THE GREAT INDIAN MEDICINE,

ROOTS, BARKS, & LEAVES.

CHEROKEE CURE!

An unfailing cure for Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, and all diseases caused by self-pollution; such as Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficulty of Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Eruptions on the Face, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all the Direful complaints, caused by departing from the path of nature.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract: and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated. It has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞ To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not: the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed.

☞ Price, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by Express to all parts of the world.

GLAD NEWS FOR THE UNFORTUNATES!
THE LONG SOUGHT FOR DISCOVERED AT LAST!
Cures in from one

CHEROKEE REMEDY,
AND
CHEROKEE INJECTION

Compounded from Roots, Barks and Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of th Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in th Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, an is especially recommended in those cases of Fluo Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nau seous medicines have failed.

☞ It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day.

☞ It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain so frequently experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞ By the use of the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

☞ Price Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

☞ Price Cherokee Injection, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

☞ Sent by Express to any address on receipt of price.

☞ The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure, are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these; those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines, and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptom, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Post Office, County, State, and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page Pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlet or advice to the proprietors,

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact collect just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose they would not let one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often times he has almost deprived the party of his life. He soon at last to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Bell and M. Paul Ricord devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my medical success: but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhœa and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. Beware of different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth; no benefit will arise from answers than only fear of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. OHIO RIVER BRIDGE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ON MONDAY, THE 24th DAY OF OCTOBER, 1864, the Holliday's Cove Rail Road Company will, under the authority of its charter from the Legislature of Virginia, and under the Act of Congress declaring the Railway Bridge at Steubenville a lawful structure, commence the elevation of the channel span of said Bridge, and for this purpose it will be necessary temporarily to obstruct the three hundred feet designed as a channel-way.

Attention of persons engaged in navigation is called to this provision of the second section of the Act of Congress, "and the officers and crews of all vessels and boats navigating said rivers are required to regulate the use of their said vessels and boats, and of any pipes or chimneys belonging thereto, so as not to interfere with the elevation construction and use of said Bridge."

All persons are also notified that the span next west of the channel span is created at an elevation of 66 feet above low water, and there is a water-way exceeding two hundred feet, between the piers; and that the water-way between the piers next east of the channel span also exceeds two hundred feet, and that the headway here will be clear, as the company does not intend to proceed with the erection of this span until the channel span is completed, and the obstructions necessary to its erection removed.

All persons are notified further, that this Bridge is erected without a draw, and that all the requisitions of the Act of Congress have been complied with, by the company.

The erection of the channel span will be proceeded with as rapidly as possible, and due Notice will be given as to the time when the obstructions will be removed.

The Holliday's Cove Rail Road Company,
By THOMAS L. JEWETT,
President.

STRONG INDORSEMENT
Of the Most Eminent Pianists.

The most eminent of the musical profession of New York city, after frequent and thorough trials of my New Scale Piano Fortes, have given me the most emphatic and unqualified testimonials. The following is a specimen of the voluntary testimony I am constantly receiving from gentlemen entirely disinterested, and all will acknowledge must thoroughly qualified to judge of the merits of a Piano Forte:

"We have examined with much care, Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANOFORTES, and it is our opinion that, in power, purity, richness, quality of tone, and thoroughness of workmanship, they are unsurpassed.

"We find great brilliancy and a beautiful singing quality of tone most happily blended. We have rarely seen a square Piano Forte combining so many of these qualities essential to a perfect instrument." Signed,

GEO. W. SMITH'S FARM FOR SALE.

I HAVE HAD MY WADDINGTON Estate surveyed and divided into seven parcels to suit purchasers, and will offer the same for sale at Public Auction on Monday, October the 24th, 1864.

All that portion lying west of the Bethany Pike, I will offer in five different tracks: the first containing 18 acres, with a good substantial dwelling, spring and milk house. The second tract contains about 17 acres, and the third about 15 acres, the remainder bordering on Wood's Run, is divided into two tracts of 10 and 30 acres, with a good tenant house on each. All in grass and clover and well calculated for Dairy Farms.

