By order of the

COMMITTEE ON MEETINGS.

The Bounty Bond Case.—The Bounty Bodd case, which excited so much interest during the last few weeks, has finally been decided. The citizens of Elizabeth township being unwilling to pay the bounty taxes imposed by the School Directors, made an application for an injunction to restrain the School Directors from issuing bonds to pay bounties to volunteers or levying a tax to meet the same. Judge Hampton, on last Saturday, gave his decision in the above case, affirming the constitutionality of the law and denying the injunction, thus establishing the legality of the bounty bonds. Judge Williams delivered a concurring opinion, and as far as the tribunal is concerned the matter is now set at rest. If the citizens do not abide by this decision the matter may yet be taken to the Supreme Court, but we have not heard any intimation to this effect.

The State Fair.—The Pennsylvania State Fair will open at Easton to-morrow, the 27th of September. It is said that this year it far surpasses any of the preceding years. The exhibition is very large and of a very superior quality. A large number of visitors from all parts of the State are arriving daily at Easton, and it seems that the Fair is assuming more vast proportions than formerly. Among the many curious inventions on exhibition is to be found a plough which is to be worked by steam. It has been imported from England, and is said to answer the purposes wonderfully. It can be worked on any ground whatever, and for speed and other important points it is manifestly superior to the old method. If this could be put into general use no doubt the farmers would gain innumerable benefits from it now that manual labor is so scarce.

View of the City on Sunday.—Yesterday morning several disorderly characters were arrested for drunkenness, vagrancy or disorderly conduct, but outside of these arrests, which for the most part occurred before daylight, the city presented a most well-behaved appearance, and the citizens to a man conducted themselves with the utmost decorum. We may venture to state that no more "tippling" is carried on at present on Sunday, whatever may be said of the past. The Mayor's police keep a sharp lookout for all those who may be suspected of infringing the law, and this fact, together with the animadversions of the papers upon these violations, seems to have had a timely effect on the liquor dealers.

Meeting at Hare's Hotel.—An important and largely attended meeting was held at Hare's Hotel on Saturday evening by those of the Republican party. Several speeches were delivered, and, as we are informed, were received enthusiastically by the audience. Our informant also states that several attempts were made by the speakers and other gentlemen to ra se three cheers for Lincoln, but in vain. At length some of the members of the 62d regiment who were present, seeing the state of things, proposed three cheers for McClellan, and were answered with all the promptness imaginable.

Important Decision.—The matter of procuring substitutes is of great interest just now, and as the draft progresses the demand for that class of soldiers will be materially increased and the price enhanced. In view of this fact Provost Marshal General Fry has decided that a "resident of a sub-district out of the draft may enlist as a substitute." The decision is of vast importance, and will in a great degree assist drafted men to supply their places in the army if they cannot or will not serve themselves.

The Draft Suspended.—It is announced that the draft will be suspended in this district for a few days, probably that the sub-districts may be afforded another opportunity to fill their quotas, especially those which have been working energetically to fill their quotas with volunteers. Only a few sub-districts remain which have not raised their full complement of men, and every effort should be made on their part to furnish the necessary number during those few days of grace.

83d Regiment.—The 83d Pennsylvania regiment, Lieut. Col. McCoy, is now returning home after a long and laborious campaign. It has suffered severely in numbers, and returns with one hundred and three men and seven officers, all that is left of a total of eleven hundred who were once in its ranks.

Death of a Good Man.—We regret to announce the death of an old and estimable friend, Dr John Pollock, of Clinton, in this county. He was a highly useful and beloved citizen, and his death will be long regretted by the village of Clinton.

Camp Reynolds.—There are but a few remaining men in Camp Reynolds, perhaps not over three hundred, principally substitutes. They will be sent to the front as soon as the necessary arrangements for doing so are completed.

Democratic Meeting.—A meeting will be held this evening at the Democratic Headquarters at 7½ o'clock. All Democrats are invitvd to attend, as business of importance is announced.

