to this infamous attempt to deprive you of the exercise of your dearest rights, they now seek to inaugurate a reign of terror, and thus force you to yield to their schemes and submit to the yoke of the traitorous conspiracy, dignified with the name of the Southern Confederacy. They are destroying the property of citizens of your State, and ruining your magnificent railways. The general government has heretofore refrained from sending troops across the Ohio, or even from posting them along its banks, although frequently urged to do so by many of your prominent citizens. It determined to await the result of the late election, desirous that no one might be able to say that the slightest effort had been made from this side to influence the free expression of your opinions, although the many agencies brought to bear upon you by the rebels were well known. You have now shown, under the most adverse circumstances, that the great mass of the people of Western Virginia, are true and loyal to that beneficient government under which we and our fathers have lived so long. As soon as the election was known, the traitors commenced their work of destruction. The general government cannot close its ears to the demand you have made for assistance. I have ordered troops to cross the Ohio river. They come as your friends and brothers—as enemies only to the armed rebels who are preying upon you. Your homes, your families, and your property are safe under our protection. All your rights shall be religiously respected notwithstanding all that has been done by the traitors to induce you to believe that our advent among you will be signalized by interference with your slaves. Understand one thing clearly. Not only will we abstain from all such interference, but we will on the contrary, with an iron hand, crush any attempt at insurrection on their part. Now, that we are in your midst, I call upon you to fly to arms and support the general government. Sever the connection that binds you to traitors; proclaim to the world that the faith and loyalty so long boasted by the Old Dominion, are still preserved in Western Virginia, and that you remain true to the Stars and Stripes.

Geo. B McClellan
Major-General U. S. A. Comd'g. Dep't.

McClellan's Letter to Halleck.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11, 1864.
MAJ. GEN. H. W. HALLECK, U. S. A.
Comd'g Dept. of Missouri.

GENERAL:—In assigning you to the command of the Department of Missouri, it is probably unnecessary for me to state that I have intrusted to you a duty which requires the utmost tact and decision.

You have not merely the ordinary duties of a military commander to perform; but the far more difficult task of reducing chaos to order, of changing probably the majority of the personnel of the staff of the department, and of reducing to a point of economy consistent with the interests and necessities of the State, a system of reckless expenditure and fraud perhaps unheard of before in the history of the world.

You will find in your department many general and staff officers holding illegal commissions and appointments not recognized or approved by the President or Secretary of War, you will please at once, inform these gentlemen of the nullity of their appointment, and see that no pay or allowances are issued to them, until such time as commissions may be authorized by the President, or Secretary of War.

If any of them give the slightest trouble, you will at once arrest them and send them under guard, out of the limits of your department, informing them that if they return they will be placed in close confinement. You will please examine into the legality of the organization of the troops serving in the department. When you find any illegal, unusual, or improper organizations you will give to the officers and men an opportunity to enter the legal military establishment under general laws and orders from the War Department; reporting in full to these headquarters any officer or organization that may decline.

You will please cause competent and reliable staff officers to examine all existing contracts immediately, and suspend all payments upon them until you receive the report in each case. Where there is the slightest doubt as to the propriety of the contract, you will be good enough to refer the matter, with full explanation, to these headquarters, stating in each case what would be a fair compensation for the services or material rendered under the contract. Discontinue at once the reception of material or services under any doubtful contract. Arrest and bring to prompt trial all officers who have in any way violated their duty to the government. In regard to the political conduct of affairs, you will please labor to impress upon the inhabitants of Missouri and the adjacent states, that we are fighting solely for the integrity of the Union, to uphold the power of our national government and to restore to the nation the blessing of peace and good order.

With respect to military operations, it is probable from the best information in my possession, that the interests of the government will be best served by fortifying and holding in considerable strength, Rolla, Sedalia, and other interior points, keeping strong patrols constantly moving from the terminal stations, and concentrating the mass of the troops on or near the Mississippi, prepared for such ulterior operatons as the public interests may demand.

I would be glad to have you make, as soon as possible, a personal inspection of all the important points in your department, and report the result to me. I cannot too strongly impress upon you the absolute necessity of keeping me constantly advised of the strength, condition, and location of your troops, together with all the facts that will enable me to maintain that general direction of the armies of the United States which it is my purpose to exercise. I trust to you to maintain thorough organization, discipline and economy throughout your department. Please inform me, as soon as possible, of everything relating to the gunboats now in process of construction, as well as those completed.

The militia force authorized to be raised by the state of Missouri for its defense, will be under your orders.

I am, General, &c., &c.,
GEO. B. McCLELLAN,
Maj. Gen. Com. U. S. A.

