Fatal Accidents.—The Cambria Tribune gives the following list of deaths from accidents which occurred in the space of a few days: On Monday morning last Mr. John Conger, an old citizen of Yoder township, met with a violent death in the following manner: He had harnessed his team for the purpose of moving a family from Ben's Creek Furnace, and had loaded his wagon, when he undertook to exchange the bridles on his horses. While doing this one of the horses became frightened and commenced to make effort to run away. Mr. C. tried to hold him, but the horse being without a bridle he could not do it, and was thrown under the animal's feet, when the team ran away, drawing the loaded wagon over the prostrate man's body, one of the wheels passed over his body and another over his head, crushing his skull and killing him on the spot.

On Tuesday morning a little son of Reese Reese, named Caradoc Reese, aged about eight years, employed in the mines of the Cambria Iron Company, met a shocking death by being thrown from a mule. He was riding the animal to the mines, when it was startled by the noise of some boys, and jumping suddenly to one side he threw the boy off. His foot, however, caught in the harness on the mule, when the animal started on a full run back to the stable, dragging the boy several hundred yards, and dashing his brains out with his heels as he ran. On the same day a little son of Mr. Conrad Aple, residing at Parkinsville, about seven years old, while attempting to cross the canal lock at that place on the balance beam fell into the lock, and was drowned before assistance could be rendered him. Yesterday, about noon a Mr. ——, while gathering coal on the railroad running to the mines, was run over by a descending coal car killed.

Execution of Joseph Provost.—The Cumberland Alleghenian contains a notice of the military execution of Joseph Provost, who was sentenced a short time ago for the murder of a man named Christian Miller in Western Virginia. At a quarter past eleven o'clock the prisoner was brought out of the jail, accompanied by Rev. Father Brennan, of St. Patrick's Church, his spiritual adviser. He was placed in the cart, on either side of which a file of guards was placed. A procession was then formed, consisting of all the cavalry troops stationed here, and at twenty minutes past eleven o'clock it moved from the jail to the place of execution. Arrived there, the brief space intervening before the appointed hour was passed in solemn devotion, the condemned man participating with apparent fervor and contrition. A few minutes before twelve o'clock the noose was adjusted about the criminal's neck, he was placed upon the trap, and at precisely twelve o'clock the trap fell. The rope by some means became loosened from the ring which was attached to the cross beam of the gallows, and the condemned man fell heavily to the ground. He was immediately raised up, however, and supported again ascending the steps to the platform by the Rev. Father Brennan. But a few minutes elapsed, when the necessary arrangements having been made, the noose was a second time placed about his neck, and in a very brief space of time the unhappy man was launched into eternity. After hanging until life was extinct the body was cut down and interred.

Arrested for Larceny.—A man named John Flood, who has never borne a very enviable reputation, was arrested on Saturday for stealing a dress from a barber shop on Grant street, and in default of bail was committed to jail. Several other charges were brought against him, such as not paying his bills at the house in which he boarded, for all of which he will be brought to answer.

Harry Forrest, another hard case, and who served his time in jail more than once before, was committed for stealing a tobacco box from the store of B. Smith & Co., Smithfield street. He was seen going out of the store with the box, but on inquiry it was discovered that he had forgotten to pay for it. He came hither from Philadelphia some time ago, and ever since the police have kept a vigilant eye on all his movements.

Important from the Provost Marshal.—The Provost Marshal of the 22d District has issued an appeal to the relatives of drafted men who have enlisted which will explain itself. I could earnestly urge upon the relatives and friends of drafted men, who find necessity dictated, the propriety of at once bringing evidence of the fact of enlistment to this office. I am required to publish the names of all drafted men who do not report, unless exempted, and they cannot be exempted on mere rumor without evidence. To avoid the insertion of the names of loyal soldiers in a list of skulkers I make this appeal. To avoid, as much as possible, the necessity of a supplementary draft, I also urge upon all loyal citizens the performance of their duty in aiding me in tracing out non-reporters.

Our lady readers will be happy to learn that Miss Alice Mowery will open as a Wholesale and Retail Millinery Store, on Wednesday, a large assortment of trimmings, hosiery, hoop skirts, corsets, balmoral skirts, &c., &c., at No. 52 Fourth street, next door to Reis's. She will have a large stock of the above goods constantly on hand, which for beauty and variety will not be surpassed in the city, and they will be sold at the lowest cash prices. Call and examine the stock at No. 52 Fourth street.

