GLAD NEWS FOR THE UNFORTUNATE!!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST!

Cures in from one to three days.

CHEROKEE REMEDY,
AND
CHEROKEE INJECTION

Compounded from Roots, Barks and Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such a Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of th Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in th Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhea, an is especially recommended in those cases of Fluo Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nau seous medicines have failed.

☞ It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day.

☞ It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞ By the use of the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

☞ Price Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

☞ Price Cherokee Injection, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

☞ Sent by Express to any address on receipt of price.

☞ The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure, are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these; those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. If you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines, and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Post Office, County, State, and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send, our 32 page Pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlet or advice to the proprietors,

MANHOOD.

THIRD EDITION, FIFTY THOUSAND, 96 pages, cloth covers, by

Robert E. Bell, M. D.,

Member of the royal College of Surgeons, London, addressed to youth, the married and those

CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

Sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of ten cents. A careful perusal of this small book has been a boon to the afflicted, and has saved thousands from a life of misery and an untimely grave. It treats on the evils of Youthful Indiscretion, Self-Abuse, Seminal weakness, Emissions, Sexual Diseases, Genital Debility, Loss of Power, Nervousness, Premature Decay, Impotence, &c., &c., which unfit the sufferer from fulfilling the OBLIGATIONS OF MARRIAGE and illustrates the means of cure by the use of

DR. BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS,

and other treatment necessary in some cases, and which never fails to cure, and can be relied on. They do not nauseate the stomach or render the breath offensive, and they can be USED WITHOUT DETECTION.

They do not interfere with business pursuits, and are speedy in action. No change of diet is necessary. They are warranted in all cases to be effectual in removing and curing the disease. Upwards of two thousand cases are on record that have been cured by using BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS, and certificates can be shown from many that have used them.

No Case of Failure Occurs.

Upwards of a Hundred Physicians use them extensively in their practice, and they cannot effect cures without them.

IMPORTANT NOTICE,

BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS

Are the original and only genuine Specific Pills. There are a host of imitators—BEWARE OF THEM.

These are Warranted.

They are adapted for male or female, old or young, and are the only reliable remedy known for the cure of all diseases arising from

YOUTHFUL INDISCRETION.

In all Sexual Diseases, as Gonorrhœa, Stricture, Gleet, and in all Urinary and Kidney complaints,

They Act Like a Charm!

Relief is experienced by taking a single box; and from four to six boxes generally effect a cure.

Sold by Druggists generally, in boxes containing six pills, price $1 or six boxes, $5; also in large boxes, containing four of the small, price $3.

If you need the Book, or the Pills, cut out this advertisement or reference, and if you cannot procure them of your druggist, do not be imposed upon by any other remedy, but enclose the money in a letter to who will take all risk if properly directed, and will send the Pills, secured from observation, by return mail, post Paid.

DR. J. BRYAN, BOX 629,
76 Ceder Street, N. Y.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the disease named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they are no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these self-righteous. I suppose that would like to see one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Ball and M. Paul Ricord devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men have held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my general success: but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhœa and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answering than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. Two Gold Medals and one Silver Medal.

STRONG INDORSEMENT

Of the Most Eminent Pianists.

The most eminent of the musical profession of New York city, after frequent and thorough trials of my New Scale Piano Fortes, have given me the most emphatic and unqualified testimonials. The following is a specimen of the voluntary testimony I am constantly receiving from gentlemen entirely disinterested, and as all will acknowledge most thoroughly qualified to judge of the merits of a Piano Forte.

"We have examined with much care, Mr. WM B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO FORTES, and it is our opinion that, in power, purity, richness, quality of tone, and thorough workmanship Mr. Bradbury's instruments excel. We find great brilliancy and a beautiful singing quality of tone most happily blended We have rarely seen a square Piano Forte combining so many of these qualities essential to a perfect instrument." Smith's Wheeling Brewery for Sale.

BEING DESIROUS OF RETIRING FROM ACTIVE BUSINESS, I have determined to dispose of my well established "Wheeling Brewery" and Malting Establishment, now in successful operation, together with the stock on hand, which is sufficient to enable a purchaser to proceed with the business without interruption, consisting in part of

Ales, Malt Hops, Barrels, Cooper's Stuff, Teams and Fixtures,

Everything in complete order and capable of brewing twenty thousand barrels of ale and malting forty thousand bushels of barley per season. The buildings comprise the large brick Brewery, with the cellar and vaults complete, and Malt House, brick Cooper's Shop, capable of turning out one hundred barrels per week, seven dwellings for employers, realizing an annual rent of five hundred dollars, large engine, bag room, wash house and office, all lighted with gas manufactured on the premises.

The old established reputation of my Ales and Malt in the East, West and South, and the regular cash customers for all I have been able to manufacture, with the increasing demand for malt liquors, makes it one of the most desirable opportunities that could be offered to a reliable party to engage in the business with a certain prospect of realizing a fortune in a few years.

TERMS OF SALE—As to real estate, one-fourth cash, the balance in one, two and three years, with interest secured by mortgage on the premises. As to personal property, one-fourth cash, the balance in three, six and nine months.

If not disposed of at private sale before the twentieth of October, of which due notice will be given in the papers containing this advertisement, I will then on that day offer the same at public auction.

John Van Buren in Philadelphia.

HE SPEAKS AT THE KEYSTONE CLUB'S HALL

What the Administration has Done.

MR. LINCOLN'S PLAN.

