PILES OF

TWENTY YEARS STANDING

CURED.

Below will be found a certificate from the one of most respectable citizens of Wilkins township in regard to Dr. Keyser's. Lindsay' Blood Searcher. The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER:—I became afflicted with Piles about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me for work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could do nothing account of them, they came on me as large as a hickory nut. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that fell in my way, but could not get cured, sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterwar they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors who visited me at my house and gave me some medicine but it would not do, I could not get well. Over a year ago saw an advertisement of your Lindsay's Blood-Searcher, made by yourself—when you sold it to me you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be renewed by the medicine before I got well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me and used it according to your directions. I then call ed to see you again, when you said I could n expect much benefit from one bottle. I bought it on, one bottle at a time, until I ha bottles. After this quantity had been used, I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortur me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years last. I have been well now for six months, and there is noappearance of a return of the disease; can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles coming down and hurting me. I can pitch hay, chop wood, lift, or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I found out your Blood-Searcher I kept on taking it until I got entirely well. I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was and do not know the value of your medicine. You may publish this if you like—I live in Wilkins Township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call

MANHOOD,

THIRD EDITION, FIFTY THOUSAND, 96 pages, cloth covers, by

Robert E. Bell, M. D.,

Member of the roya College of Surgeons, London, addressed to youth, the married and those

CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

Sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of ten cents. A careful perusal of this small book has been a boon to the afflicted, and has saved thousands from a life of misery and an untimely grave. It treats on the evils of Youthful Indiscretion, Self-Abuse, Seminal weakness, Emissions, Sexual Diseases, Genital Debility, Loss of Power, Nervousness, Premature Decay, Impotence, &c., &c., which unfit the sufferer from fulfilling the OBLIGATIONS OF MARRIAGE, and illustrates the means of cure by the use of

and other treatment necessary in some cases, and which never fails to cure, and can be relied on. They do not nauseate the stomach, or render the breath offensive, and they can be USED WITHOUT DETECTION.

They do not interfere with business pursuits, and are speedy in action. No change of diet is necessary. They are warranted in all cases to be effectual in removing and curing the disease. Upwards of two thousand cases are on record that have been cured by using BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS, and certificates can be shown from many that have used them.

No Case of Failure Occurs.

Upwards of a Hundred Physicians use them extensively in their practice, and they cannot effect cures without them.

IMPORTANT NOTICE,

BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS

Are the original and only genuine Specific Pills There are a host of imitators—BEWARE OF THEM.

These are Warranted.

They are adapted for male or female, old or young, and are the only reliable remedy known for the cure of all diseases arising from

YOUTHFUL INDISCRETION.

In all Sexual Diseases, as Gonorrhea, Stricture, Gleet, and in all Urinary and Kidney complaints,

They Act Like a Charm!

Relief is experienced by taking a single box; and from four to six boxes generally effect a cure.

Sold by Druggists generally, in boxes containing six pills, price $1 or six boxes, $5; also in large boxes, containing four of the small, price $3.

If you need the Book, or the Pills, cut out this advertisement for reference; and if you cannot procure them of your druggist, do not be imposed upon by any other remedy, but enclose the money in a letter to the proprietor, who will take all risk if properly directed, and will send the Pills, secured from observation, by return mail, post Paid.

DR. J. BRYAN, Box 5079,

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose they would not let one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Hall and M. Paul Ricord devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable aldrogher, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my general success; but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhœa and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. STRONG INDORSEMENT

Of the Most Eminent Pianists.

The most eminent of the musical profession of New York city, after frequent and thorough trials of my New Scale Piano Fortes, have given me the most emphatic and unqualified testimonials. The following is a specimen of the voluntary testimony I am constantly receiving from gentlemen entirely disinterested, and as all will acknowledge most thoroughly qualified to judge of the merits of a Piano Forte:

"We have examined with much care Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO FORTES, and it is our opinion that, in power, purity, richness, quality of tone, and thorough workmanship Mr. Bradbury's instrument's excel. "We find great brilliancy and a beautiful singing quality of tone most happily blended. We have rarely seen a square Piano Forte combining so many of these qualities essential to a perfect instrument." Signed,

Smith's Wheeling Brewery for Sale.