The Gunboat No. 35.—The gunboat Reindeer, No. 35 arrived here on Friday night. It was nearly three hours before it could approach the shore on account of the rough nature of the blow nearly all night. On the following morning it moved further into the stream, where it is now anchored. It is under the command of Capt. Rice, and as yet has not been appointed to any particular beat.

Theatre.—This is the last week during which Mr. Edwin Adams will appear on our stage. He will perform this evening in the beautiful play entitled the "Dead Heart," and no doubt will be greeted with a crowded audience. His visit to this city has secured for him a universal popularity, and he could not confer a greater favor upon the public than by prolonging his stay.

Snow.—The first snow of the season fell on Saturday. The flakes were nearly imperceptible, but notwithstanding this a great many were witnesses of the fact. Yesterday and we had a very slight fall of snow. The weather during the last few days has been rather cold, and if we may judge from appearances, we will have a very cold winter this season.

Musical Elixir.—We would direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. John Reichenbach, who has constantly on hand a large assortment of artificial limbs and crutches of every description. The best patent artificial leg in the United States, and the only one in Pittsburgh, can be found at 68 Fourth street, near Market.

A Bargain.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement headed "a bargain." The property is elegantly located in the town of Lawrenceville, and will be sold low. For further information call on D. A. McClelland, Auctioneer, No. 55 Fifth street.

Passed Through.—Company H, of the 1st Wisconsin heavy artillery passed through this city yesterday en route to Baltimore. On the preceding day the invalid soldiers arrived here on their way west.

Excursion.—Trains leave both depots Pennsylvania and Connellsville, this afternoon at one o'clock precisely for the sale of lots at Braddock's fields, as usual. See bills.

Secretary Stanton's War Bulletin

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, October 8.—Noon—To Gen. Dix: This Department has received the following reports of the enemy's assault yesterday on Gen. Butler's line, their subsequent repulse, and General Birney's brilliant action in driving the enemy to their inner line of intrenchments around Richmond.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA, October 7, 6:30 P. M.—Lieutenant General Grant: At six a. m., the enemy having moved Field's and Hawes' divisions from the left of Chapin's Farm Road to our right, at Darbytown Road, they attacked Kautz's cavalry in their entrenchments with spirit, and drove them back with a small loss of men, but with the loss of his artillery. The enemy suffered considerable loss in this attack.

The enemy then swept down the intrenchments towards Birney, who having thrown back his right, waited their assault, and repulsed it with very heavy loss on the part of the enemy. The enemy in the meantime advanced towards Newmarket, but were met by a force at the Signal Tower. At three o'clock in the afternoon I took the offensive, sending Birney, with two divisions up the Darbytown road, the enemy retreated as he advanced, and Birney has reached and occupied the intrenchments which the enemy took from Kautz and were fortifying for themselves. Our loss has been small, not one-eigth that of the enemy. We have about 100 prisoners.

[Signed] B. F. BUTLER,
Maj. Gen.

HEADQUARTERS 10TH ARMY CORPS, 10:15 a. m.—We have repulsed the attack of the enemy on our right flank with great slaughter. The troops seemed to be Field's and Pickett's division. I send you a batch of prisoners. I am extending my right flank. The enemy seem to be entrenching on the Darby road. (Signed,) D. B. BIRNEY,
Major-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF VIRGINIA AND N. CAROLINA, October 8—Lieutenant General Grant—General Birney has regained Gen. Kautz's old position, and holds the enemy in the inner line of entrenchments around Richmond, which extends from the Darby town road, and connects with the left of General Weitzel's position, near Fort Harrison. There has been no movement at Petersburg to-day. We have much the best of this day's work—one thousand at least of the enemy killed and wounded, one hundred prisoners and a bloody repulse. Gen. Gregg, commanding Field's division, is reported killed, by a lady who saw the body.

[Signed] B. F. BUTLER.

No dispatches have been received from the commands of Generals Sherman, Rosecrans or Sheridan later than were reported in my telegram of yesterday.

(Signed) E. M. STANTON,
Sec'y of War.

Latest News from Charleston.

