PILES OF

TWENTY YEARS STANDING

CURED.

Below will be found a certificate from the one of the most respectable citizens of Wilkins township in regard to Dr. Keyser's 'Lindsay' Blood Searcher. The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER:—I became afflicted with Piles about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me for work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could do nt anything account of them, they came on out on me as large as a hickory nut. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that fell in my way, but I could not get cured, sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterwar they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors who visited me at my house and gave me some medicine but it would not do, I could not get well. Over a year ago not an advertisement of your Lindsay's Blood-Searcher, made by yourself—when you sold it to me you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be re-newed by the medicine before I got well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me and used it according to your directions. I then call ed to see you again, when you said I could n expect much benefit from one bottle. I bought it on, one bottle at a time, until I ha bottles. After this quantity had been used, I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortur-ed me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years past. I have been well now for six months, and there is noappearance of a return of the disease; I can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles coming down and hurting me. I can pitch hay, chop wood, lift, or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I found out your Blood-Searcher I kept on taking it until I got entirely well. I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was and do not know the value of your medicine. You may publish this if you like—I live in Wilkins Township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call and other treatment necessary in some cases, and which never fails to cure, and can be relied on. They do not nauseate the stomach, or render the breath offensive, and they can be USED WITHOUT DETECTION.

They do not interfere with business pursuits, and are speedy in action. No change of diet is necessary. They are warranted in all cases to be effectual in removing and curing the disease. Upwards of two thousand cases are on record that have been cured by using BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS, and certificates can be shown from many that have used them.

No Case of Failure Occurs.

Upwards of a Hundred Physicians use them extensively in their practice, and they cannot effect cures without them.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

who will take all risk if properly directed, and will send the Pills, secured from observation, by return mail, post Paid.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-importance people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to those very refined parties. I suppose they would not let one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. Is there not best to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Ball and M. Paul Ricord devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the whole world; I dont assert that all men are worthy that are held up, and which never fails to cure, and can be relied on. They do not nauseate the stomach, or render the breath offensive, and they can be devoted myself to Obstinate and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 20 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable allogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is no my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my general success; but my long residence in this city is a sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhea and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. Do not allow every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. Address BOX 300.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS

Two Gold Medals and one Silver Medal.

STRONG INDORSEMENT

Of the Most Eminent Pianists.

The most eminent of the musical profession of New York city, after frequent and thorough trials of my New Scale Piano Fortes, have given me the most emphatic and unqualified testimonials. The following is a specimen of the unanimity testimony I am constantly receiving from gentlemen entirely disinterested, and as will acknowledge most thoroughly qualified to judge of the merits of a Piano Forte.

"We have examined with much care Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO FORTES, and it is our opinion that, in power, purity, richness, quality of tone, and thorough workmanship Mr. Bradbury's instruments excel all previous efforts of the kind.

"We find great brilliancy and a beautiful singing quality of tone, most happily blended. We have rarely seen a square Piano Forte combining so many of these qualities essential to a perfect instrument."

GEO. W. SMITH'S FARM FOR SALE.

I HAVE HAD MY WADDINGTON Estate surveyed, and divided into seven parcels to suit purchasers, and will offer the same for sale at public Auction on Monday, October 24th, 1864.

All that portion lying west of the Bethany Pike, I will offer in five different tracts; the first containing 18 acres, with a good substantial dwelling, spring and milk house. The second tract contains about 17 acres, and the third about 15 acres, the remainder, bordering on Wood's Run, is divided into two tracts of 15 and 30 acres, with a good tenant house on each. All in grass and clover and well calculated for Dairy Farms.

That portion lying on the east side of the Pike I have divided into two parcels, one part of about 170 acres on which is a neat, substantial brick dwelling formerly occupied by Mr. John Marshall. Three good tenant houses, the rents of which will pay the taxes. Large barn, stable and sheep houses, and full grown thrifty bearing Apple and Virginia Crab trees. This part of the estate will make a magnificent farm.

I will also part with my Homestead, the large and beautiful mansion, 50 by 75 feet, with all modern conveniences, surrounded with shrubbery and trees; also a large orchard of choice fruit, with about 130 acres of land.

