EAST LIBERTY, Oct. 27, 1864. 1 The Oattle markst was not very active during the week, and the sales make were not large. The principal portion: of the receipts passed through to the Eastern cities. The unsettled state of the money market in the East, and the daily fluctuations in goid, has operated as a check on trade generally, while the near ap-vroach of the Presidential election occupies a large share of attention. Business will no doubt be neglected until after that event has been de-cided.