NEW YORK, October 8.—At the last exchange of prisoners at Charleston, seventy packages of money, fifty packages of express matter, and two thousand suits of clothing, were delivered to the rebels to be distributed among the Union prisoners who have recently been removed from Andersonville, Georgia, to the vicinity of Charleston—about 10,000 in all. Some clothing for the rebel officers prisons on Morris Island, contributed by the Charlestonians, was brought back by Col. Woodford.

It is said that some eight hundred of the Union prisoners, owing to misrepresentation made to them by the rebels, have taken the oath of allegiance to the Davis Government and been liberated. About half of the number have been put to work in the shops of Charleston, and the other half are laboring on Sullivan's Island.

It was reported at Hilton Head that ten thousand invalid rebel prisoners were to arrive there shortly, to be exchanged for a like number of our men. Deserters from Charleston represent the southern people much discouraged by the Union victories. Almost as much interest is manifested there in our presidential election as at the North. Yellow fever is very prevalent in the city of Charleston.

Movements of Hood's Army.

NEW YORK, October 8.—The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist says information in reference to the change of position of Hood's army. The movement commenced on the 10th ult, and Hood's forces are said to be entrenched on the Macon and West Point Road, twenty or twenty-five miles from this location, near Jonesboro.

Governor Brown, of Georgia, has made a statement regarding the report of peace negotiations between himself and General Sherman. He says that General Sherman sent a proposal to him, through a private messenger, to visit Atlanta, and confer in reference to the withdrawal of Georgia from the Confederacy; but that the offer was rejected, and the reply returned that the faith of Georgia is pledged to her Southern sister States, and that she will not act in such an affair unless in concert with them.

A mass meeting of the Union prisoners confined at Savannah is represented to have been held on the 28th ult. at which a series of resolutions were adopted appealing to the President to take measure for their release.

Reports from Richmond.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A Herald's Tenth Corps correspondent, writing on the 5th, says: The situation on the northside remains unchanged. About the usual number of deserters come into our lines daily, giving about the usual report of affairs in the beleaguered capital of rebeldom. To-day we received tidings that in the excitement of last Thursday the family of Jeff Davis packed their small traps and started in haste southward.

The Richmond papers give even a gloomier picture of the consternation that prevailed there on our approach than any that have been previously received. The universal conscription was inexorable and impartial. Even the sick and wounded from their military hospitals—those who could walk—were compelled to go.

A large number of paymasters have just arrived, and are now paying off the corps. Many have not been paid for seven months.

The Battle at Alatoona.

CHATTANOOGA, October 7.—The rebels have disappeared from before Alatoona. Our victory there yesterday was complete. The rebel surgeons surrendered their hospitals into our hands, with from four to five hundred rebel wounded. Gen. Coosa was slightly wounded in the cheek; also Toustellette, of 4th Minnesota, in the left thigh. An enemy division attacked Alatoona. Lieutenant Amsden, 20th Wisconsin battery, lost a leg. General Broadly telegraphs from Bridgeport that the gunboat Gen. Thomas had arrived from Decatur, Alabama, with news that Forrest had been captured, and our forces are between him and the shoals, and he was falling back towards the river.

All quiet at the Front.

NEW YORK, October 8.—The Herald's 18th corps correspondent, writing under date of the 7th, says: As yet the quiet along the front has not been disturbed by either party. Nothing varies the monotony.

Supplement to Stanton's Dispatch.

The following seems to have been left out of Stanton's dispatch published yesterday evening: Satisfactory reports of the operations before Richmond have been received, but the details are not at present proper for publication. A dispatch from General Stevenson reports that an Engineer of General Sheridan's staff had just arrived. Gen. Sheridan was still at Harrisonburg. His supply trains were going on all right, occasionally interrupted by guerrillas, the only rebel force on the road. This officer brought in the remains of Lieutenant John R. Meigs, of the Engineer Corps, the only son of Brevet Major General Meigs, Q. M. G. He was killed by bushwhackers last Monday, while making a military survey. General Rosecrans reports that Gen. Ewing made good his retreat to Rolla, losing only a few stragglers, and those killed or wounded by the way were very few in number. From the number of the wounded rebels, the enemy's loss would not fall much short of 1,000 put hors du combat.

[Signed] E. M. STANTON, Sec. War.

Location of Poplar Spring Church.

