a spirit of patriotism, of candor, and honesty. We must meet it boldly. In that spirit I now address you. I would not denounce this Administration, for acts of wrong. I would not condemn it because its members have erred in judgment. But I denounce it because I believe it has entered upon a settled policy, dangerous to the welfare of our country. Looking at its policy in that light, it is my duty to denounce it freely and boldly. My way is that Administration now compelling to make a new demand upon me! Imprisoned to put down the rebellion by two powers—the power of policy and the power of the army. That it has failed is not the fault of the army. All over our country, by the side of our rivers and along our sea shores, the multitudes of new made graves attest its devotion. There is no man who will stand up and denounce the conduct or courage of our soldiers. The lines of our marches toward Atlanta and Richmond are paved with their bodies. In the history of the world there has never been a more deadly conflict waged by valiant men than during the present summer. It would be a libel upon our army to assert that it has not done all and more than all, too, that has been expected of them. Why is it, then, that we have not succeeded? Turning from the consideration of the military power, let us observe the policy of the Government. To-day our forces compass the mouth of the Mississippi, are present in the harbor of Charleston, and are struggling for the possession of Georgia under Sherman. But let me tell you also that to-day it requires more men to hold in the Union the three States of Missouri, Kentucky, and Maryland, than the whole number originally called for to suppress the rebellion. In the beginning these States repudiated Secession. Three years ago the North responded with unanimity to the calls of the Government. When, on my return from the West at that time, the people of Chicago, like the people of Milwaukee, were animated by a spirit of unanimity and patriotism. What do we see now? The Government has so little confidence in the people that by an official order just issued, it denies to the people of Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan one of the sacred rights of every American citizen. That Government has so little confidence in the people of these States that it fears to trust them with the privilege of bearing arms. [illegible]
