PILES OF

TWENTY YEARS STANDING

CURED.

Below will be found a certificate from the one of most respectable citizens of Wilkins township in regard to Dr. Keyser's Lindsay' Blood Searcher. The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER:—I became afflicted with Piles about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me or work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could do ot anything account of them, they came on out on me as large as a hickory nut. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that fell in my way, but I could not get cured, sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterward they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors who visited me at my house and gave me some medicine but it would not do, I could not get well. Over a year ago I got an advertisement of your Lindsay's Blood-Searcher, made by yourself—when you sold it to me you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be renewed by the medicine before I got well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me and used it according to your directions. I than called on to see you again, when you said I could n expect much benefit from one bottle. I bought it on one bottle at a time, until I had [illegible] bottles. After this quantity had been used, I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortured me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years past. I have been well now for six months, and there is noappearance of a return of the disease. I can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles coming down and hurting me. I can pitch hay, chop wood, lift, or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I found out your Blood-Searcher I kept on taking it until I got entirely well. I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was and do not know the value of your medicine. You can publish this if you like—I live in Wilkins Township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call December 24th, 1863.

MANHOOD,

Robert E. Bell, M. D.,

Member of the royal College of Surgeons, London, addressed to youth, the married and those

CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE

Sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of ten cents. A careful perusal of this small book has been a boon to the afflicted, and has saved thousands from a life of misery and an untimely grave. It treats on the evils of Youthful Indiscretion, Self-Abuse, Seminal weakness, Emissions, Sexual Diseases, Genital Debility, Loss of Power, Nervousness, Premature Decay, Impotency, &c., &c., which unfit the sufferer from fulfilling the OBLIGATIONS OF MARRIAGE, and illustrates the means of cure by the use of

DR. BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS,

and other treatment necessary in some cases, and which never fails to cure, and can be relied on. They do not nauseate the stomach, or render the breath offensive, and they can be USED WITHOUT DETECTION.

They do not interfere with business pursuits, and are speedy in action. No change of diet is necessary. They are warranted in all cases to be effectual in removing and curing the disease. Upwards of two thousand cases are on record that have been cured by using BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS, and certificates can be shown from many that have used them.

No Case of Failure ever Occurs.

Upwards of a Hundred Physicians use them extensively in their practice, and they cannot effect cures without them.

IMPORTANT NOTICE,

BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS

Are the original and only genuine Specific Pills There are a host of imitators—BEWARE OF THEM.

These are Warranted.

They are adapted for male or female, old or young, and are the only reliable remedy known for the cure of all diseases arising from

YOUTHFUL INDISCRETION.

In all Sexual Diseases, as Gonorrhea, Stricture, Gleet, and in all Urinary and Kidney complaints,

They Act Like a Charm!

Relief is experienced by taking a single box, and from four to six boxes generally effect a cure.

Sold by Druggists generally, in boxes containing six pills, price $1 or six boxes, $5; also in large boxes, containing four of the small, price $3.

If you need the Book, or the Pills, cut out this advertisement for reference, and if you cannot procure them of your druggist, do not be imposed upon by any other remedy, but enclose the money in a letter to the proprietor, who will take all risk if properly directed, and will send the Pills, secured from observation, by return mail, post Paid.

DR. J. BRYAN, BOX 5079,
36 Dexter Street, N. Y.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose they would not let one of their family go to a party that have devoted years for their benefit, became he advertise the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the exsc. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Ball and M. Paul Ricord devoted years to the treatment of these diseases? Those men are held up as shining lights in the medical world. I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to to my general success: but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhea and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. This company holds the fee simple of 1647 acres of best quality Coal Land, situate on the Monongahela river. The cost of said land at $115 per acre amounts to $122,705. The remaining $27,295 of the capital stock will be used in building a short railroad, erecting Coal Tipples and other necessary improvements, to develope the mineral of the company. The distance from the river Bank to the coal already opened is but fifty feet. At a low stage of the river there are 20 feet water at the Companies Coal Mines.

From these facts the Trustees and Directors have no doubt that with proper energy the stock of the company can very soon be made highly remunerative. 30 per cent. on subscriptions will be called in, payable on or before the 12th of September, 1864; balance of instalments as may be ordered by the Trustees and Directors, and as the company require.

From the World.

Who will Prevent the Independence of the Confederacy?

The Times, with less candor than the rebel organs themselves, exhibit, strives to confound an "armistice" with a "cessation of hostilities," having in view an ultimate convention and peace; but peace on the indispensable basis of the Federal Union. The Times says of General McClellan, and therefore says without accuracy or truth: "He will grant the conspirators an armistice," and then basis on its own fiction a picture of the damage to us of opened rebel ports, a suspended blockade, and the import into the Confederacy of all sorts of supplies.

These suppositions advantages to the rebels would not follow upon even an "armistice" much less would they follow upon a "cessation of hostilities on the solid basis of Union." Even an armistice would leave the status quo undisturbed. Neither fleets nor armies would be withdrawn. And it would not be difficult to show that by an armistice on the basis of the status quo we would take an advantage far greater than the rebels. Even the rebels themselves fear this. Says the Richmond Dispatch, quoted in the same issue of the Times:

"What do we want an armistice for? Is it that Grant may have leisure to recruit and reorganize his shattered ranks? Is it that Lincoln may have soldiers to control the elections within his dominions? Is it that the new levy of half a million may be thoroughly disciplined before it be brought into the field, and thereby be the better suited to his purpose of trampling out the fire of our liberties? Is it that new iron-clads may be built, new engines of destruction be invented, new arms be imported from the arsenals of Europe? Is it that at the end of the term we may find ourselves so surrounded by bayonets, so blockaded by fleets, so beset in every quarter of our country, that we can no longer offer even the show of resistance? We can see no other result than this, for it does not seem that the fleets and armies are to be withdrawn."

