MEDICAL.

THE GREAT INDIAN MEDICINE,

COMPOUNDED FROM

ROOTS, BARKS, & LEAVES.

CHEROKEE CURE!

An unfailing cure for Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, and all diseases caused by self-pollution; such as Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficulty of Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Eruptions on the Face, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all the Direful complaints, caused by deparating from the path of nature.

☞This medicine is a simple vegetable extract: and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated, it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not: the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed.

☞Price, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by Express to all parts of the world.

☞Pamphlet sent by mail free of postage, by Dr. W. R. Merwin & Co.,
No. 63 Liberty street, New York.

GLEDHILL'S REMEDIES FOR THE UNFORTUNATE!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST!

Cures in from one

to three days.

CHEROKEE REMEDY,
AND
CHEROKEE INJECTION

Compounded from Roots, Barks and Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nostrums and doctors have failed.

☞It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day.

☞It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding heat, and pain instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞By the use of the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

☞Price Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or five bottles for $5.

☞Price Cherokee Injection, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

☞Sent by Express to any address on receipt of price.

☞The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure, are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these; those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, age, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines, and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Post Office, County, State, and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page Pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlet or advice to the proprietors,

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS
THE BRADBURY PIANO FORTE
RECEIVED
SEVEN FIRST PREMIUMS
Within Four Weeks, Including
Two Gold Medals and one Silver Medal.

STRONG INDORSEMENT
Of the Most Eminent Pianists.

The most eminent of the musical profession of New York city, after frequent and thorough trials of my New Scale Piano Fortes, have given me the most emphatic and unqualified testimonials. The following is a specimen of the voluntary testimony I am constantly receiving from gentlemen entirely disinterested, and as all will acknowledge most thoroughly qualified to judge of the merits of a Piano Forte.

"We have examined with much care, Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO FORTES, and it is our opinion that, in power, purity, richness, quality of tone, and thorough workmanship Mr. Bradbury's instruments excel.

"We find great brilliancy and a beautiful singing quality of tone most happily blended. We have rarely seen a square Piano Forte combining so many of those qualities essential to a perfect instrument."

MEDICAL.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.

THE PRIVATE MEDICAL ADVISER, an invaluable treatise of 64 pages, by DR. JOHN HARVEY, published for the benefit of the sex.

On receipt of ten cents it will be sent post paid, in a sealed envelope, to all who apply for it.

It gives a concise description of all the diseases peculiar to females, together with means of cure, and treats of Conception, Pregnancy, Miscarriage Sterility, Sexual, Abuses, Eralgeus, Uterine Weakness, Consumption, &c., and much other valuable information not published in any other work. Every lady should procure a copy without delay. Three Editions, 50,000 each, have already been published and distributed this year.

HARVEY'S CHRONO THERMAL FEMALE PILLS

the most infallible and popular remedy ever known for all diseases of the female sex. They have been used in many thousand cases, with unfailing success. And may be relied on in every case for which they are recommended, and particularly in all cases arising from OBSTRUCTION OR STOPPAGE OF NATURE, no matter from what cause it arises. They are effectual in restoring to health all who are suffering from Weakness and Debility, Hysterics, Irregularities, Nervousness, &c., &c., and they ACT LIKE A CHARM in strengthening and restoring the system. Thousands of ladies who have suffered for years and tried various other remedies in vain, owe a renewal of their health and strength wholly to the efficacy of

Dr. Harvey's Female Pills.

They are not a new discovery but a long tried remedy—the celebrated

DR. JOHN HARVEY,

one of the most eminent physicians prescribed them for many years in his private practice, and no physician was more truly popular or widely known than him in the treatment of

FEMALE DIFFICULTIES.

All who have used DR. HARVEY'S FEMALE PILLS recommend them to others. Nurses recommend them—Druggists and Dealers recommend them in preference to other medicines, because of their merits. No lady objects to taking them for they are elegantly

Prepared by an Experienced Chemist.