Pic-Nic.—The pic-nic to be held at Iron City Park by the St. Vincent de Paul's society for the benefit of the poor, and which was announced for last Saturday, was necessarily postponed on account of the foul weather which prevailed in the forenoon of that day. It will certainly be held on the first of October, when all those who have heretofore so generously promoted the interests of that charitable society are invited to attend. Admission tickets only ten cents.

Excursion trains over the Connellsville and Pennsylvania railroads will convey persons to and from the great sale of lots at Braddock's field this afternoon, leaving Pittsburgh at one o'clock and returning before six. See advertisement and remember the hour. Seats free.

Minstrels.—We understand that Sam Sharpley's celebrated minstrel troupe will commence its performances at Masonic Hall this evening. The "iron-clads" are a very favorite troupe, and will certainly be amply patronized by the public.

FROM OUR FIRST EDITION.

More About Early's Retreat.

NEW YORK, September 24.—A Herald special, dated on the 22d from the right of Sheridan's army, says that on the second morning, Tuesday, when Sheridan advanced he found the enemy had not been idle during the night, but on the contrary had taken advantage to add as much distance as possible between himself and the federals. Still in moving up, we had to engage in skirmishing of a rather heavy character. This gave rise to reports, no doubt, that we were, as an army, fighting another battle.

On Tuesday our cavalry, both on the right and left, was active in attacking the enemy's flank and harrassing his retreat. Our infantry, too, did good work to-day. We are again on the move. The forward movement this morning was attended with more fighting as we advanced.

The report is that Gen. Early will make another stand at just ahead; but as we reach each point of "just ahead," Early's force is found to have retreated. Some say this forenoon that the line the rebels intend to fight it out on is, where the fork of the Shenandoah river crosses the Vally Pike. Our hope is that they will do so.

In the last battle the loss in field officers to the rebels in killed and wounded seems to have been extremely large.

Sheridan's Victory in Washington.

WASHINGTON, September 23.—It has been ascertained that Early's scattered forces, or what is left of them, have abandoned the road to Stanton, and are retreating in disorder, via Culpepper and Gordonsville, directly towards Richmond, leaving the road to Lynchburg unobstructed, while Lee is unable to spare a man from his army to oppose the progress of the victorious Sheridan.

The news from Sheridan's army this afternoon created wild excitement throughout the city. The capture of Fisher Hill, the great strong-hold and key to the upper part of Shenandoah Valley, and the additional of sixteen cannon and several thousand prisoners to the trophies already won by the victorious army of Gen. Sheridan, is regarded here as conclusive evidence of the destruction of the rebel army in the valley, and the opening of the whole route to Lynchburg, which necessarily must bring about the speedy evacuation of Richmond or the capture of the rebel capital and Lee's whole army.

There are in progress other movements, not proper to be disclosed now, which tend to render this result probable, within, perhaps, a very few days.

Latest News from New Orleans.

NEW YORK, September 23.—The Herald's New Orleans correspondent says the President, immediately after the Red River campaign, tendered the War Department to General Banks, but he declined it. The court martial of the rebel General Page, commanding, Fort Morgan, for spiking his guns after surrendering, is still progressing. The steamer Rob Roy arrived with 1100 bales of cotton, which was seized by the Treasury agent for a violation of an order. Gen. Banks has issued an order against the arrest and confinement of persons without specifying the charges. The old Mississippi Marine Brigade has been arrested, charged with mutiny.

The Herald's Matamoras correspondent says: Cortina captured at Brownsville a million of dollars' worth of goods and also captured Lovejoin Texas, with between two and three thousand bales of cotton.

Paymasters for Sheridan's Army

Decline in the Gold Market.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The Baltimore and Ohio railroad has been redeemed from its three months derangement by the victory of Sheridan. This result alone is of great importance, and much heightens the value of our success. Cumberland coal and the gas company coal from the Alleghenies and the heavy produce from West Virginia and the more distant States can now all come forward again to relieve the consumers and improve the markets, while in every business and military sense the reoccupation of the road will prove of the first importance. Eight miles of the track has been restored, with five bridges and one and a quarter miles of telegraph poles, besides water stations, &c. The victory occurred on Monday night last. On Tuesday night preparations for restoring the road began, and the whole line will be in use again by Tuesday next.

