FOR PRESIDENT.

GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN, OF NEW JERSEY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

GEORGE H. PENDLETON, OF OHIO.

THE LATE ELECTIONS.

As it was before the late elections so it is now. The present Presidential contest with lying, and it is determined to stick to it until its termination.

The Capture of Nankin.

The following intelligence is taken from the Overseas Chinese Mail of the 13th of August.

In our last issue we stated that preparations were being made for the successful attack of Nankin, and we have now to report that the city was taken by the Imperialists on the 10th of August.

What our party needed was confidence in their numbers; that confidence has been given them by the result of last Tuesday's voting.

As regards the election in Ohio and Indiana, the story of Illinois is easily told. In the first we have reduced their majority according to Abolition showing.

THE GYRONS ON THE STUMP.

Under this caption the Pittsburgh Courier, yesterday, thought it worth while to conduct the defense of a couple of Gyrans, who during the late political canvass rendered themselves notorious by their political preaching.

So, we would advise them to keep the Gazette from alluding to them hereafter; its defense of their course only renders them more ridiculous.

As an instance we select the following paragraph from the article in question.

"In the days of the Revolution, Gyrans were not admitted to lift up their voices on the side of Liberty and Humanity, their aid was desired to be cruel, we would repeat some of the diabolical marks alluded to, merely to contrast their authors, with Washington, and his co-partisans of the revolution.

We forsook Washington and his contemporaries were in genuine pique and patriotism as far above such vulgar stumpers as those alluded to, as the sun is above the earth; and it is an insult to the memory of the illustrious dead to mention them in connection with vulgar preachers who prostitute religion in order to play politicians.

"We are not that the Gyrans may be between parties, we insist that the clergyman who takes the stump and deals in the lowest and most vulgar of political cant is a work in sheet order to play politicians.

"We are not that the Gyrans may be between parties, we insist that the clergyman who takes the stump and deals in the lowest and most vulgar of political cant is a work in sheet order to play politicians.

Rev. Sir—May I respectfully, and in the spirit of Christian meekness, request that you will through the Post favor me with answers to the following questions?

1st. How would you explain, to the pupils of your Sabbath School, your meaning when you say 'I have heard of a day with an infinite number of years'?

2d. Why, 'as minister of the gospel,' do you consider a certain 'Mr. K.' as one of your 'brethren,' and carelessly a thing and not a person?

3d. Why do you think the name 'K.' is not to be mentioned in your explanation, would you separate the sexes, or do you think it would sharpen their appetite for knowledge, to give it to them 'contaminated'?

Please observe, sir, that I do not want to know your opinion, I only want to know what you would explain and illustrate to a Sabbath school pupil, for I am in the habit of meeting with a few of them who are always sure to ask me the meaning of the words which they hear, or know the minister to say, provided they do not clearly comprehend it; and as you will not explain, it is to be allowed to see the Post, I am afraid they may require me to tell them your meaning. This I confess, would be a great deal to ask of any minister, but because I do not know how to make it food for babes—Seeing you would not do it, I have 'taught,' and so forth, 'both in season, and out of season,' I feel confident that, 'after asking Divine guidance,' you will be able to do so, and I will be glad to do so, if you will do me the honor to do so, through the Post, you will do much good to some of the 'unfortunate' of our fellow-citizens by setting your light on fire, and in that dark sheet. If you have given your method of explaining, you will be glad to do so, through the Post, you will do much good to some of the 'unfortunate' of our fellow-citizens by setting your light on fire, and in that dark sheet.

COLONEL ROBERT OULD, the rebel commander, for exchange, had a narrow escape from being captured on Monday instant.

Indeed, it was thought at one time that he could not possibly be saved, but passing from the rebel camp, he was seen by a Union steamer, and he was rescued by the 'gang plank,' one end of which, it appears, rested on the edge of the boat, gave way, and precipitated Colonel Ould into deep water. He immediately sunk and rose, but too much time was consumed in rendering him assistance, and he was at last saved only by dint of greatest exertion.—N. Y. Herald Army Co.

ARREST OF CLERGS CHANGED WITH FRANKLIN.—On Thursday afternoon of last week, Col. Woolley's detectives, arrested Wm. P. Lowrey, Frank H. Scott, and Peter Dunsch, upon charges of a very serious character. They were all clerks in the Quartermaster's Department, (at Baltimore), and were arrested at the instance of Col. R. M. Newport, Quartermaster of the Department. They are charged with defrauding the Government. The facts of the case are for the present withheld from publication. Col. Woolley committed them all to jail, to be confined in different apartments, until their trial takes place.—Sun.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED.—The steamer Roanoke, Captain Drew, from Havana, arrived here on the 20th of last month. We learn from a reliable person on board the steamer Havana, which has arrived here from Havana, that at the time the Roanoke sailed her captain was notified that among her passengers, thirty-five in number, were some notorious scoundrels, but he said he was prepared for any emergency. We hope her delay may be caused by some derangement of the machinery, but he said he was prepared for any emergency. MARRIED.—ZUG-BREED—On Wednesday evening, the 10th inst., by Rev. Herbert Johnson, CHAPMAN, H. ZUG and SARAH BREED.

DIED.—SILAND—On Thursday morning, at 11 o'clock, JOHN SILAND, aged 65 years, at his residence, corner Leacock street and Canal Alley, on Friday afternoon, at 1 o'clock. The friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

LOOK ON THIS PICTURE.—To seek to make a difference between government and administration, is to seek to make a difference where none exists.—Rev. James Prentiss's Allegorical Address, via Pittsburgh Gazette of the 10th.

THEN ON THIS.—In this country, especially, it is a habit not only to quarrel with the constitution, but even essential to its stability, to regard the Administration at any time existing as distinct and separate from the constitution itself, and to carry the proceedings of the one without a thought of disloyalty to the other.

One Tribe of the Circassians Still Holding Out.—A letter from Trebizond, in the Paris Moniteur, says: "The Circassians which have taken refuge in a high mountain behind Goula still holds out in its resistance against the Russian troops. The number of families which have retreated there is estimated at five hundred. Encounters take place constantly, and although the Circassians are six thousand men, the Russians have so far always been defeated. A serious attack was made on the 20th of August, but it was repulsed with such energy that two hundred of the enemy, including a colonel, a major, and several other officers were killed or wounded. To resist the progress of the Circassians erect with much skill immense piles of stone, of a large size, and which they have covered with brushwood, and that if they are to-day at the point of the mountain, they will be able to resist the progress of the Russian troops. The chief of the important tribe of the Caucasus, who possesses considerable property and immense flocks, has lately been captured by the Russian troops. He is now in the hands of the Russian troops. He is now in the hands of the Russian troops. He is now in the hands of the Russian troops.

SHRINKAGE OF FORTUNES.—Speaking of the effects of the recent inflation and the prospective return to gold values, the Journal of Commerce says: "The shrinkage of fortunes in the last two years has been enormous. The value of property has fallen to one-half of what it was in 1862. The value of property has fallen to one-half of what it was in 1862. The value of property has fallen to one-half of what it was in 1862.

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND.—For over five years, Royal Holloway's LITTLE'S (LITTLE'S) has been proving itself the only medicine able to cure the worst cases of Dyspepsia, Stomach, and Bowel Complaints, and all the various ailments of the Digestive System. It is a true friend to the Soldier, and a true friend to the Soldier.

THE HANNOVER AND THE VIGOR.—The Vigor is a true friend to the Soldier, and a true friend to the Soldier. It is a true friend to the Soldier, and a true friend to the Soldier. It is a true friend to the Soldier, and a true friend to the Soldier.
