MEETING IN THE NINTH WARD

TREMENDOUS ENTHUSIASM.

Speeches by Alex. M'Ilwaine, Esq., Col. J. B. Sweitzer, Judge Fleniken, Hon. W. H. Witte, Mr. Lacy, of N.Y., and others.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings of the campaign, and the largest Democratic meeting ever held in the Ninth Ward, came off on Saturday evening, opposite the Iron City Hotel. The Ninth Ward Democratic Club, newly organized, turned out in full force, together with the entire Democracy of the ward, with a grand display of banners and transparencies. The meeting was organized by the election of the following officers:

PRESIDENT.
J. C. O'DONNELL.

VICE PRESIDENTS.

James Stewart.	Thomas S Rowley.
David Bratney.	A. J. Shefflert.
Michael Bright.	Edward Ruman.

SECRETARIES.

Robert Liddel.	Edward Stewart.

The President, on taking the chair, addressed a few appropriate words to the audience expressive of his thanks for the honor conferred on him, and introduced Mr. Alex. McIlwaine, the first speaker. This gentleman made a lengthy and telling address, showing forth the corruption of the present Administration, and inveighed in strong terms against the manner in which the President deviated from the principles expressed in his inaugural address. In that he expressed the true sentiments which should animate the President of a free people, but he has since ignored all the duties devolving upon him from his high position, and he governs the people with the rod of a tyrant. Years do not teach him any wisdom, and in his letter "to whom it may concern" he makes open propositions to treat with rebels in arms. Yet the Republican party still continue their outcry against the Democracy, who wish to restore an honorable peace to the country. But a new star has arisen, a bright one for our country, which will lead it to Union, peace and prosperity, and that star is George B. McClellan. The speaker, on resuming his seat, was cheered enthusiastically by the numerous audience

The next speaker was Col. J. B. Sweitzer. This gentleman, as soon as he appeared on the platform, was saluted with three unanimous cheers from the numerous assemblage. As soon as his voice could be heard he commenced one of his characteristic addresses, first thanking the audience for the flattering reception tendered him, and then proceeded to vindicate the claims of George B. McClellan as a soldier, a patriot and a statesman. As a companion in arms of Gen. McClellan he was prepared to speak of what he had a thorough knowledge. He knew that the soldiers had not lost confidence in their old leader, and he, in his position as military commander, had opportunities to study the character of Gen. McClellan, and in him he had observed qualities which render him worthy of the confidence and favor of the people. (Cheers.) Before we used to talk of what was of but a secondary nature, such as offices and the like, but now we are assembled together for the purpose of discussing questions involving the very life and integrity of the nation. Hooker, Hunt [illegible]Major Mahan. He saved the army on several occasions, and the people will repay him for the many benefits which he has conferred on the country at large. [Continued cheers, amidst which the speaker resumed his seat.]

Judge Fleniken was next introduced, but as Hon. William H. Witte had arrived in the city the same day, on the invitation of Mr. D. H. Hazen he promised to deliver an address on the occasion, for which reason the speaker confined himself to a few words only. He requested three cheers for McClellan and the Union, which were given with a will, and subsequently three more cheers for Hon. Wm. H. Witte, who was about to address them. This request was responded to unanimously, and amidst thunders of applause the gentleman took the platform and delivered an address replete with matchless argument and eloquence. We regret to say that want of space prevents our giving a full report; we will therefore confine ourselves to the principal points in his truly able and eloquent address, with which he occupied the attention of the numerous assemblage for nearly two hours without a single interruption, except by the frequent and loud outbursts of applause of the audience. As soon as quiet was restored he stated that he came there at the request of Mr. Hazen, without any previous intention of speaking. Hehen passed a well merited encomium on the Democracy of the western part of the State, who sustained themselves so well during the campaign. This, he said, must be attributed to the local organization of the party, which is far more perfect here than in the eastern part of the State. The recent contest has shown that the Democracy are in the majority in Pennsylvania, and determined to resist the President's usurpation and encroachments on the rights of the people. It is a deeply significant fact that although we have yielded all our rights to the Federal Government during this war, we have received no requital but as being branded as copperheads and traitors to the country. To-day a majority of the people of Pennsylvania are traitors in the opinion of Mr. Lincoln. Yet we have the consolation of being in the majority. [Laughter.] Here, on account of frauds, we have been beaten in the soldiers' vote. When a soldier's vote is counted as Lincoln would have it, it would be preferable to have none at all. The brave soldiers have been cheated in order to perpetuate Mr. Lincoln's power, yet our opponents talk of that love for the soldier! It is well for Copperheads to go to the battle, because if it were left to Abolitionists there would be but little fighting done. [Laughter and applause.]