Commodore Parker, of the Potomac flotilla, communicates the following to the Secretary of the Navy: On midnight of the 16th one of the boats of the U. S. steamer Currituck, while in search of blockade runners at the mouth of the Yicomo river, was fired into from the shore. Wm. King, captain in hold, was instantly killed and Geo. H. McNeil, landsman, severely wounded. The fire was promptly returned from the boat, which reports that a shell exploded in the midst of the shore party.

There are now about 6,500 prisoners confined at Point Lookout. Fifty refugees crossed the river from the Virginia shore and succeeded in reaching that place. Some of them are from Richmond, and say the news of Early's first defeat had reached there and caused the greatest consternation and alarm.

Rebel officers brought to Washington from Point Lookout to be transferred to Northern prisons will not believe that Sheridan has achieved victories in the Shenandoah valley, as proclaimed in official dispatches.

Six paymasters, under heavy escort, started for Sheridan's army this morning to pay off the troops of that command.

Warrants to complete payments to the army and navy to date have been signed by Secretary Fessenden. The entire armies of the United States will therefore receive payment in full as soon as paymasters can arrange details. There are no suspended requisitions on the Treasury other than those awaiting rearrangement by order of the proper authorities.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 24.—Among the guests at the Galt House this evening are Major General F. P. Blair and Brigadier Generals R. A. Smith, Rice and Long.

Passengers from Atlanta report all quiet. A portion of the city is being destroyed, the lumber from the dwellings being used to construct camps.

The rebel army is swinging around to cover Atlanta and the West Point railroad so as to prevent our advance on Mobile.

Gov. Brown has offered Sherman propositions of peace, notwithstanding the assertions of Eastern correspondents to the contrary.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 24.—The International Industrial Assembly adjourned this afternoon after four days harmonious session. Eight States were represented. The officers elected R. Gilchrist, of Louisville, President; S. S. Whiter, of Boston, Vice President; A. Sentrenick, of Detroit, Recording Secretary; J. B. Lake, of Chicago, Corresponing Secretary; E. F. Bigler, of Cincinnati, Finance Secretary; C. W. Talmadge, of Louisville, Treasurer, and Wm. Bailey, of St. Louis, Warden. A large mass meeting is now progressing.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Richmond Dispatch of the 22d has the following relative to Early's defeat: A report was in circulation at an early hour yesterday morning that a fight occurred near Winchester, in the Valley of Virginia, on Monday last which resulted disadvantageously to the Confederate army. As usual, when any unfortunate news is afloat, the grossest exaggeration prevailed, until the following official dispatch from Gen. Lee was given out by the authorities:

Headquarters Army of Northern Virginia, Sept. 20.—Hon. James A. Seddon: Gen. Early reports that on the morning of the 19th the enemy advanced on Winchester, near which place he met his attack, which was resisted from early in the day till near night, when he was compelled to retire. After night he fell back to Newtown, and this morning to Fisher's Hill. Our loss is reported to be severe. Major General Robbs and Brigadier General Gordon were killed while nobly doing their duty. Three pieces of artillery of King's battalion were lost. The trains and supplies were brought off safely. (Signed)

R. E. LEE.

The same paper, speaking of matters before Petersburg, says: On our extreme right and the enemy's left both parties continue to watch one another with sleepless vigilance. Each returning day adds strength to the defensive work, and the tug of war, come when it may, will be one of the bloodiest of this very bloody contest.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 22d gravely asserted that Early's position at Fisher's Hill was impregnable, from whence he would advance again on the enemy.

Two treasury officials have absquatulated from Richmond after converting nearly a million rebel treasury notes into greenbacks.

The Enquirer admits that the first defeat of Early adds to the gloom consequent upon the fall of Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Sept. 24.—The Louisville agent of the New York associated press dispatches embrace one from Macon of the 14th inst. announcing the arrival of the first train of refugees from Atlanta, with the addition that they were robbed of everything before sent into the rebel lines. Of course that is false, and it is idle to correct it so far as the rebels are concerned, for they purposed it as a falsehood to create a mischievous public opinion. The truth is that during the truce 446 families were moved south, making 705 adults, 860 children and 79 servants, with 1,057 pounds of furniture and household goods on an average for each family, of which I have a perfect recollection by reason of name and articles. At the end of the truce Colonel Warner, of my staff, who had general supervision of the business, received from Major Clan, of Gen. Hood's staff, the following letter:

ROUGH AND READY, Sept. 21.