An extensive barn with stone basement, divided into stabling for 30 horses, and stalls for 40 cattle, with cellars, bins, mows and everything in the highest requisition of a farm. It stands in a Brick yard of 175 feet square, surrounded by brick sheds for cattle and sheep; also, a blacksmith's shop and slaughter house. There is also on this Homestead tract a good tenant house.

The Farm is known to be best improved and most highly cultivated in this part of the country, being situated on the Bethany Pike, four miles from Wheeling, most beautiful and fertile rolling hill land, well watered with never failing springs; situated in a neighborhood of wealthy and highly respectable people.

For terms of purchase with a plan of the Farm, showing the divisions above mentioned, together with all particulars, apply on the premises or at my Brewery office, or to N. Richardson, esq., of Wheeling.

STOCK AND FARM IMPLEMENTS.—On the following day after the sale of the Farm, Tuesday, the 25th day of October, 1864, I will dispose of my Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Hogs, and farming implements.

The Daily Post.

Address of the Conservative Union National Committee.

To the Friends of Union, Liberty, and Law.

Under the call of the National Committee, Conventions were held at Cincinnati and at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, in December last, at which the name of George B. McClellan was presented to the country as a candidate for the Presidency, and following which mass meetings of the people, unprecedented in numbers and enthusiasm, were held in ratification of the choice. On the 28th of August last a National Convention was held at Chicago, consisting of delegates of conservative men from thirty-two States, and which was large in numbers and characterized by the ability and counsels of men who were co-laborers with Jackson, Webster, Clay, and Crittenden. The following resolution, among others, was adopted:

"Resolved, That we concur in the action of the Conservative National Convention, held at Independence Hall, in the city of Philadelphia, on the 24th day of December last, and, reiterating the nomination by the people of General George B. McClellan, we respectfully recommend to the consideration of the Democratic National Convention his name as that of the most suitable person now before the people, believing that his triumphant election is certain, and will result in an early and honorable peace, with the restoration of the Government, and, in case of his nomination for the Presidency by that body, we pledge the united and cordial support of the conservative men of the country to their State electoral ticket."

The resolutions of the Convention were formally presented and read to the Democratic Convention, and at the mention of the name of McClellan the whole body, with the vast assemblage of people, through prolonged cheers, gave abundant expression to the conviction that the hopes of the country were centered in his nomination and election. The Democratic Convention nominated him for the Presidency, and all directly connected with this organization stand pledged to his support.

The choice is between George B. McClellan and Abraham Lincoln. The former has shown himself possessed of the first order of ability as a soldier and statesman, and is ardently devoted to the Union and the restoration of the authority of the Constitution. His every day life is adorned by the promptings of a sterling integrity and common sense, and is marked by the characteristics of a true Christian gentleman. The latter has proved himself wholly unfit for the high station he now holds, and, viewing his public acts in the light of the Constitution, it becomes a serious question as to the extent of the acquiescence men can yield to his re-election. It has been truly alleged that there is not an intelligent man in America who believes him fit for the Presidency of this Republic. Previous to the Baltimore Convention prominent men of his own party asserted and published their convictions that the Government could not safely be entrusted to his hands.

While the people have proved their willingness to respond to every necessary call for men and means to suppress the rebellion, he has declared his intention to change the character of the war from the single object of upholding the Government to that of a direct interference with the domestic institutions of States. He has suppressed the freedom of elections in the Border States by taking military possession of the polls. He has stricken down the freedom of the press where rebellion did not exist. By the intentional destruction of the Peninsular campaign, by despotic assumptions under the specious plea of "military necessity," by a refusal to listen to terms of peace upon the simple basis of the Union and the Constitution, and by the prostitution of all the powers of the Government to the base purpose of forcibly securing his own re-election, he has united the Southern people in rebellion, and alienated the heart of the Northern masses, more necessary now than ever before in maintaining the dignity and rightful power of the Government.

