The National Republican, the personal organ of Lincoln, thus hints at what may be expected if he is re-elected. The object of the draft is not to fill quotas, but to raise troops, and it should be exacted with that view and for that purpose; and as every able bodied citizen of the proper age is subject to be called into the service, no man who has been legally drafted has just cause of complaint on account of being required to render his due share of military service. The fact that the required number has already been drawn is no reason why others should not be drawn, if necessary to fill quota.

A Dark Transaction. We are sure that every reader of this journal perused with equal surprise and indignation the report we yesterday gave from the columns of a Republican print in this city, reciting the testimony borne by one Pardon Worsley in the case of Messrs. I am, very truly, yours &c., George H. Pendleton. Hon. John B. Haskin, New York. So, also, in reference to the slanderous misrepresentations of Mr. Pendleton's votes for supplies of the army and navy, the following letter, to the Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Pennsylvania, furnishes a complete refutation. The falsehoods so industri-ously inculcated against Mr. Pendleton amongst the soldiers of our armies, must now vield to the force of truth, plainly spoken by one whose unspotted integrity and truthfulness has never yet been questioned, even by his enemies, howver they may seek otherwise to malign and disparage him:

Meeting at the Democratic Club | The Returned Soldiers will Vote | Hell. | for McClellan. The Naily Post A large meeting of the Democracy was held last evening in the Democ atic Club Hall. The hall was crowded to excess at an early hour owing to the announcement that Mr. Alexander Molling waine was about to deliver, an address on the political questions of the day. The gentleman entertained the audience for nearly two hours with one of is able and characteristic addresses, in which he discussed the political questions now before the people with much andor and ability, and in such as manner as to receive the approbation of the entire audience assembled to hear him. He showed in what manner the present administration has departed from its old professions, and instead of restoring peace, Union and prosperity to the nation, they are now carrying on a bloody and fratricidary on the battle field.