A STATTICIAN has been at the trouble of counting the number of words used by the most eminent authors. He has found, for instance that the whole works of Cornelle contain only 7,000 different words: all the plays of Moliere contain but 8,000 different words: the Old Testament tells man's story from chaos to the Redeemer's birth in the manger, with only 5,642 different words; Milton sings "Paradise Lost" sided by 8,000 different words; Voltaire and Goethe fill their innumerable volumes, using only 20,000 different words; and Shakespeare raised all the passions and all the sentiments of the human heart by conjuring with only 15,000 words. The English language contains but 25,000 words.

THE POPE AND LISZT.—The Pope lately, at an audience which he gave to Liszt, the Pianist, expressed a wish to hear him play. An instrument had been placed in the throne room, and the great artist produced an extraordinary effect. After each piece the Pope gave the signal for applause, and afterwards warmly complimented the artist.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING!

"Union, Peace and Constitutional Liberty."

In conformity with the call of the National Convention, the Democracy of Allegheny county will meet on the anniversary of the adoption of the Federal Constitution, SATURDAY, Sept. 17th, 1864, at 2 o'clock p. m., in front of the Democratic Hall, corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets, Pittsburgh, to proclaim once more their unswerving fidelity to the Constitution and the Union of the States, and to strike a blow in their defence, by rallying to the support of McCLELLAN and PENDLETON, the candidates of our party for President and Vice President, pledged to restore and preserve them in their integrity. All citizens in favor of preserving the Constitution intact are earnestly invited to attend. The speakers will be announced hereafter.

By order of the County Executive Committee.

GEN. McCLELLAN'S ACCEPTANCE

The telegraph being controlled principally by Abolitionists, the people have no idea of the enthusiasm with which General McClellan's nomination and letter of acceptance are received throughout the country. If a soldier in Washington or elsewhere; or some beggarly officer who expects promotion by crying out for Lincoln's re-election, only opens his mouth, it is telegraphed from one end of the Union to the other, but the most marked and enthusiastic demonstrations in favor of McClellan the telegraph entirely ignores. The New York News, said to be secretly in the interests of Lincoln, is the 'only paper, pretending to be Democratic, dissatisfied with McClellan's letter of acceptance, and no sooner did it express its dissent than it was telegraphed in every direction. The truth is that, never in our recollection have we seen so much unanimity, so suddenly and spiritedly manifested in regard to any national nomination, compared with the condition of the Lincoln party our organization is a unit.

In our ranks there is no Fremont, with his thousands of followers, anxious and determined to uptrip our candidate. We have no Ben. Wade and Henry Winter Davis, demonstrating, over their own names, that our candidate has designs upon the liberties of his country. There is no Chase in our ranks brooding over his injuries, and nursing his wrath to damage our candidate. With us all is unity and determination. Even Vallandigham, although dissatisfied with McClellan's sentiments, will offer no opposition to him. The entire Democratic press of Ohio, with one extreme exception, is a unit for him, which speaks volumes when we consider that it is in from that State the leaders of the extreme peace party reside. The New York News then, owned by the Woods, is the only paper, professing to be Democratic, which refuses to support our candidate, and its maudling about "peace upon any terms" only serves to show the soundness of our own candidate's positions. On the contrary, we could mention several leading Republican sheets, which either refuse to support Lincoln; or are anxious for him to abandon the contest, in order that some more available man may be nominated.

General McClellan's interpretation of the Chicago platform is the correct one, which is "the preservation of the Union at all hazards; its integrity the condition of all negotiations; two separate governments in the country incompatible; and the Union the only condition of peace." The paper professing to be Democratic, which does not accept such a profession of political faith, is not to be trusted; and such a sheet we consider the New York News. It is, as was charged, in the interests of Lincoln, which accounts for that functionary allowing it to exist, while seeking mere pretexts for the suppression of such high toned papers as the New York World. But the News can do us no harm even where it is printed, New York city is the stronghold of our candidate; its thousands of Democrats were the first to nominate McClellan and they will roll up such a vote for him as no candidate ever before received.

The Philadelphia Age in a caustic article upon the "presumption or dishonesty of the News, regarding its absurd teachings about peace upon any terms, says:

"There is another kind of peace which the Democracy have never proposed, and to which they can never be brought to assent—and that is, a surrender, without condition, qualification or negotiation, of arms and armies to those with whom we are unhappily at war—a peace which would stipulate for nothing, and bear no fruit, and would dismember the land. This is a kind of peace the Democracy never contemplated, and know it has no Chicago Convention ratified any such idea and decided peace which, without impairing the dignity nor involving the subjugation of a single one of these sovereign States, should make firm the equal rights of all them. General McClellan accepted these views and endorsed them And if, as it would seem, they do not accord with the benign, but vague and purposeless contemplations of the New York News, that is not the fault of the Democratic party or its representatives."

