PILES OF

TWENTY YEARS STANDING

CURED.

Below will be found a certificate from the one of our most respectable citizens of Wilkins township in regard to Dr. Keyser's Lindsay' Blood Searcher. The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER:—I became afflicted with piles about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me for work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could not anything account of them, they came on me as large as a hickory nut. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that fell in my way, but could not get cured, sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterward they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors who visited me at my house and gave me some medicine but it would not do, I could not get well. Over a year ago I got an advertisement of your Lindsay's Blood-Searcher, made by yourself—when you sold it to me you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be renewed by the medicine before I got well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me and used it according to your directions. I then call'd to see you again, when you said I could not expect much benefit from one bottle. I bought on, one bottle at a time, until I had bottles. After this quantity had been used, I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortured me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years last. I have been well now for six months, and there is no appearance of a return of the disease. I can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles troubling down and hurting me. I can pitch hay, chop wood, lift, or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I found out your Blood-Searcher I kept on taking it until I got entirely well. I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was, and do not know the value of your medicine. You may publish this if you like—I live in Wilkins township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call.

December 24th, 1863.

☞ Look out for the name of DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER on the cover of the bottle and pasted over the cork; also for his stamp on the United States stamp on the top of the bottle to prevent being forged.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.

THE PRIVATE MEDICAL ADVISER, an invaluable treatise of 64 pages, by

DR. JOHN HARVEY,

published for the benefit of the sex.

On receipt of ten cents it will be sent post paid in a sealed envelope, to all who apply for it.

It gives a concise description of all the diseases peculiar to females, together with means of cure, and treats of Conception, Pregnancy, Miscarriage Sterility, Sexual Abuses, Prolapsus, Uteri, Female Weakness, Consumption, &c., and much other valuable information not published in any other work. Every lady should procure a copy without delay. Three Editions, 50,000 each, have alread been published and distributed this year.

HARVEY'S CHRONO THERMAL FEMALE PILLS

the most fufallible and popular remedy ever known for all diseases of the female sex. They have been used in many thousand cases with unfailing success—and may be relied on in every case for which they are recommended, and particularly in allcases arising from OBSTRUCTION OR STOPPAGE OF NATURE, no matter from what cause it arises. They are effectual in restoring to health all who are suffering from Weakness and Debility, Uterine Discharges, Nervousness, &c., &c., and they ACT LIKE A CHARM in strengthening and restoring the system. Thousands of ladies who have suffered for years and tried various other remedies in vain, owe a renewal of their health and strength wholly to the efficacy of

Dr. Harvey's Female Pills.

They are not a new discovery but a long tried remedy—the celebrated

DR. JOHN HARVEY,

one of the most eminent physicians, prescribed them for many years in his private practice, and no physician was more truly popular or widely known than him in the treatment of

FEMALE DIFFICULTIES.

All who have used DR. HARVEY'S FEMALE PILLS recommend them to others. Nurses recommend them—Druggists and Dealers recommend them in preference to other medicines, because of their merits. No lady objects to taking them for they are elegantly

Prepared by an Experienced Chemist.

Price One Dollar.

☞ Cut this notice out if you desire Dr. Harvey's Pills or Book, and if you cannot procure them of your Druggist, do not take any other, for some dealers who are unprincipled will recommend other Female Pills, they can make a larger profit on—but enclose the money and send direct to

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the diseases named in this card, (Private Diseases,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose they would not let one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Hall and M. Paul Ricord devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary, to certify to my general success: but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhœa and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be carefu l in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. NATIONAL BANKS.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY,
Washington City, Aug. 5th, 1863.

WHEREAS, By satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH, in the County of Allegheny and State of Pennsylvania has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the Act of Congress, entitled "an Act to provide a National Currency, secured by a pledge of United States Stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved February 25th, 1863, and has complied with all the provisions of said Act required to be complied with before commencing the business of Banking.

Now THEREFORE, I, Hugh McCulloch, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that the said FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH, county of Allegheny and State of Pennsylvania, is authorized to commence the business of banking under the Act aforesaid.

In testimony whereof witnesses my hand and seal of office, this 6th day of August, 1863.

HUGH McCULLOCH,
Comptroller of the Currency.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH, PA.,
Late Pittsburgh Trust Company.

Capital $500,000 paid in with privilege to increase to $1,000,000.

The Pittsburgh Trust Company having organized under the act to provide a National Currency, under the title of the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH, would respectfully offer its services for the collection of Notes, Drafts, Bills of Exchange, &c., receive money on deposit and buy and sell Exchange on all parts of the country.