BEING DESIROUS OF RETIRING from active business, I am determined to dispose of my old established "Wheeling Brewery" and Malting Establishment, in succesful operation, together with the stock on hand, which is sufficient to enable a purchaser to proceed with the business without interruption, consisting in part of

Ales, Malt Hops, Barrels, Cooper's Stuff, Teams and Fixtures,

Everything in complete order and capable of brewing twenty thousand barrels of ale and malting forty thousand bushels of barley per season. The buildings comprise the large brick Brewery, with the cellar and vaults complete, and Malt House, brick Cooper's Shop, capable of turning out one hundred barrels per week, seven dwellings for employees, realizing an annual rent of five hundred dollars, large stable, keg room, wash house and office, all lighted with gas manufactured on the premises.

The old established reputation of my Ales and Malt in the East, West and South, and the regular cash customers for all I have been able to manufacture, with the increasing demand for malt liquors, makes it one of the most desirable opportunities that could be offered to a reliable party to engage in the business with a certain prospect of realizing a fortune in a few years.

TERMS OF SALE—As to real estate, one-fourth cash, the balance in one, two and three years, with interest secured by mortgage on the premises. As to personal property, one-fourth cash, the balance in three, six and nine months.

TO THE PEOPLE.

Address of the National Democratic Committee.

THE PERILS OF THE NATION.

Usurpations of the Administration in Maryland and Tennessee.

THE REMEDY TO BE USED.

&c., &c., &c.

To the People of the United States:

The Democratic National Committee of the United States hold it to be their duty to call the attention of their fellow-countrymen without distinction of party, to certain grave acts of usurpation and wrong now practiced upon the citizens of Maryland and of Tennessee, but involving the dearest rights of all the people in all the states; and the very existence of those constitutional remedies against executive wrong doing which have heretofore saved this nation from the convulsions through which popular liberty in other lands has been forced to assert, to maintain, and to extend its guarantees.

In the state of Maryland, on the 20th day of September, the Evening Post, a journal printed in the city of Baltimore, which had that day for the first time published the electoral ticket of the Democratic party of that state, was suppressed by the following order of Major General Wallace, commanding the U. S. troops in that city:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY CORPS, BALTIMORE, Sept. 20.

Editors of Evening Post:

As the surest means of preventing your office being made the subject of violence you will discontinue the publication of your paper, the Evening Post.

The sole pretext for this order was the assertion that several soldiers were subject to the command of Major General Wallace intended to create a riot in the streets of Baltimore and to destroy the property of the suppressed journal on account of a statement upon its bulletin-board, announcing as an item of news "a fearful riot in Cincinnati, "during which a Lincoln club procession from "Kentucky fired upon the citizens, men, women, "and children, several being killed and wounded."

Such a pretext for such an order is so manifestly disgraceful to the military officer who in issuing it confessed his inability to restrain soldiers of the national service from acts at once of military insubordination and of civil outrage, that it is impossible to believe he could have been continued as he since has been in his command by the President of the United States, had not the suppression of the Evening Post, which was the only Democratic journal published in Baltimore, been designed by the executive for the express purpose of depriving the political opponents of the existing administration in that city of their sole means of advocating their opinions; and even of disseminating the information necessary to guide the voters of their party to intelligent action at the polls.

Maryland is a loyal state. To her fidelity President Lincoln in his message to Congress on the 20th of December, 1861, bears this emphatic witness: "Her bridges and railroads are repaired and open to the government; she already gives seven regiments to the cause of the Union and none to the enemy; and her people at a regular election have sustained the Union by a larger majority and a larger aggregate vote than they ever before gave to any candidate on any question."

No enemy now treads her soil. The victorious advance of Sheridan has cleared even her furthest borders of all rebels in arms. Her people are as fully entitled to absolute freedom at the polls and in the discussion of all political questions as the people of Massachusetts or New York.

To sanction an act by which they are shamelessly deprived of this freedom is a deliberate assumption by the executive of his intention to perpetuate his authority by any exercise of arbitrary power in contempt of the popular will and in violation of all the laws by which liberty in America has been hitherto protected.

All doubt as to the meaning of this conduct of the executive in Maryland is put at an end by the simultaneous occurrence in the state of Tennessee of an act equally lawless, and equally eloquent of a settled purpose to retain the control of the resources and destinies of the people by means foreign to our institutions and fatal to our liberties.

On the 20th day of September, Andrew Johnson, a Brigadier General of volunteers, holding by appointment of the President the office unknown to our laws, of military Governor of Tennessee, and by the nomination of the Republican party, a candidate for the Vice Presidency of the Union, issued a military order, commanding an election for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency to be held in that State, and prescribing arbitrary qualifications for voters at the election. This order is based on the proceedings of a political meeting which the military governor treats as a free convention of the people, absolutely subjected by the will of Mr. Lincoln to his authority, and it the following oath is prescribed to be taken at the polls.