That portion lying on the east side of the Pike I have divided into two parcels, one part of about 170 acres on which is a neat, substantial brick dwelling formerly occupied by Mr. John Marshall. Three good tenant houses, the rents of which will pay the taxes. Large barn, stable and sheep houses, and full grown thrifty bearing Apple and Virginia Crab trees. This part of the estate will make a magnificent farm.

I will also part with my Homestead, the large beautiful mansion, 50 by 75 feet, with all modern conveniences, surrounded with shrubbery and trees; also a large orchard of choice fruit, with, about 130 acres of land.

An extensive barn with stone basement, divided into stabling for 15 horses, and stalls for 10 cattle, with cellars bins, mows and everything in the highest requisition of a farm. It stands in a brick yard of 175 feet square, surrounded by brick sheds for cattle and sheep; also, a blacksmith's shop and slaughter house. There is also on this Homestead tract a good tenant house.

The Farm is known to be best improved and most highly cultivated in this part of the country, being situated on the Bethany Pike, four miles from Wheeling, most beautiful and fertile rolling hill land, well watered with never failing springs, situated in a neighborhood of wealthy and highly respectable people.

For terms of purchase with a "plan" of the Farm, showing the divisions above mentioned, together with all particulars, apply on the premises or at my Brewery office, or to N. Richardson, esq., of Wheeling.

STOCK AND FARM IMPLEMENTS.—On the following day after the sale of the Farm, Tuesday, the 25th day of October, 1864, I will dispose of my Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Hogs, and farming implements.

The Disfranchisement of Tennessee.

It is known to our readers that on Saturday, the 15th instant, Mr. Lellyett, a loyal citizen of Tennessee, waited on the President of the United States to lay before him a respectful paper, signed, on behalf of a large portion of the loyal people of that State, by the Electors on the Tennessee McClellan ticket, in protest against the proclamation by which Mr. Andrew Johnson, the Military Governor of Mr. Lincoln and his political associate on the Republican ticket, has undertaken to disfranchise the supporters of Gen. McClellan in the very act of proclaiming an election for the choice of Presidential Electors.

It will be remembered that when this paper was thus submitted to the President and read in his hearing he simply responded as follows:

"May I inquire how long it took you and the New York politicans to concoct that paper?"

When informed that the paper had been drawn up in Nashville, without communication with any "New York politicians," or with any persons but citizens of Tennessee, Mr. Lincoln answered as follows: "I expect to let the friends of George B. McClellan manage their side of this contest in their own way, AND I WILL MANAGE MY SIDE OF IT IS MY WAY."

When asked if he would give an answer in writing to the protest he replied:

"Not now. Lay those papers down here. I will give no other answer now. I may or may not write something about this hereafter. I understand this. I know you intend to make a point of this. But go ahead. You have my answer."

After taking a week to deliberate on the subject the President has "written something" on it. It will be seen that he has come to the conclusion that he "can have nothing to do with the matter, either to sustain the plan as the Convention and Gov. Johnson have initiated it, or to revoke or modify it," as the protestants request.

In support of this view the President urges that, "by the Constitution, he is charged with no duty in the conduct of a Presidential election in any State," and he further submits that he can perceive no reason for his interference in the present case, because he "cannot discern that by this plan Gov. Johnson proposes anything more than to keep the peace among and for the loyal people of the State;" and the President adds, that if any body does not like the plan, their security against it will be to "leave it alone"—that is; to submit tacitly and quietly to the disfranchisement which it ordains. "It is not proposed," says the President, "to force you into it."

This is in effect to say: "My Military Governor and political associate on the Republican ticket has, it is most true, established a test-oath in Tennessee at the coming election for President in that State which will keep every body from voting except those who will vote for me and for him, but you are not required to participate in the election if you do not like this 'plan.' 'Do as you please on your own account, peacefully and loyally, and Gov. Johnson will not molest you, but will protect you against violence so far as in his power." It is only your disfranchisement which he seek to compass, and I so entirely concur with him in desiring to keep the friends of General McClellan in Tennessee from exercising the elective franchise that my conclusion is I can have nothing to do with the matter. Gov. Johnson is my Military Governor, it is true, and I am directly responsible for his acts, which in presumption of law are all done by my authority; but in this case I do not perceive any military reason for my interference in the matter when nobody's rights are concerned except those of the loyal citizens of Tennessee who prefer to support Gen. McClellan rather than myself."