The success which has attended the Pittsburgh Trust Company since its organization in 1855, will we believe be a sufficient guarantee that business entrusted to the new organization will receive the same prompt attention.

Having a very extensive correspondence with Banks and Bankers, throughout the country, we believe we can offer unusual facilities to those who do business with us.

The business will be conducted by the same officers and directors.

DIRECTORS AND TRUSTEES:

Wm. Bagaley, Chas. W. Richetson,
John Watt, Wm. Phillips,
Joshua Rhodes.

This company holds the fee simple of 1800 acres of best quality Coal Land, situate on the Monongahela river. The cost of said land at $115 per acre amounts to $207,705. The remaining $27,295 of the capital stock will be used in building a short railroad, erecting Coal Tipples and other necessary improvements, to develope the mineral of the company. The distance from the river bank to the coal already opened is but fifty feet. At a low stage of the river there are 20 feet water at the Companies Coal Mines.

From these facts the Trustees and Directors have no doubt that with proper energy the stock of the company can very soon be made highly remunerative. 30 per cent. on subscriptions will be called in, payable on or before the 15th of September, 1864; balance of instalments as may be ordered by the Trustees and Directors, and as the company require.

Books of subscription are opened at the following places:

THE AMERICAN WAR.

The Ministerial Organ of the West.

The South Cannot be Subjugated—The Prospects of Peace.

From the London Morning Star,

The principal circumstances which would make us hope for an early peace between the American belligerents appears to have been overlooked. We do not allude to considerations of justice, reason and humanity. In the heat of a deadly feud, especially among kinsfolk and friends who have quarreled, such considerations count for little. That the South are fighting a defensive war for independence and self Government is not likely to weigh much, apart from a conviction of the impossibility of conquest, with twenty millions of infuriated Republicans fighting for empire and revenge. But there is one consideration which we should think must have great force, even with the Northern enthusiasts. It is, that by this time the entire North must have become weakened to an appreciation of the real nature of the war. They must by this time have learned, and learned to their cost, that what they have to do with is no mere section of Southern politicians, but the whole united people of the South. Such a people can never be conquered nor got rid of by extermination.

The war was originally undertaken and entered upon by the North upon an hypothesis totally different from the real facts as they now stand revealed, and proved by four years of ineffectual and fruitless fighting. The theory upon which the North plunged into the war, was in the presence of the facts as they presented themselves to the impartial eyes of European spectators, one of the oldest and most whimsical it is possible to imagine. That theory was that half a dozen desperate men in the South had seized upon the whole power of the country, against the wishes and the will of ninety-nine hundredths, or rather nine hundred and ninety-nine thousandths of the population. They then pressed the flower of the Southern youth and manhood in the army, and compelled them to wage a reluctant war against their brethren of the North, and their lawful sovereign, the Federal Government.

How half a dozen private individuals, the mere citizens of one half of a Democracy upon a perfect equality with the rest of the Southerners, with no official character or authority, without an army, or even a police force to support their daring usurpation, could work such a miracle as this, neither the Northerners themselves, nor their partizans on this side of the Atlantic, ever seemed to think it worth while to explain. Indeed they do not seem to have given it a thought, or rather they were not apparently in a state of mind to reflect at all. When there is a struggle between two parties in the same State to get possession of the existing Government, the one that drives out the previous holders of power steps into their place and invests itself with their authority. The successful party becomes the Government de facto. It has the army, the navy, the police, the executive, and every appendage of Government in their hands, and therefore can control the people. This is intelligible enough.

The mass of the people may be indifferent, or divided in their allegiance and opinion, or even inimical to the new Government, but so long as it wields the civil and military resources of the State and all the engines of power and authority, it can have its own way, and command the obedience of the people. But this was nothing like what existed in America. There was no established Government in the South—no army, no navy, no civil power, no executive no nothing that goes to make up a Government. Whatever of these things existed in the South belong to the Government of the United States—that is the Government in contravention and hostility to which the Southerners acted. Mr. Davis and his colleagues had to create these things, and their only material for creating them was the will of the Southern people.

What there was in the South that enabled them to do, what they did was State rights and individual rights, based on and growing out of the great American principle of the sovereignty of the people, and that no Government is lawful or legitimate without the consent of the people. The theory that it was half a dozen discontented politicians who did it all, and made eight or nine millions of people revolt against their will and against a government they approved, and then pressed the flower of their manhood to create an army, and made that army fight against their brethren and kindsmen, is as certainly unfounded as it is certain that it was once firmly maintained by the North and its partisans, and was, indeed, the great stimulus for plunging into war.