The fact is that if McClellan were acceptable to the News; he could not, by any means, be the candidate of the united Union Democratic party, which is for the Union at all hazards, and no peace without it.

Soreheads.

Gen. McClellan's letter of acceptance has been received with applauding acclamations by Democrats and ill-concealed alarm by the Republicans. We hear, however, of four professed Democrats who do not like it—Benjamin Wood, John Mullaly, Clement C. Vallandigham, and James N. Phelps; to whom, from pretty clear indications, we shall have to add Abbe McMasters. It is unfortunate for the mental quietude of these four or five estimable citizens that what gives hope and satisfaction to the great body of their fellow-Democrats should be a political thorn to them; but we do not quite see the propriety of Mr. Wood's modest proposal that the Chicago Convention shall be re-assembled to consider the state of his and their feelings, and deliberate on the expediency of extracting the thorn. The five votes of these five worthy gentlemen will add just as much if given, will substract just as much if withheld, as any five Democratic votes that may get into or be kept out of the ballot-boxes. Whether they are worth winning at such an outlay of trouble and expense as Mr. Wood, proposes, is a question on which his views may not be precisely those of the Democratic party.

The N. Y. "News" and Its Threatened Bolt.

The telegraph informs us that the N. Y. News has repudiated the nomination of Gen. McClellan, and favors the re-assembling of the Convention to nominate another candidate. The reason assigned is the objectionable character of his letter of acceptance. As an original Peace paper, and speaking, as we believe, the sentiments of the Western Democracy, we say to the News that this suggestion cannot be entertained for one moment by the people. Gen. McClellan is the regularly nominated Democratic candidate, and no man professing Democracy should have any hesitancy in preferring his election to that of Abraham Lincoln, the other alternative.—Cin. Enquirer.

Easily Comfor.ed.

The Pittsburgh Gazette and other Republican prints exult over the conversion of Frazier Smith, of Chesier county, who has served two years in the legislature as a republican, over Brewster, Cassna and Dan. Dougherty, all of whom have been with the Abolition party for the past two years. The small amount of comfort to be derived from the use of the above names, is made the most of but can deceive no one conversant with those individuals. The reason Mr. Cessna gives for opposing the Chicago platform is there was no Gold clause inserted or Coupons attached.

☞Every Democratic paper in Ohio—and there are some eighty or ninety of them—is giving the Chicago nominees a cordial and earnest support, with the exception of the Columbus Crisis. In the other States the press is unanimous and enthusiastic for the ticket. Never in our history has there been a more prompt acquiescence in the choice of a National Convention. There is a general feeling that if Lincoln is re-elected, all guarantees for life, liberty and property are lost; and no genuine Democrat will directly or indirectly contribute to the result.

For Little Mac,

A regiment of soldiers passing to the front, on Monday night, whilst at the depot in this city were requested to give three cheers for Abe Lincoln. Three terrific groans met the request, and "nary" cheer. One of the men proposed three cheers for little "Mac," which was responded to in nine rounds and a tiger. The reporter left in disgust.

Unanimously Nominated,

Gov. Bigler, during his absence in Chicago, was unanimously nominated in his district for Congress. There is not the slightest doubt of his election.

For the Post.

That Meeting.

Last night at Wilkin's Hall was an amusing one—in the way of Pittsburgh patriotism we had plenty—why bless your soul, McCook sr., was chairman, and made one of his Fifth street speeches! Friend Bigham was very happy and good looking, but the warrior of the evening was Brown, the invincible Major, who went in for fighting Copperheads, both at home and abroad. Oh! sanguinary Brown. Have you got no wife and children to persuade you to stay at home and not rush to the "front." Why don't you put in a substitute. On the whole, the meeting was so funny that Marshall was not present, nor did a Government employee make a speech, although they got up the meeting. Faithfully,

McSHANE.

A WHOLE FAMILY POISONED.—Last Friday, a family named Jones, consisting of five members, removed from Morgan street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, to a house on Broadway, between O'Fallon and Cass avenue. The labor of moving, and the excessive hot weather, made them very thirsty and they all drank freely from the hydrant, which had not been used for a considerable time, the water having just been turned on. Immediately after drinking, the whole family were taken sick, and John Jones, a boy ten or eleven years old, died in a few moments. The poison was formed by the water corroding the lead pipe.—Phil. Age.

THE REBEL TORPEDOES.—The barnacles have attacked the rebel torpedoes placed to prevent the passage of our vessels, and have, in some cases, rendered them harmless.

A CONVICT died in his cell in the Michigan State Prison, the other day, who had been confined seventeen years for the murder of his father.

"To Whom it May Concern."

Thank God for a purified, regenerated, disenthralled Democratic party! Thank God that every burden is lifted from its back, every impediment removed from its victorious path!

