GLAD NEWS FOR THE UNFORTUNATES!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST!

Cures in from one to three days.

CHEROKEE REMEDY,

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION

Compounded from Roots, Barks and Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such a Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of th Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in th Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, an is especially recommended in those cases of Fluo Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nav s ous medicines have failed.

☞ It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day.

☞ It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet Fluor Albus, or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is also experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞ By the use of the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

☞ Price Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

☞ Price Cherokee Injection, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

☞ Sent by Express to any address on receipt of price.

☞ The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection and Cherokee Cure, are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these; those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no other. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully, and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Post Office, County, State, and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page Pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlet or advice to the proprietors,

MEDICAL.

MANHOOD:

THIRD EDITION, FIFTY THOUSAND, 96 pages, cloth covers, by

Robert E. Bell, M. D.,

Member of the roya College of Surgeons, London, addressed to youth, the married and those

CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

Sent by mail postpaid, on receipt of ten cents. A careful perusal of this small book has been a boon to the afflicted, and has saved thousands from a life of misery and an untimely grave. It treats on the evils of Youthful Indiscretion, Self-Abuse, Seminal weakness, Emissions, Sexual Diseases, Genital Debility, Loss of Power, Nervousness, Premature Decay, Impotence, &c., &c., which unfit the sufferer from fulfilling the OBLIGATIONS OF MARRIAGE, and illustrates the means of cure by the use of

DR. BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS,

and other treatment necessary in some cases, and which never fails to cure, and can be relied on. They do not nauseate the stomach, or render the breath offensive, and they can be USED WITHOUT DETECTION.

They do not interfere with business pursuits, and are speedy in action. No change of diet is necessary. They are warranted in all cases to be effectual in removing and curing the disease. Upwards of two thousand cases are on record that have been cured by using BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS, and certificates can be shown from many that have used them.

No Case of Failure Occurs.

Upwards of a Hundred Physicians use them extensively in their practice, and they cannot effect cures without them.

IMPORTANT NOTICE,

BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS

Are the original and only genuine Specific Pills There are a host of imitators—BEWARE OF THEM.

These are Warranted.

They are adapted for male or female, old or young, and are the only reliable remedy known for the cure of all diseases arising from

YOUTHFUL INDISCRETION.

In all Sexual Diseases, as Gonorrhea, Stricture, Gleet, and in all Urinary and Kidney complaints,

They Act Like a Charm!

Relief is experienced by taking a single box; and from four to six boxes generally effect a cure.

Sold by Druggists generally, in boxes containing six pills, price $1 or six boxes, $5; also in large boxes, containing four of the small, price $3.

If you need the Book, or the Pills, cut out this advertisement for reference, and if you cannot procure them of your druggist, do not be imposed upon by any other remedy, but enclose the money in a letter to the proprietor,

DR. J. BELL,
No. 673
76 Ueder Street, N. Y.

who will take all risk if properly directed, and will send the Pills, secured from observation, by return mail, post Paid.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians who advertise, and treat the diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat these cases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose they would rather let one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Many have not heard but Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Ball and M. Paul Ricord devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world. I dare assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely deaths. My treatment is confined to the vegetable kingdom, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my generous success; but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhœa and all disease arising from it cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are issued on the papers and with the hand no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. Two Gold Medals and one Silver Medal.

STRONG INDORSEMENT

Of the Most Eminent Pianists.

The most eminent of the musical profession of New York city, after frequent and thorough trials of my New Scale Piano Fortes, have given me the most emphatic and unqualified testimonials. The following is a specimen of the voluntary testimony I am constantly receiving from gentlemen entirely disinterested, and as all will acknowledge most thoroughly qualified to judge of the merits of a Piano Forte.

"We have examined with much care, Mr. WM B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO FORTES, and it is our opinion that, in power, purity, richness, quality of tone, and thorough workmanship Mr. Bradbury's instruments excel. We find great brilliancy and a beautiful singing quality of tone most happily blended. We have rarely seen a square Piano Forte combining so many of these qualities essential to a perfect instrument."