Had the real facts, as they have since been disclosed and demonstrated, been known in the North from the first, it is doubtful if, with all their vexation about losing the profits they had been accustomed to extract from the South, they would have brought upon themselves the dangers and the ruin of this fruitless and hopeless war. But these facts were ignored; the Northerners shut their eyes to them. They believed, and loudly asserted, and their friends on this side of the water took up the cry, that the Federal armies would no sooner appear on Southern soil than the majority of the population would hail them as deliverers and join their ranks. The secessionists were to sink at once into the insignificance to which their numerical inferiority doomed them. The Unionist party, consisting of the great bulk of the people, too long kept down, and its voice stifled by a small but noisy and violent party of disloyal and desperate adventurers, would rise in its dignity and its might, and crush the malcontents. This was the theory that was persistently dinned into our ears by the Northerners and their friends.

But it was not merely the Unionist or Loyalist party that was to rise in its strength and dwarf the handful of seditious "rebels" who had profanely sought to destroy the best Government Providence had ever permitted to be established upon this earth. Another formidable coadjutor of the North was to appear directly the liberating armies set their foot on Southern soil—for it was not as conquerors and invaders that the Federal troops were to go forth on the crusade—it was as liberators and deliverers; they were to emancipate the great mass of their Southern brethren from the usurped authority and galling tyranny of the Secessionists. But this deliverance and emancipation were to extend beyond the whites, and hence the second ally which was to rise up to bid the crusaders welcome, and receive them with open arms, while the secessionist malcontents were to perish under the ruin of their blazing homesteads—this formidable ally was no other than the negro.

It was confidently expected and loudly asserted that he would rise on his master directly after the contest began, and without waiting for a sight of his pretended liberators. But four years of useless, impotent war, without profit in the past, or promise for the future, has dissipated this theory as well as the other. The fact now stands patent to all the world that the secessionists are not a party in the South, but the whole Southern people, and the negro will not rise and cut his master's throat, or burn him in his bed. Such pleasing illusions must by this time have been completely dispelled in the North, which has now, we should suppose, come to understand the real nature of the struggle it is engaged in. It must see that a restoration of the Union by the consent of the South, or by the conquest of the South, or by the extermination of eight millions of people, is an utter impossibility. The South will not come back, and cannot be made to come back; neither can it be converted into a Poland, and its people fettered and manacled, because this would not pay; nor into a Circassia, and its people driven en-masse, because that is impossible.

It is on these considerations—by this time, we should think, understood and acknowledged in the mind of the North, if not openly confessed and admitted—that the chief chances and hopes of peace must rest. The North must now see that it entered upon this war laboring under a serious delusion. Its policy was founded on a sad mistake. It thought there was only a faction, consisting of a handful of secessionist malcontents, to be met and crushed; whereas it finds itself face to face with eight millions of people, who will only sell their independence with their lives. It thought that at least the negroes would rise and assert their freedom against their masters with fire and sword, and it finds that they will not stir. It also finds that, though it may do the South great harm by going on with the war, it will be doing itself much greater harm. Above all, it finds that the South is merely fighting a defensive war for independence, and wants nothing more than to be let alone. Directly the North leaves off molesting and injuring the South, the South will lay down its arms and apply itself to the pursuits of peace. It is in these considerations, appreciated by the North, that a termination of hostilities may be looked for.

STRONG INDORSEMENT

Of the Most Eminent Pianists.

The most eminent of the musical profession of New York city, after frequent and thorough trials of my New Scale Piano Fortes, have given me the most emphatic and unqualified testimonials. The following is a specimen of the voluntary testimony I am constantly receiving from gentlemen entirely disinterested, and as all will acknowledge most thoroughly qualified to judge of the merits of a Piano Forte.

"We have examined with much care, Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO FORTES, and it is our opinion that, in power, purity, richness, quality of tone, and thorough workmanship Mr. Bradbury's instruments excel.

"We find great brilliancy and a beautiful singing quality of tone most happily blended. We have rarely seen a square Piano Forte combining so many of these qualities essential to a perfect instrument." Signed,

LABORATORY OF JAMES R. CHILTON & CO.—We have recently made a careful analysis of the Sambuca Portwine, and do not hesitate to pronounce it pure. It contains all the properties of the Port Grape, and therefore for medicinal uses it is, in most cases, superior to other wines. Its principle effect upon the system are mildly stimulating, diuretic, sedative and tonic. It will prove beneficial in Affections of the Kidneys, and Chronic Diseases with General Debility of the Constitution.

Physicians may safely recommend it to patients in place of the many doubtful mixtures too often sold as pure Wines.