"I solemnly swear, that I will henceforth support the Constitution of the United States, and defend it against the assaults of its enemies; that I am an active friend of the Government of the United States, and an enemy of the so-called Confederate States; that I ardently desire the suppression of the rebellion against the Government of the United States; that I sincerely rejoice in the triumph of the armies and navies of the United States, and in the defeat and overthrow of the armies, navies, and of all armed combinations in the interest of the so-called Confederate States; that I will cordially oppose all armistice, or negotiations for peace with rebels in arms until the Constitution of the United States and all laws and proclamations made in pursuance thereof shall be established over all the people of every State and territory embraced within the national Union, and that I will heartily aid and assist the loyal people in whatever measures may be adopted for the attainment of those ends."

This oath is directly intended to deprive all loyal citizens of Tennessee who may be constitutionally entitled to vote at all, of their right to support at the polls any policy for the suppression of the existing rebellion, save that which is advocated by Mr. Lincoln, by Mr. Johnson, and by the party sustaining them. That policy repudiates any issue of the war now waging, save the subjugation of the States in rebellion and the abolition by the federal power of the institution of slavery, and utterly forbids all negotiation, not only with the so called republic of the Confederate States but with any single State, while a soldier remains in arms against the Union. The oath prescribed by the Republican candidate for the Vice Presidency to the loyal citizens of Tennessee requires of them an absolute adhesion to this policy of his own party as the condition of their exercise of the most sacred right of citizenship. In other words, this oath commands every loyal citizen of Tennessee to vote for the Republican candidate or to abstain from the polls. Under the operation of this oath, any citizen who holds such views of the policy proper to be pursued toward the States in rebellion, as those put forth, for example by the Hon. Charles Francis Adams, actually minister of the United States in London, would be disfranchised by the bayonets of the Executive in Tennessee.

"For one" said Mr. Adams in the House of Representatives, January 21, 1801, "I am not yet ready to take the responsibility of absolutely closing the door of reconciliation. I cannot persuade myself to forget the warnings that have descended to us from many of the wisest and best statesmen of all time against this rigid and haughty mode of treating great discontents. I cannot overlook the fact that in the days of our fathers the imperious spirit of Chatham did not feel itself sacrificing any of its proud dignity by proposing to listen to their grievances, and even to concede every reasonable demand, long after they had placed themselves in open resistance to all the power of Great Britain. Had George III listened to his words of wisdom, he might have saved the brightest jewel of his crown.

"He took the opposite course. He denied the existence of grievances. He rejected the olive branch. History records its verdict in favor of Chatham, and against the King."

Hundreds of thousands of citizens of the Union, without distinction of party, animated by a similar spirit, and drawing a like instruction from the lessons of history, believe will General McClellan, in his letter accepting the presidential nomination, that

So soon as it is clear or even probable that our present adversaries are ready for peace upon the basis of the Union, we should exhaust all the resources of statesmanship practiced by civilized nations and taught by the traditions of the American people, consistent with the honor and interests of the country to secure such peace, re-establish the Union, and guarantee for the future the constitutional rights of every state. The Union is the one condition of peace, we ask no more.

All such citizens are outlawed in Tennessee by the arbitrary will of the Republican candidate for the vice presidency, nor will any man be suffered by him to do the highest duty to a freeman unless he is ready to accept a part by which, substantially recognizes the public of the Confederate States, by refusing to the several states now unhappily leagued together under that name the right of returning to, and of making peace with, their sister states of the Union.

Such is the necessary effect of this unprecedented course of the "military governor" of Tennessee, a course of which, in the words applied by two distinguished members of the Republican party, Senator Wade, of Ohio, and Representative Davis, of Maryland, to the conduct of President Lincoln in nullifying one of the military governments "or for the State of Louisiana," it may be said is "without authority of law, and therefore void," a "blow at the rights of humanity and at the principles of republican government." Such a course the President has taken, for he has sanctioned the course of Governor General Wallace in Maryland in not again forgetting to "use the words of the same distinguished Republicans, his obligation to confine himself to his executive duties, to obey and execute, not make the laws, to suppress by arms armed rebellion, and leave political reorganization to Congress."

"If the supporters of the government" Senator Wade and Representative Davis go on to say, "fail to insist on this, they become responsible for the usurpations which they fail to rebuke, and are finally liable to the indignation of the people whose rights and security committed to their keeping they sacrifice."

To this plain speaking of men eminent in the Republican party we might well content our