Such, we say, is virtually the language of the President, in reply to the protest of the loyal people of Tennessee. Let the reader refer to the precise words of the President, and judge if we have in any respect or in any degree misinterpreted its tenor. And now let us examine one or two of the President's propositions in this most extraordinary response to a free and loyal people, petitioning for relief from civil disabilities unlawfully imposed on them by his military subordinate.

The President says that "he can have nothing to do with the matter." But in so saying, and in acting accordingly, he takes upon himself to do every thing in the matter which constitutes the grievance which provokes complaint. The restrictions put on the right of suffrage in Tennessee by Andrew Johnson are imposed and enforced by virtue of his authority as Military Governor holding under Mr. Lincoln. Has Mr. Lincoln forgotten that Andrew Johnson is his agent, both for military and civil purposes in Tennessee? If he has, it may be proper to remind him that Mr. Johnson has no power or authority to do the high-handed thing he is now doing in that State, except such as he derives from the following commission, conferred by the President:

WAR DEPARTMENT, MARCH 3, 1862.
To the Hon. ANDREW JOHNSON.

SIR: You are hereby appointed Military Governor of the State of Tennessee, with authority to exercise and perform within the limits of that State all and singular the powers, duties, and functions pertaining to the office of Military Governor, including the power to establish all necessary offices, tribunals, &c.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secty of War.

In addition to this commission, Mr. Johnson subsequently received from President Lincoln an enlargement of his prerogatives, as follows:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
Washington, September 19, 1863.

Hon. ANDREW JOHNSON, Military Governor of Tennessee.

You are hereby authorized to exercise such powers as may be necessary and proper to enable the loyal people of Tennessee to present such a Republican form of State Government as will entitle the State to the guarantee of the United States therefor, and to be protected, under such State Government, by the United States against invasion and domestic violence. And according to the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Any one who reads these papers will be able to perceive with what justice of propriety the President affirms that he "can have nothing to do with the matter." The inability is purely of a moral nature, and does not result at all from any want of power on right to interpose for the protection of those whom his subordinate has sought to wrong by depriving them of the elective franchise.

But, urges the President, "by the Constitution, and laws, the President is charged with no duty in the conduct of a Presidential election in any State." Very true. Under what pretence, then, does the President allow his military subordinate in Tennessee to usurp a duty with which he is not charged? For, if the President is not charged with any duty in the conduct of a Presidential election in any State," it surely will not be pretended that a subordinate of the President, having, in this relation no power or authority except such as he has received from the President, can assume to do more under this head than the President himself. To state the proposition is to expose in all its baldness the audacity of such statement. And its want of candor is disclosed by the action of the President in the case of Maryland, when, just a year ago, Gen. Schenck undertook to regulate the elective franchise in that State. The assumption was most illegal, and had the President done his full duty in the premises he would have revoked the whole order of Gen. Schenck on this subject, but, in fact, he only modified it. If, as he now argues, the President is charged with no duty in the conduct of a Presidential election in any State, and if for this reason he excuses himself from any interposition of his power to protect the people of Tennessee from the assumption of his military subordinate, why did he not bethink himself of the same apology in the case of Maryland? He surely has as much right to interpose for the revocation or modification of the proclamation of Andrew Johnson, his military Governor of Tennessee, as he had for the revocation or modification of the proclamation of Gen. Schenck, his commander of the Military Department of Maryland, in the year 1863.

But the President urges that he cannot discern that Gov. Johnson, by this plan for disfranchising all the friends of Gen. McClellan in Tennessee, purposes anything more than "to keep the peace among and for the loyal people of the State." We are to understand, then