NEW YORK, Oct 8.—Herald 5th Corps correspondent, writing on the 5th, says:—All quiet in the vicinity of Poplar Spring Church. The newspaper maps locate this place on the South side of the railroads, or very near there, and from the fact of our holding it, assume that we hold the Southside Railroad, or are so near doing it that rebel communication by this road is interrupted. Poplar Spring Church is about four miles this side of the Southside Road, and, although the road is more strongly threatened than heretofore from our present position, the enemy still hold the road and use it.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT.

The Advance on Richmond.

620 Prisoners Exchanged.

Reports from Richmond News.

Our Lines Within Four Miles of Richmond.

From the Shenandoah Valley

Country Infested with Guerrillas

The Late West Virginia Raid.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The Herald's army of the James correspondent, of the 7th, says, Col. Mulford has effected an exchange of 62 prisoners.

Refugees and deserters are continually coming into camp.

A 10th corps correspondent states that the movement of the rebels against our right flank was known at headquarters as soon as they left the streets of Richmond.

Richmond papers state that the Union lines now enclose many residences never before within hostile lines, and all details for civil or other service have been revoked. Every man, old and young, capable of carrying a gun is being dragged into the ranks.

The Richmond Examiner of the 6th, says, the enemy's position below Richmond is about 4½ from corporation limits, and about one and a half miles from our lines in that direction.

The correspondence from Sheridan's army is down to the 7th inst. The rebels advanced against our cavalry at Bridgewater and Waynesboro on the 2d, but a dashing charge drove them back. They also attacked our pickets near Mount Crawford, but were promptly repulsed. Powell's cavalry division was sent to occupy the Luray valley to anticipate a rebel flank movement by McNeal, a notorious guerrilla. He destroyed the bridge at Edenton and then proceeded towards Mount Jackson, met a Union force, and a skirmish ensued, in which he was mortally wounded and captured.

The country between Harrisonburg and Winchester is infested with guerrillas, and an escort with the body of Lieut. Meigs and a train with Congressman Kellogg were attacked, but the guerrillas were driven off.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 6th states that Early's advance is beyond Mount Crawford and the enemy retiring to Harrisonburg. The Yankees are in strong cavalry force at Rappahannock station rebuilding the railroad bridge, and it is intimated that Sheridan intends taking Gordonsville by suddenly withdrawing from Early's front. The rebuilding of the Rappahannock bridge is to furnish communication with the depot of supplies at Alexandria or Manassas.

The rebel Col Witcher has returned from the raid into West Virginia with 300 prisoners and horses and equipages. Besides 500 horses and 200 beef cattle, he destroyed one million dollars' worth of Yankee stores at six different towns. He sustained no loss.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 6th, favors the making of soldiers of negroes, and giving such their freedom if they escape the casualties of battle. It urges upon Congress to purchase 55,000 negroes and present them with their freedom, then arm, equip and fight them, neither negroes nor slavery be permitted to stand in the way of success to our cause in Virginia, after exhausting all her whites, will fight her blacks through to the last man.

Gen. Stoneman passed through Augusta to be exchanged.

More Guerrillas in Maryland.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Herald's Washington special, says, it has been officially decided that gas companies who have charged consumers the internal revenue tax, previous to June 30th last, have done so illegally.

On Thursday night a gang of guerrillas crossed into Maryland, at Sandy spring, 13 miles from Washington, and stole 1,300 dollars worth of property. Mr. Wall, of Baker's detectives pursued and recaptured the property, and an important mail for the south, and one prisoner. Walter Bowie, a notorious outlaw, was killed and another wounded.

Dispatch from President Lincoln.

PHILADELPHIA, October 9.—In consequence of a disaster to Grant's army published to-day, a dispatch was sent by the President and the following replied:

Washington, Oct. 9, 5:20 p. m.—To Gen. Simon Cameron, Philadelphia: There is no news here from the Army of the Potomac not published in Stanton's bulletin yesterday and before. The line is open, and mere business dispatches are passed over it. Have no alarm on bogus dispatches.

A. LINCOLN.

Stanton to Leave the Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Tribune's Washington special, says, Hon. W. P. Kellogg, just from Gen. Sheridan's army, reports our forces have gathered immense quantities of grain and forage, and supplies of every kind for man and beast.