BEING DESIROUS OF RETIRING FROM ACTIVE BUSINESS, I have determined to dispose of my old established Wheeling Brewery and Malting Establishment, now in successful operation, together with the stock on hand, which is sufficient to enable a purchaser to proceed with the business without interruption, consisting in part of

Ales, Malt Hops, Barrels, Cooper's Stuff, Teams and Fixtures,

Everything in complete order and capable of brewing twenty thousand barrels of ale and malting forty thousand bushels of barley per season. The buildings comprise the large brick Brewery, with the cellar and vaults complete, and Malt House, brick Cooper's Shop, capable of turning out one hundred Barrels per week, seven dwellings for employers, realizing an annual rent of five hundred dollars, large stable, ice room, wash house and offices, all located with the manufactory on the premises.

The old established reputation of my Ales and Malt in the East, West and South, and the regular cash customers for all I have been able to manufacture, with the increasing demand for such liquors, make it one of the most desirable opportunities that could be offered to a reliable party to engage in the business with a certain prospect of realizing a fortune in a few years.

THE PADUCAH INVESTIGATING COMMISSION.

Executions Without Form of Trial.

Barbarisms of General Paine at Paducah, and Colonel McChesney at Mayfield, Ky.

Hon. Lucien Anderson and his Friends Implicated.

From the Louisville Journal.

Some time ago Col. Craddock, of the Kentucky service, was called by business into the District of Western Kentucky, then commanded, by Brig. Gen. E. A. Paine. The colonel found the people completely cowed, not daring to utter a word, when every day their most sacred rights, by military force, were flagrantly violated. By close observation he became convinced that General Paine and his subordinates were exercising the iron rule of despots, were persecuting and robbing the people under various flimsy pretexts, and that the worst corruption prevailed in his office and characterized all of his official acts. Being convinced of these facts, he sought Major General Burbridge at his headquarters in Lexington, and fully stated the case to him. The General was loth to believe that crimes so enormous as represented by Col. Craddock could be openly practiced by a man cloined with the authority and honor of an officer of the United States Government; but, on the solemn assurance of the truth of the statement, he concluded to appoint a commission to investigate the case. On the 9th of September an order was made detailing, Gen. S. S. Fry and Col. Brown as a commission to proceed to Paducah and fully investigate the conduct of Gen. Paine while in command of the Western District of Kentucky. Col. Craddock was appointed to accompany the commission and assist them in their labors. Just before the arrival of Gen. Fry at Paducah, Gen. Paine was relieved of his command by Gen. Meredith. Paine was ordered to remain at his headquarters and meet all charges that might be preferred against him before the commission. This he refused to do. When Gen. Fry and his associates arrived, they found that Gen. Paine had fled to Illinois, where he is still absent without authority. All of his subordinate officers also took "French leave," knowing their conduct would not bear investigation. Gen. Fry found it very difficult to commence operations, as the main parties were absent, and the clerks and orderlies with whom they had surrounded themselves, and possessing a knowledge of their transactions, had been previously sent out of the district. The citizens were so completely cowed that they would not open their lips with one word of complaint against the policy pursued by Gen. Paine. Acting on the authority of Generals Meredith and Fry, Col. Craddock publicly proclaimed the object of the commission in visiting Paducah, assured the people, that if they would come forward and testify to facts they should receive full protection from all parties who might be implicated by their statements. This had the desired effect. General Fry was received with the greatest enthusiasm. The people threw off their restraint, and extended the warm hand of welcome. They greeted him with cheers and smiles upon the street, and thronged his headquarters during the day, showing him every kind attention in their power.