Colonel: Our official communication is about to close. Permit me to bear testimony to the uniform courtesy you have shown on all occasions to me and my people, and the promptness with which you have corrected all irregularities arising in our intercourse. Hoping at some future time to be able to reciprocate your courteous and, in many instances, your positive kindness, I am, with respect, your obedient servant,

W. T. CLAN,

Major and A. A. G. of Gen. Hood's staff.

I would not notice this, but I know the people of the North, liable to be misled by a falshood calculated for special purposes by a desperate enemy, will be relieved by the assurance that not only care but real kindness has been extended to families who lost their homes by the acts of their male protectors.

(Signed) W. T. SHERMAN,
Major General Commanding.

FARTHER POINT, Sept. 24.—The steamship North American, from Liverpool on the 12th, passed this point en route to Quebec.

The rebel loan in London declined 3 per cent. on receipt of the American advices per steamship Asia.

The London Times and other papers discuss the American news received by the Asia. The Times says: Never has there been such vigor displayed since the war began. It comments on the Chicago Convention, and thinks President Lincoln's policy has received a heavy check by the nomination of McClellan.

The London Post thinks as McClellan has been distinguished by moderation, if he is installed as President, unfettered by pledges, that he would assent to any arrangement for peace.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The Republican makes the following announcement: The Government received dispatches from Gen. Stevenson this morning, dated Harper's Ferry, announcing that 2,000 of the Strasburg prisoners reached Winchester last night. He also says that 1,600 of the prisoners captured near Winchester on the 19th arrived at Harper's Ferry this morning and 1,600 more are yet to come.

Later dispatches received from Gen. Stsvenson this morning announce that 1,600 more of the prisoners captured at Stasburg on the 22d reached Winchester this morning. When last heard from Early's army was flying down the valley panic stricken, Sheridan in hot pursuit, and near Woodstock.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Sept. 22.—Firing between the pickets in front of the 3d division of the 2d corps still continues and casualties occur daily. The batteries of the 3d division, 2d corps, opened on a barn full of rebel sharpshooters who had been annoying our men for some time and caused them hurriedly to decamp.

Sept. 23.—All quiet this morning.

(Signed) W. D. McGREGOR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—There is quite a panic in the stock market. Gold opened at 212, sold down to 209, and then rose to 214.

The Commercial's Washington special states that Gov. Dennison will not accept the Postmaster Generalship.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—An army correspondent of the Herald states that the rebels changed their troops in front of our lines in consequence of heavy desertions.

The shotted salute of the 22d pretty effectually useh up the the rebels' Spring Hill battery, and Petersburg must have suffered severely from the effects of dropping thirty shells a minute for thirty minutes. The rebels hardly responded.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The Commercial's Washington special says: Gen. Sheridan's prisoners are so numerous that it has been found necessary to send reinforcements to him to act as guard.

The officers in Grant's army are betting that Petersburg will be in our possession in ten days.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The Herald gives a list of rebel officers captured by Sheridan at Opequan creek, comprising two colonels, seven lieutenant colonels, one major, nineteen captains and seven yt five lieutenants.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25.—A large number of prisoners are arriving from Harper's Ferry. About 1,000 have just passed down Pratt street under guard.

BACON—The market was steady, but not very active. The sales were in a small way for local purposes. Prices were unchanged.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST,
MONDAY, September 26th, 1864.

BUSINESS—Did I say Business, if I did it was a mistake, and I beg leave to correct the same, for, with a decline in gold of from 14 to 16 cents per day in New York, we need not look for transactions in oil as that article is governed altogether by the gold market, and rate of foreign exchange. The stock of Crude on the market is very light, while the receipts for the past few days have fallen off. The market on Saturday was dull and without purchasers. Dealers take matters coolly, and are not disposed to find fault. We have no doubt matters will become more settled in a few days. At present we omit figures, as it would be impossible to quote correctly.