Price One Dollar.

☞Cut this notice out if you desire Dr. Harvey's Pills or Book, and if you cannot procure them of your Druggist, do not take any other, for some dealers who are unprincipled will recommend other Female Pills, they can make a larger profit on—but enclose the money and send direct to

DR. J. BRIAN, General Agent,
Box 5073. 76 Cedar Street, N. Y.

Who will take all risk of their being lost, and you will receive them post paid, securely sealed from observation, by return mail.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the diseases named in their Card of PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose they would not be one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician may be a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician that advertises, how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Bell and M. Paul Ricord devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number among them that have devoted myself to the study and treatment of Private Diseases upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my general success: but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhœa and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. LABORATORY OF JAMES R. CHILTON & CO.—We have recently made careful analysis of the Samburg Portwine, and do not hesitate to pronounce it pure. It contains all the properties of the Port Grape, and therefore for medicinal uses it is, in most cases, superior to other wines. Its principle effects upon the system are mildly stimulating, diuretic, sedorific and tonic. It will prove beneficial in Affections of the Kidneys, and Chronic Diseases with General Debility of the Constitution.

Physicians may safely recommend it to patients in place of the many doubtful mixtures too often sold as pure Wines.

THE WORLD'S CAMPAIGN SONGS.
No. 7.

God Save Our Noble Land.

God save our noble land,
From Treason's two-edged brand,
Drawn to devour!
From fierce Rebellion's rage,
Matchless on History's page,
God save our heritage—
By His high power.

From equal woe of lust
That rends into the dust
Our league of States;
That ruling, breaks the law,
And, fighting, blackens war;
God severs from its maw
Insatiate!

O! God, we're wroth to feel
The rasp of Faction's heel
On Freedom's neck!
Nor shudder less to know
How those we trusted so
To thwart with right the foe,
Our fond hopes wreck!

Save, then, our fathers' God!
The land our fathers trod
Withrustic hand!
Thou gavest them a chief,
O! send us, too, relief,
And let the reign be brief,
Of Tyranny.

Our fathers' George was Thine;
In him Thy light did shine—
On Freedom's flag;
Their son's our George to-day,
O! make them strong and just,
And let them to the dust
All factions drag!

THE PRESIDENTIAL QUESTION.

Lincoln Dissected—Speech by Hon. Robert Mallory, at Frankfort, Kentucky, Sept. 19, 1864.

After a few preliminary remarks, in which he stated the issue before the country in the pending presidential election, Mr. Mallory proceeded: Is there less involved in the canvass than the liberties of the citizens of all this land? [Cries of No, No.] I could cite facts to establish this truth beyond controversy, but I deem it quite unnecessary. I speak to men who know the issue; who have seen and understand all the workings of the party in power for the last four years; to men who have seen and read that most remarkable letter written by the president to a citizen of your own town, Col. A. G. Hodges, in which the most monstrous doctrine is promulgated that ever emanated from the head of a republic, a doctrine that four years ago would have brought the head of any president to the political guillotine—would have insured his impeachment beyond a peradventure—the monstrous doctrice that whatever he might deem expedient he might properly do, even though in palpable violation of the constitution and utterly without warrant of law! Destroy and subvert the constitution to save it from destruction! But I will leave this matter to the masterly and irrefutable exposition of it by Col. Frank Wolford in his address to Mr. Lincoln published a few days since. He says that he has done this and done it deliberately, and will continue so to act as a fixed policy—when by the act it is impossible to escape the conclusion that he has perjured himself. And yet this man has the hardihood—the unblushing effrontery—to present himself before a free and intelligent people and ask their suffrages.