Rumors are rife that Secretary Stanton is to leave the Cabinet.

FROM GEN. SHERIDAN.

Latest News from the Valley.

The Prize Steamer Chatham.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The Times' correspondent, with Sheridan says: Early had notices posted through the Valley when he moved forward to Harper's Ferry the last time, notifying the inhabitants that they must pay their taxes on or before the 1st of October. There is evidence on every hand showing that Early supposed that he should hold easy sway in the Valley even after he had been driven back to Fisher's Hill, and boasted that he would check the Yankees there soon and drive them back to Harper's Ferry.

On Friday, in the Prize Court at Philadelphia the suit to claim a portion of the cargo of the prize steamer Chatham was heard and dismissed. A loyal citizen of Georgia had turned Confederate money into cotten and put it on board of the Chatham to run the blockade. The decision was adverse to the claim, on the ground that no article of commerce can be passed out of a blockaded port without rendering it liable to confiscation.

NEWS FROM NEW YORK.

THE GOLD MARKET.

Prizes Captured by Admiral Lee.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The mail news of yesterday has checked the speculation price in gold. Large amounts in cash gold were offered in the gold room, with the effect of promptly pulling down the price, which opened at 203½, but subsequently sold at 197¾.

The Commercial's Washington special says: Rear Admiral Lee publishes a list of twenty-six prizes captured by his squadron. The Rear Admiral realized an immense fortune from these prizes, and the friends of Farragut, also have a chance to reap some of the spoils or close up Wilmington.

Large numbers of prisoners are daily brought in from the front to City Point.

Three hundred and six wounded were brought into Washington to-day, mostly from the fifth corps.

Nothing has yet been heard of the steamer Roanoke, now greatly overdue from Havana. Suspicions are entertained that she has been captured by a pirate.

Latest News from Charleston.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Charleston papers of the 29th say: The bombardment of the city since our last, has been unusually severe. The enemy has been firing from three guns in rapid succession during the 24 hours ending at 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening. Eighty-eight shots were reported fired at the city. A number of casualties occurred, mostly from firing bricks or splinters.

GLAD TIDINGS

FOR THE AFFLICTED!

GILSON'S

GENUINE MEDICINES.

The invention of the extract of

PAREIRA BRAVA,

After an experience of many years in private practice now offers it to the afflicted in a highly concentrated form.

What is Pareira Brava? 1688

It has, since 1688, been a remedy for

CALCULOUS AFFECTIONS,
INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS
DROPSY,
LEUCORRHŒA, and all diseases of
THE URINARY ORGANS.

It has been recommended by the Count of the Medical Profession for nearly two centuries The Fluid Extract of

PAREIRA BRAVA

Is now offered to the afflicted world in a shape

WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL.

For all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel or Dropsical Swelling, for which it is intended can cope with this compound in its power to literally

ANNIHILATE DISEASE.

All bad properties in the drug are removed by the process of its compounding in the shape of fluid, leaving its

STERLING PROPERTIES ALONE

Young men, who may be suffering from the many ills consequent upon early indiscretion or abuse, should try one bottle and be relieved. The symptoms are

INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION,
NERVOUS INDISPOSITION,
LOSS OF SIGHT,
WARM HANDS AND LIMBS,
FLUSHING OF SKIN,
GENERAL LASSITUDE.

By not arresting these signs, which as unerringly point as the needle to the pole, to Impotency, Epileptic Fits, Premature Decay, and Death, a crime against nature is committed, a practical although protracted SUICIDE is daily committed.

All medical authorities agree that were the effects of

EARLY INDISCRETION

Removed, that there would be little use for

Insane Asylums.

As the records of these humane institutions prove, this is very large proportion of their patients owe their reception and detention within them to early habits of indiscretion.

For all unpleasant and dangerous diseases

Gilson's Extract of Pareira Brava

Absolutely stops secret maladies, of no matter what length of standing.

No change of diet is required, no cessation from business.

Soldiers Home upon Furlough

And who may perhaps have unfortunately contracted diseases, will find the Extract of PAREIRA BRAVA the specific for their ills.

By its tonic and alterative action upon the Kidneys, it from the system all impurities, thereby removing obstructions, and securing the sufferer against all fear of re-attacks of the Urethra.

ERADICATES AND EXPELS
