in our pickets, compelling us to return and re establish the line. The losses were very small on our side, consisting of only two men wounded in the 1st Pennsylvania battalion. The enemy left one or two killed who fell into our hands, and doubtless some were wounded. The whole division of cavalry have been saddled all day and in readiness to move at a moment's notice, if found necessary, to go to the assistance of the small force sent out, but the object of the reconnissance was accomplished without further aid.
