THE SOUTH,

The subjugation of the people of the South by the people of the North would necessarily lavolve the destruction of the Constitution, and the overthrow of their liberties as well as ours. The men or party at the North, to when you refer, who favor peace, must be brought to a full realization of this trath in all its bearings, before their efforts will result in much practical good. Any peace growing out of a union of States established by force will be ruinous to them as to us,

I have seen from the North since the war began. This cheers the heart, and towards it I could almost exclaim. Holy, holy Light, offspring of Heaven, first born of the sternal, content of the care and beam. May I express the unblamed, since God is light.

Indeed, I could have quite so exclaimed, but for the sad reflection that whethed, but for the sad reflection that whether it shall bring healing in its beams, or be lost in a dark and cominous eclipse ere its good work be done, depends so much upon the action of others who may not regard it and wiew it and do. So at best it is but a ray, a small, and tremulous ray, enough only to gladden the heart and quicken the hope.

or States are ever subjected to Through Easy and perfect solutions to all present troubles, and those far more grievous ones which loom in prospect, and portentiously threaten in the coming such an ordeal we are now passing. our ancestors passed in their struggle for the principles which it has devolved upon us to defend and maintain.

But great as our sufferings and sacrifuture, is nothing more than the simple recognition of the fundamental principle and truth upon which all American constitutional liberty is founded, and fices have been and are, to which you allude, they are not yet of the like suffering and sacrifices which our fathers bore with patience, courage and fath tude in the crisis that tried men's souls upon the maintenance of which alone eignty, the ultimate, absolute sover-eignty of the States. This doctrine our in their day. These are the virtues that all sustained them in their, hour of seed.

Their illustrious and glorious example bids us not to under estimate the price. Legislature announced to the people at he North and to the world. It is the only key note to peace—permanent, lasting peace—consistent with the security of the public liberty.

The old Confederation was formed less inheritance they achieved for us atoli such a cost of treasure and blood:
Great as are the odds we are struggling against, they are not greater-than those against which they successfully struggled. In point of reverses our condition is not to be compared to theirs. Should Mobile, Savannah, Charleston, C. upon this principle. No league can ever be formed or maintained between Augusta, Macon, Montgomery, and even Petersburg and Richmond fall, our condition would not their the worse less hopeful than theirs was in the darks est hour that rested on their fartunessiin est hour that rested on their fortunes.

With wisdom on the part of those who control our destiny in the cabinet and in the field, in husbanding and properly wielding our resources at their command, and in securing the hearts and affections of the people in the great cause of right and liberty for which we are struggling, we could suffer all these losses and calamittes, and greater over and still triumph in the end.

At present, however, I do not seen sp. I stated in the outset, that you or I or any number of persons in our position can do anything towards maintained. happiness was formed upon this princi-ple. All our present troubles sprang from a departure from this principle, from a violation of this essential law of their just powers from the consent of the governed, and that whenever any form of Government, becomes destructive of those ends for which it is formed, it is the right of the people to liter or abolish it and institute a new Government laying the foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such a form as to their may been most likely to effect their safety and happiness.