In view of all that is transpiring, while our noble Generals and brave soldiers are battling against the armed forces of secession in the field, we have the right to demand that the army shall not be used to interfere with the right of suffrage as regulated by the States, and that the Executive shall not supersede the great principles on which the Government was founded by the corruptions and fanaticism of his party. As freemen our duty is clear. Holding Mr. Lincoln responsible for the management of the war, it becomes the duty of the people to abandon all controversies and, prepare to maintain their liberties by protecting the ballot-box, and through the ballot box, by electing a President who will abide by the Constitution as his only source of authority, civil and military, and the supreme law of the land—one who, with dignity of character, magnanimity of soul, and a full comprehension of the great issues to be decided, will maintain the dignity and integrity of the Government, and elevate our nation to the highest rank among the nations of the earth.

Such a man is George B. McClellan. Standing forth as the choice of the people, and the nominee of the Democratic party, he embodies the high and holy principles of Constitutional liberty. His name is more securely enshrined in the popular heart than that of any other man, and his record is spotless and pure. As between him and Mr. Lincoln let the lines be fairly drawn. Those who are in favor of abandoning the policy of the Administration, and thus rendering peace and re-union possible, who are in favor of free suffrage, free speech, a free press, and the habeas corpus, with trial by jury, of maintaining the Constitution and the Government bequeathed to us by Washington and the fathers of the Republic, those who are ready to contend manfully for the rights of freemen, and are determined to abide by the will of the majority, as fairly expressed through the ballot box, will support McClellan. Those who are in favor of allowing the President to override the Constitution and trample upon the liberties of the people, who are willing to submit to military despotism, and to the establishment of military power in connection with an unlimited expansion of paper currency, suspending the Government bonds to the specie basis, and of changing the war for the Union to a war for forcible emancipation, and of another conscription immediately after election, with the unnecessary sacrifice of hundreds of thousands of Northern lives, will vote for Mr. Lincoln.

The members of the National Committee, in making their appeal for the support of McClellan, are actuated solely by a desire to save the country from the horrors of disunion, financial ruin, anarchy, and foreign intervention, which are sure to follow with the continuance of Mr. Lincoln's policy. They are patriotically devoted to the Union and opposed alike to the doctrines of the secessionists on the one side and those of the destructive radicals on the other. They hold that if the present Administration had administered the Government in accordance with the Constitution, and in the spirit of its founders, instead of adopting a policy at once sectional, barbarous, and subversive of the fundamental principles of the Government, the leaders of the rebellion would have been compelled to contend not only with our armies, but with what is more potent than armies, all in born love of the old Union of the part of the people of the South; and the rebellion would have been crushed and peace restored before a single year could have passed.

In this light, they believe that the war is being unnecessarily prolonged, for if it is possible to weaken the rebellion, and destroy the unity between its leaders and the people, by assuring the latter that the North wants nothing more than the re-establishment of the Government on the basis of the Constitution—to withhold such assurance, to refuse the terms of the Constitution, and instead to proclaim the dogmas of radicalism, with negro equality, social, political, and the only uniting the whole South in rebellion, is a crime against the civilization of the age, and will continue, as it has done, to deluge the country in blood and suffering, and end in diminish and despotism. They regard the rebellion as consisting of two elements, the secessionists who are fighting for the establishment of a separate Government and those who are supporting the rebellion not from any respect to the Confederacy, but from hatred of Mr. Lincoln and his policy, and the latter embrace three-fourths of the people of the South.

With the re-election of Mr. Lincoln the people of the South will continue to support the rebellion as a choice of evils. The election of McClellan will deprive Mr. Davis of that support. Our armies can never be withdrawn while armed secessionists are in the field; but to compel our soldiers to fight our battles, while the President refuses to adopt cooperate measures to weaken the enemy, is but trifling with their lives, and hazarding the very existence of the Republic. Every consideration, then, of public security, and the future prosperity of our country, demands the election of McClellan.

If he and we do not have a free election in November. Already in Tennessee, Kentucky, and Maryland, men not agreeing with Mr. Lincoln's views have been forced to the rights of depositing their ballots. While we would counsel forbearance to the last, there is a time when forbearance ceases to be a virtue. On this subject it is enough to say the American people will never submit to be deprived of this unrestrained right to choose their own rulers in the forms prescribed by their States respectively.

In conclusion, the Committee would impress upon the conservative men throughout the country the importance of devoting their time on election day. From the opening to the close of the polls, fill the work of securing the votes of the timid, the doubtful, and the infirm. By this means we can secure the balance of power, and elect the standard bearer of the people—George B. McClellan.