But the committee on resolutions of the Chicago Convention, anxious to have no doubt in the mind of any loyal man that it would be the fixed determination of a Democratic administration to "reap all the benefits of our many victories by land and sea," which a Republican administration has failed, and will forever fail, to reap, avoided the recommendation of an armistice, and recomended, instead, merely that "efforts should be made for a cessation of hostilities," to the one single end of Union—the only lawful object of hostilities, and for the sake of peace, which it avowed could be restored only on "the basis of the federal Union." The radical organs constantly cite the rebel declarations that they are fighting for independence, and pretend to fear that the Chicago declaration will give them what they are fighting for. We can better trust rebel sharp-sightedness than the partisan obliquity of vision of Mr. Lincoln's organs, to discern truly the relative advantage to North and South of such a cessation of hostilities for such purposes, and with such an invariable condition.

Says the Richmond Examiner:

The platform declares that "immediate efforts should be made for a cessation of hostilities." This is a carefully calculated expression. Why "efforts"? Democrats, as well as abolitionists, know that the government of that nation can bring about a cessation of hostilities at any moment, without any effort at all, it is only ceasing, upon their part, from hostilities upon us, and all hostilities cease on the instant. But the framers of the "platform" take care to intimate that this is not what they mean—the "cessation of hostilities" which they seek is to be expressly with a view to the ultimate convention of all the states, or other peaceable means, to the end that at the earliest practicable moment peace may be restored on the basis of the federal Union of the states"—meaning union of the confederate with the federal states. If a cessation of hostilities is to be proposed, even with this "view," we cannot see that any effort is required; the federal government could, at any time, stop the war and invite a convention of what they call all the states; but, in short, the use of the word "effort" proves that the cessation of hostilities they contemplate is not only with this view, but upon this condition—the condition that the Confederate States agree to come into the convention, and be bound by it, or in some other peaceable way place themselves once more "on the basis of the federal Union." Now, to bring about a cessation of hostilities upon these conditions may certainly require an effort, and the word is not misplaced.

The platform, then, does not pledge the new administration; if it come into power, to stop the war, nor so much as to suspend hostilities for a single moment, but only "to make efforts to induce the Confederate States to come into convention for the restoration of the "Union"—that is, to submit, as a condition of even an armistice.

And now hear rebel testimony as to who are the enemies of Southern independence. Again and again have we cited the prayers of rebel journals and rebel speakers that Abraham Lincoln might, be re-elected, and so the Confederacy triumph. Again and again have they declared that in Lincoln's re-election lies their best hope for the future. So now, in the triumph of the Chicago nominee, rebel eyes foresee new and greater perils to their cause. Says the Examiner, with the quick discernment of one whose interests are at stake:

"The only practical moral we can draw from all this is, that the Confederate States never had more urgent need of an effective army and a diligent conscription, and vigilant leaders, and all men to the front, than they have at this hour."

So said the same journal, as this new peril to the Confederacy loomed above the horizon at Chicago when General McClellan was nominated for the Presidency:

And now, supposing that armistice to be accepted, it must be admitted that the situation would be regarded by many good Confederates as more perilous to our independence than Lincoln's war to the knife for those "negotiations" will undoubtedly be construed as they ought to be, to the Confederate Government; they may address themselves severally, perhaps specifically, to State Legislatures; they may wind their way through every ramification of society, by commercial transactions and private intercourse, may approach influential individuals in the shape of promises of political support nay of hard money, in every conceivable manner that season of armistice would be used to create here an Union party once more. The effort would fail, yet it might distract and divide, and introduce troublesome discord, when now there is a good practical unanimity. There can be no doubt that should Lincoln remain law election, and should McClellan be the new President, and should he offer an armistice for negotiation, even though it should be a real, genuine cessation of hostilities by sea and land—the cause of confederate independence would then begin to have a new kind of perils to encounter, and would have to meet them by a new effort of public virtue more heroic than military achievement itself.

And after all, be it remembered that, if such an armistice is proposed, it is accompanied by an implied threat. This is the very feature which gave McClellan precedence over all competitors—that he is a general and a young Napoleon, and is supposed to know how the war can at any time be brought to successful issue, if Lincoln would but let him have his own way. We are about to be asked, then, to negotiate under the Damocles sword; they dare to hold up before us in terro rem, the Hero of Harrison's landing, as a warning that after all promised blandishments and "constitutional guarantees, we still hold out against the "Union of our fathers," that young Napoleon will be ultimately compelled to exterminate us at last.

In the face of testimony like this no honest, loyal man, can doubt which way to cast his vote. If he casts it for Abraham Lincoln, the cause of the confederate chieftains wish. If he casts it for General McClellan, then, say the rebels themselves, "the confederacy has new perils to encounter."

Make your choice. Union men will vote for Lincoln, and you vote for Disunion. Vote for McClellan, and you vote for the Union anyhow, and for Peace if peace be possible.