I charge that not only has he done this, but that he has violated all sacred rights of the citizens, and stand prepared to prove it. How many of you have to bewail the arrest and imprisonment of relatives and friends without the shadow or pretence of law; torn from home and friends, removed from the vicinage; denied the right of a trial by jury; charged with no offence by indictment or presentment; informed of the nature of their offence or cause of their arrest; never confronted by accusers or allowed the benefit of counsel, but incarcerated in some loathsome military prison for an indefinite time, or, it may, be banished the country, and all this at the mere nod of some petty provost marshal, who may conclude they were in his way, and hence disloyal. Freedom of person is gone. Any one of us may be approached at any time, without regard to cause or offence, and confined without limit in some one of these military prisons.

I had a most remarkable interview with Mr. Lincoln upon this subject. Hearing in Washington that the gallant and patriotic Walford was arrested and in that city a prisoner, I called, in company with Mr. Wadsworth and Senator Powell, to see him and ascertain the cause of his arrest. Col. Wolford told us he had no idea of the cause, that a provost marshal had arrested him at Lebanon, where he was making a speech, and assigned no reason; and that he was taken to Louisville and sent thence to Washington, and had not yet been informed of the cause of the proceeding. We called on Mr. Lincoln, and you may assure you we were in no very pleasant mood. We gained admittance to his presence, and told him we had come to learn the cause of the arrest of Col. Wolford, and, if there were charges against him, to demand that he be speedily tried upon them. Mr. Lincoln replied: "Well, I don't exactly know what he was arrested for, but I reckon he was arrested for making speeches calculated to prevent men from enlisting in the army." Implied that this was not so, and in the very nature of things could not be so, for he was raising a regiment at the time, and the very speeches he was making were for the purpose of enlisting men in his regiment, and that he was meeting with unprecedented success. Mr. Lincoln replied: "Well, he didn't know, but he had understood that in his position of loyalty he had ifs and buts." I replied that I didn't know how that matter was, but that I thought it likely he wanted, while preserving the union, not to destroy the constitution. Lincoln claimed that the supposition that he wanted to destroy the constitution was utterly impossible, and that his whole aim was to preserve it. Then, I replied, there is no necessity for the arrest of Wolford, for he will certainly second and sustain you in all attempts to uphold and defend that instrument. Said he: "I don't want to argue with you, Mallory; you will beat me in the argument; but I have established my rule in this matter, and intend to stand by it." Said I: "This is just what we want to know. What is your rule?" He stated it to be "to arrest anybody who says or does anything calculated to prevent any person from enlisting in the army, or discouraging enlistments, either white or black." Told him I was afraid I should violate this rule as I expected to go home and take vigorously into the campaign against him, and in prosecuting which, objection to denounce in the meanest and most unmanly and cowardly manner possible, not excepting the policy of assassination and murder, and the appeals to arrest all who did this he had as well take us whilst we were there and save the trouble of arrest and transportation. He said he reckoned not, and that if we were arrested by any of the small fry to appeal to him and he would have us released. So I left and asked him why he did not rearrest Vallandigham; that he had returned in defiance of his order, and was making speeches vastly more bitter against him and his policy than anything Wolford has ever said. His reply to this was that "he had not been officially notified of these facts; but that whenever he learned certainly that he was making such speeches he would arrest him at once." Powell, who had been sitting by all this while, and had now grown about as mad as a man can well get, replied, with no small degree of earnestness and force: "No sir, you won't you are afraid to arrest him again, and you know full well that if you undertake it, 200,000 freemen of the state of Ohio and as many more from other loyal states will rush to his rescue. You dare not make the experiment." Lincoln responded: "That's the way you all talk, and now if I release Wolford, you will say that I did it because I was afraid to hold him."

Wadesworth then joined in, and with all the fire and aim of his nature (and he has a good deal of it when aroused), said that he indorsed every word his colleagues had said, and that he too was going home and would engage most heartily in the canvass against him, and should denounce his administration and policy without limits; that he felt absolutely ashamed to breathe the pure air of Chas yen when such a known, tried and proven patriot as Col. Frank Wolford was confined to prison. Lincoln then wanted to tell us an anecdote, but I checked him, and told him with feelings of contempt that this was no occasion to indulge in anecdotes, and the interview ended. And I understood that he, in a subsequent interview with Wolford, he said he would like to tell him a joke, but that I had told him this was no time for them, and that he must charge me with having deprived him of a good one.