Gen. Meredith is very popular with the people. We published an extract from the Cairo papers some time ago of the cheering demonstration that marked his advent into office. With the feelings of a true soldier, he afforded every facility in his power to aid the commission in their labors. All of the evidence taken before the body is in the form of affidavits, and the record is quite voluminous. It was found that General Paine had exercised the most arbitrary will, and that the worst corruption prevailed in his office. Citizens had been arrested and thrown into prison without a show of trial, and no record of a single charge preferred against them could be found among any of the official papers in the office. Prisoners were executed without a hearing, and often without any definite charge being preferred against them. Forty-three graves, said to be those of executed prisoners, were counted at Paducah. Among this number were two men, named Nolin, and Taylor, of well known loyalty, who by some act offended the general in power, and a tragic death was their doom.

To show the manner in which the executions were made, we have a statement from the evidence given by Hiram R. Enoch, Quartermaster of the 122d (colored) Illinois volunteer infantry. He says that he heard of four citizens being executed without the shadow of a trial. Eastern Taylor, Mathey and Hess. Col. McChesney, commanding at Mayfield, by the appointment and acting under the instructions of Gen. Paine, told him, about the 1st of September, 1864, that he had shot seven men at Mayfield, and had one more in the guard-house that he intended to execute the next day. He said that he gave them no trial, and boasted that none of the prisoners was shot and covered up in his grave in forty-five minutes from the time that he was first reported by a scout at his headquarters. The whole of General Paine's official career in the District of Western Kentucky was marked by the coarsest brutality, calculated to exasperate the people, and send recruits to the rebel army. He would order citizens to his headquarters, and, without provocation, would abuse them, applying the most offensive terms to them, such as d—d rebels, d—d scoundrels, &c.

The people of Paducah were driven from their homes without any just cause, and their houses turned over to negro families for occupation. General Prince, commanding at Smithland, stated that forty-two of the citizens of Paducah passed down the river on boats under orders of banishment beyond the Federal lines, by order of Gen. Paine. The property of these families was confiscated by Paine's officials, and was, said, for the benefit of the Government. Two old widow ladies, their hair silvered by more than sixty winters, for no just cause, were torn from their comfortable homes and sent to Canada under guard of a file of negro soldiers. The people were swindled in the most outrageous manner. General Paine's rule was absolute. A Trade Agent was appointed, not by the Secretary of the Treasury, but by the self-created monarch, who issued his edicts from Headquarters District of Western Kentucky. He levied a tax of ten dollars on each hogshead of tobacco and each bale of cotton exported, and assessed an ad valorem tax of 25 per cent. on all cotton or tobacco received. J. E. Woodruff was appointed Trade Agent, assigned to this especial duty. The large tobacco warehouse of Thomas Dale was taken possession of, and all cotton and tobacco subject to confiscation or tax was stored in it. Only partizans, favorites and pets of the General were allowed to carry on business, thus monopolizing the trade, Paine sharing in the profits. Col. W. H. Barry of the colored troops, for months kept company with a notorious prostitute, appearing in public with her on all occasions. He forced one of the bankers of Paducah to pay this woman $150 in gold, giving no excuse for the strange proceeding. Capt. Phelps Paine, son of the General, and A. A. G. on his staff, sent a guard to take from the house of Mr. Scott Ford sufficient furniture to furnish his private room in elegant style.

After a thorough investigation, the commission were satisfied that Hon. Lucien Anderson, member of Congress, R. H. Hall, Provost Marshal 1st Congressional District of Kentucky, John T. Bollinger, and Major Henry Bartling, 8th U. S. colored, heavy artillery, were guilty of corruption, and were also known with General Paine in his swindling transactions.

At three different places in the district, Anderson and Bollinger addressed the people, and told them that if they did not vote for Lincoln, they would be granted no privileges, would not be allowed to trade, their property would be taken and they would be reduced to beggary and a starving condition. Every possible effort was made to exasperate the people, in order to have a pretext to seize their property. Colonel McChesney ruled Mayfield with an iron hand. He nearly destroyed the