The men who have been the curse of the party have gone out of the party Close up the ranks! Welcome the new recruits! Now we go into the November fight with not a flaw in our armour, without a speck upon our stainless shield, and with no dread of a "fire in the rear."

From this day forth, every conservative patriotic citizen in the North will have neither doubt nor difficulty in his choice under which banner to enlist—the banner of the Democratic party, whose legend is;

"The Union at all hazards, and Peace as soon as possible."

Or the banner of the Republican party whose legend is:

"War for Abolition, Confiscation, Subjugation."

Against us will be arrayed every Abolitionist, every disunionist, every man who loves Peace and Disunion better than Union and the Peace which the Union alone can give. Shoddy with all its cohorts, the army of contractors, the army of office holders, the treasury thieves, the custom house plunderers, the cotton stealers, every man who can be bought with money, and all the honest but misguided men to whom slavery seems the supreme evil, and the Union something less than our supremest political good

With us will stand arrayed all men whose "fidelity to the Union" in the language of the Chicago platform, is "unswerving;" all men who declare with General McClellan that "the Union must be preserved at all hazards." Shoulder to shoulder with us will gather all those who believe with our gallant standard-bearer, that, "to restore and preserve the Union," "the same spirit of conciliation and compromise which framed the Union must prevail in our councils, and in the hearts of the people;" all those who believe with him, that, "so soon as it is clear or even probable that our present adversaries are ready for peace, upon the basis of the Union, we should exhaust all the resources of statesmanship consistent with the honor and interest of the country to secure such peace;" all those who accept the authoritative utterance of the Democratic party in convention assembled, in favor of an "immediate cessation of hostilities," "a national convention," or any other peaceable means, whenever, and by which. "peace may be restored on the basis of the Federal Union of the States."

With us, and for us, will fight the gallant men of the army and navy, whose great sacrifice shall not have been in vain; and all who, like them, "would hail with unbounded joy," as brave men may hail, the restoration of Union and Peace "without the effusion of another drop of blood."

The farmers of our harvests, the mechanics in all our shops, the workingmen of the North, are with us.

And all those whom one cause or another has in past time alienated from the Democratic party will now return to swell its ranks anew, and help to win its victories.

They lie in their teeth who shall henceforth say that the Democratic party, or any man within it, is fighting for a disunion peace. Its shield is spotless. Its motto is:

UNION AND PEACE.

And in this sign we conquer!—World.

Bank Robbed.

One of the most extensive, and at the same time mysterious robberies which has taken place in this State in a long period, transpired recently. The particulars of the affair, so far as we can ascertain them, are as follows: On Saturday last the First National Bank of this city, which is located at the northwest corner of Third and Walnut streets, received from one of its correspondents, the First National Bank of Gallipolis, an order for $15,000, in Treasury notes. The amount was immediately done up and carried to the office of the Harnden Express Company, in the Burnet House block, for delivery to the owners, at Gallipolis. This was on Saturday, but the money was not shipped until Monday morning last when it was sent by the usual railroad route to Gallipolis, which is by the Marietta and the Cincinnati road to Hamden Junction, thence south by the Sciots and Hocking Valley road to Portland station, and thence, by stage west, about twenty-five miles, to Gallipolis. At Portland, on Monday evening the safe with its valuable contents was placed on the stage, to be taken to Gallipolis, and it was at this point of its journey that it was lost. How it was abstracted from the vehicle, whether by bold highwaymen, who taking advantage of the darkness, and rough roads, dragged it noiselessly to the ground, or by what other means, seems to be a matter as yet ot unravelled mystery. Certain it is, however, that the safe with its $15,000 and other valuables has been stolen, and that the thief has thus far escaped detection. We doubt not, however, that in a few days the real circumstances of the affair will be brought to light.—Cin. Com.

ADVERTISEMENT.—THE CITIzens of Lawrenceville are making a strenuous effort to fill their quota, and to this end a Committee has been appointed to solicit subscriptions for the payment of bounties, without reference to a tax for that purpose.

The Committee have districted the borough into ten Block districts, and assigned the following of their number to each:

1 District—A Hoeffler, N G Craig
2 " G S Bates, S F Barr, A J Marks
3 " Benj Schmidt, S J Wainwright
4 " John Wilkinson, George Hoerr, B O Bosworth, John Metcalf
5 " John McCullough, A J Stewart
6 " James Irwin, Jas T McClure
7 " S H Keller, S McMahon, M J McCann
8 " Geo Garrison, John Smith, M M Bosworth
9 " T B Stewart, S M Kier, Geo Irwin.
10 " Charles North, Samuel Colvin, George Clowes

These committees will at once call on the citizens in their respective districts, and all are earnestly asked to subscribe liberally, and into the borough the disgrace of previous failure.

S. M. KIER, Chairman.
S. F. BARR, Secretary.