I have charged him with a violation of all the rights of persons and property of the people. Have but all the counts in the indictment been proven, and fully proven? I appeal to you for an answer.

He has been himself carrying on this war for four years well nigh, for he counts himself the greatest warrior in the land, as well as the most accomplished Shakespearean critic and joker in the world. Hence he does not allow any of the military commanders, whether it be Grant, Sherman or McClellan, to execute any plan unless it meets with his comprehensive (?) views of strategy, and we have seen the result.

Is he the man to carry on the war for four years more? Atlanta has fallen, but in its fall have the southern people been assured of protection if they lay down their arms and submit to the authority of the United States? Answer no. They have been spurned by Mr. Lincoln's pomp that haughty avails than to submitting to the authority of the government but ruin and desolation and slavery.

Go into the rebel territory, and you can now find no more longing to see the advent of the old flag. They have been taught by Mr. Lincoln's policy to regard it only as the emblem of tyranny and oppression. Is this policy calculated to restore the government? No. Kentucky was never in favor of that character of a war. That noblest of God's creation your own lamented and gifted Crittenden, laid down the only correct policy in his timid resolution. You all remember its purport. At that time this was not peculiarly the policy of Mr. Crittenden, but was by him most happily put into form and expression. It was that upon which Mr. Lincoln himself had pledged himself to prosecute the war. It was the doctrine of Douglas and, afterwards the border state policy. It was the policy of coercion and conciliation—that all the people in the rebel states had to do was to lay down their arms and return to their allegiance, when they should be protected in all their rights under the constitution. And if we had adhered to it the war would long since have ended and the union have been restored.

When Forts Henry and Donalson fell under this policy the utmost depression existed in all the South, and to such an extent was all the most eloquent of their speakers canvassed, the whole country speaking for recruits to replenish their armies, but in vain. They could not arouse the Southern people and induce them to volunteer, for they felt assured of protection in the old Government, and wanted its re-establishment. What all orators of the South failed to do with all their arts Abraham Lincoln accomplished by a single stroke of his pen, by his emancipation proclamation and his system of confiscation, and subjugation. He drove from us all hope of reconciliation, all hope of the rebels laying down their arms and submitting to the Government unless by utter and complete subjugation.

He is not at all to carry on this war, he is not at all to make peace. He cannot terminate the war under his present policy except by recognizing a dissolution of the Government. No other peace can be made by Lincoln. Do you want that peace? You can have no permanent peace under such a state of affairs. This is no peace—but at all continuing war, ruin and desolation. Kentucky, which for so long has been the centre and heart of the Union empire, wants to remain so. She wants no peace but upon a perfect restoration of the Government in its integrity from the lakes to the gulf and from ocean to ocean. She will not have any mock peace as Lincoln can make. Does any one tell you in his ardor "To whom it may concern" that he will entertain no proposition for even negociations for peace unless the total abandonment of slavery be embraced in it? Will the Southern States accept peace on these terms? Kentucky wants no such terms imposed. He is not at all to say we will make peace, and can't do it. He can make war, after the worn fashion, but not peace. He is by no means the "Prince of Peace" so indeed is there any of anything else but of story tellers, etc.

We want peace and are going to make it by the selection of McClellan and Pendleton and we will make it without any more fighting if we can. We will say to the rebels, "Let's talk it all over the matter. They are satisfied of this war as we are, and I believe as firmly as that I am now talking to you that any ten men on either side can agree on terms of adjustment which would be satisfactory to both. McClellan will offer them the Constitution with all his compromises and all their rights under it, and my word for it, the people there want peace, and whenever assured that they can get it on these terms they will have it. They will live in