John Van Buren, of New York, addressed a crowded house at the headquarters of the Keystone State. Mr. Tatlow Jackson introduced the distinguished orator, who spoke as follows:

Mr. Van Buren commenced his remarks by adverting to the political situation of the hour, and the choice presented to the people of supporting either Abraham Lincoln or General McClellan. At the commencement of the war we were called upon to sustain the legal head of the Government. The contest was between the legitimate head of the Government, and those who sought to overthrow the authority of the Union and the Constitution. In common with others of the Democratic party, Mr. Van Buren felt called upon to urge the people, whatever their views regarding the policy of the Government, not to withhold their support from the legal authorities of the nation, or the prosecution of the war in which we were engaged. At the same time that the Democratic party gave an entire and unhesitating support to the Government, it could not but observe the departure of that Government from the strict constitutional laws of the country, and its disregard of the pure principles of liberty, save with deep regret and intense indignation. [Applause.] The policy of the Government was so unwise that at the commencement of the war, with the armed rebellion in front, and the deep dissatisfaction at the measures of the President in their flank and rear, it seemed hardly possible that the Administration could ride over the sea of difficulties that surrounded it and reach the end that is now happily legitimately approaching. At that time it was supposed by many that the Presidential term would expire before we could properly discuss the actions of the President of the United States. And now to use the language of his letter to Mr. Blair, "the time has come." [Laughter.] We are engaged in a war that has lasted for some three years and a half. It has imposed upon the country an enormous debt. It has been destructive of life, and it is still raging, and promises to rage for an indefinite period. It is idle, under such circumstances, therefore, to advert to any other question. The questions that now press upon the mind are: Is the continuance of the war at the present time, and had it been, a matter of necessity? Is it prosecuted with ability, vigor and patriotism? Is there a promise that it will be so in future by the existing authorities? Are they competent to negotiate a peace? The charge is now laid upon the Administration that the war has been unnecessarily protracted for partizan and political purposes by the furtherance of electioneering schemes and through gross incapacity. [Applause.] When the President came into power we had a debt of $65,000,000. The Secretary of the Treasury apprises us now that we have a debt of $2,000,000,000, and if the facts were truly stated, and the legitimate claims upon the Treasury recognized, and the unpaid creditors of the Government satisfied, the debt would probably reach $400,000,000,000. Added to that, in every county and township there is an enormous accumulation of debt, necessary, it may be, for bounties to volunteers and for various expenses incident to the war, indispensable for the purposes of county and State taxation. We have a war raging that is costing us some three and a half millions of dollars a day; we have an army of men under pay, and the people out of their humble means are called upon to support them. For the last three years the war debt has accumulated at the rate of one thousand millions a year, and there is a probability unless there is a change of administration, that it will accumulate rapidly as that for the future. Now, the people should remember that the war has been prosecuted without ability and without vigor. They should remember that politics and not patriotism has been the destructive feature of the war, and we all should remember that the prosecution of war and this accumulation of debt lies at the door of a party that has presented itself to us for at least another four years of power. [Great Applause.]

The war has been conducted with a disregard of advice given to the Administration at its outset. About the first of March, General Scott wrote to President Lincoln, and told him that it would require 250,000 men to prosecute the war. Was the slightest attention paid to that? No! 75,000 men were called out. The riot act was read in the South. [Great laughter.] They were told to disperse; go home and mind their own business. [Renewed laughter.] The South said it would blow out the brains of any man who dared to read the riot act. The President declared that nobody was hurt. [Cries of "Seward on the bank of the Mississippi, comfortably reading the riot act!"] [Great merriment.] Mr. Van Buren: I was afraid at the time that my fears have been realized by the event. [Great laughter.] Public opinion says that he is about to swap Stanton for Banks, [more laughter]; but nobody has yet been found who considers himself small enough to be swapped for Stanton. [Roars of laughter.] What else has the President done in regard to war? At the outbreak of hostilities there was substantially but one opinion in reference to the necessity of putting down the rebellion. The people everywhere decided that the Government must be upheld and the Union preserved. But they changed, and why? The President by his proclamation divided the North and united the South. His measures and policy created disunionism at the South, exasperated and divided the entire North. [Cheers.] When the armies would work out a victory and the people would begin to have a feeling of confidence in the Union and the Government, the President would order the arrest of some one in the North, and his subordinates would enter a citizen's house, drag him from his bed, on the decision of a court martial, would sentence him to be banished from the country. All this exasperated the North. All this tended to prolong the war, and at the same time produced division and distress here. Then confiscation acts were passed and enforced at times upon men who were as loyal as those who were in the President's armies. And all this was not the exercise of wise policy on the part of the President, and tended only to exasperate where there should have been healing. All this business of arresting was confined to Democrats. There was not a single instance of a military arrest where the individual was a Republican. The Republicans said what they pleased about the President, but whoever heard of arresting one of them? Fremont denounced the President more strongly than any Democrat ever did, and in his letter of acceptance he arraigned the President in language as succinct and unanswerable as any Democrat in the land could do, but when was Fremont arrested? [Applause.]

Through the whole of the war, Mr. Lincoln has manifested a want of capacity. The President of the United States should not be a military man, but he should either be a military man, or be conscious of his own ignorance, enough to defer to those whose experience, and skill, and power, enable them to conduct military operations. Mr. Lincoln had a plan of his own for taking Richmond. He wrote to General McClellan on the 3d of February, 1862:

MAJOR GENERAL MCCLELLAN:

Dear Sir:—You and I have distinct and different plans for the movement of the Army of the Potomac. Yours to be done by the Chesapeake, up the Rappahannock to Urbana, across, and to the terminus of the railroad on the York River; mine to move directly to a point on the railroad south-west of Manassas. [Laughter.]

If you will give me satisfactory answers to the following questions, I will gladly yield my plan to yours. [Laughter.]

1st. Does not the enemy's force greatly larger than yours at present?

2d. Will not the enemy be reinforced by a part of the force now before Charleston, and open the railroad to Richmond, before you can get to Richmond by the route you propose?