He declined saying anything in reference to the war for the many lamentable circumstances connected with it, and as so much had been said about it. The soldiers, unknowingly and unwittingly, have been supporting the President in his usurpations. If Mr. Lincoln had said at the commencement of the war what he now asserts not one man would enlist but as it was three Democrats went to one Republican. The speaker here made mention of the principles which Mr. Lincoln declared in the beginning of the war and through which many were induced to take the field. And now when we say that we want peace, our opponents raise the cry against us that we want peace on any terms, in fact a dishonorable peace. But who can talk of honor while connected with Lincoln? I ask any man to-day whether there is as much civil liberty in the country now as there was at the outbreak of the war? [Several voices—"No, no."] It is not necessary that Mr. Lincoln should change our institutions as a reward for what we did during this war, or to have the Southern slaves freed. Nevertheless we are to-day slaves in a certain sense. We pay more tribute to Abraham Lincoln [illegible]ave does to his master in the South. [illegible]ile we eat, tribute while we drink, [illegible] by him tribute in all our actions. If re-elected he will carry on the war vigorously, and consequently he will have to raise men vigorously, and kill vigorously and levy taxes vigorously. [Loud cheers and cries of "He won't do it."] The "traitors" will have to pay for all this.

Here the speaker called the attention of his hearers to the already enormous debt of the country, showing that the President has put a mortgage on all our property, and that it will take every cent of the assessed value of property to pay our public debt. After this, he continued, he will give us a new Union, but we want the old one. [Protracted cheers.] His election will involve the life of American citizens, and they should consider it. It will make the rich richer and the poor poorer, this is the reason why the one class is against him and the other in his favor. He then gave a brilliant description of what will take place under the administration of Gen. McClellan, and terminated his address with the emphatic injunction that they should "choose between the two and may God give his blessing to the right."

Mr. Lacey next took the platform, and with a spirited and entertaining address occupied the attention of the audience till a late hour. He showed to the entire satisfaction of his hearers which was truly the Union party, and asked them whether they who maintained that this Union was not good enough, could possibly be the Union party. The Puritans said that they would be governed by the laws of God until they had time to enact better. So with the Abollitionists. Wendell Phillips stated that he had been laboring sixteen years to dissolve the Union, and thank God, he had done it! During his address he introduced several pointed and laughable anecdotes, which had a telling effect upon the audience, and resumed his seat amidst the most enthusiastic applause.

After him Mr. H. Duffy, and Wm. Long, of Ohio, entertained the audience till after eleven o'clock, when the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for the Presidential candidates.

Meeting in Allegheny.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Germans of this city and Allegheny was held on Saturday evening, on Chestnut street, Allegheny. Several able speakers were present, who addressed the audience in German, and the meeting was most enthusiastic throughout. At a late hour the meeting adjourned, with loud cheers for McClellan and Pendleton.

Funeral of Col. Coleman.—The funeral of this gallant officer took place yesterday from the residence of Capt. P. R. Hill, Allegheny. The remains of the deceased were escorted by a large circle of friends, and the members of the 102d Regiment, preceded by Toerge's band.

Col. Sirwell's Regiment.—This regiment arrived here on Saturday afternoon. They all appeared in excellent condition. They were escorted by a large circle of friends to the City Hall, where they partook of a sumptuous repast prepared by the Subsistence Committee.

From Hon. D. H. Cole, Senator from the Twenty-Ninth District.

ALBANY, Jan. 25th, 1864.

MY DEAR DR. LIGHTHILL:—It is with great satisfaction that I communicate to you the effects of the medicines you gave me, on my application to you, for defective hearing. I followed your directions, and am happy to state that I am now so far recovered after the first few applications as to feel quite confident that I am well and shall not need to proceed further.

Be assured, my dear sir, if necessity should require, I should not hesitate to place myself under your magic hands. Yours with respect,

D. H. COLE,
Albion, Orleans county, N. Y.

From the Home Journal, June 4.

In every business or profession, indeed, in every department of science or skill, there is always some acknowledged head—some one who stands out in bold relief among his fellows, as a sort of leader. In the study and treatment of deafness and catarrh, as special diseases, Dr. E. B. LIGHTHILL, of this city, occupies just the position above described. He has devoted years of labor to this speciality, and is now reaping the reward of his industry. The editorial columns of the Tribune, of a recent date, bear witness to the Doctor's success in this department of medicine. We quote the paragraph:

"CURE OF A DEAF MUTE.—Louis Loewinstein a lad fourteen years of age, born in Germany, come to this city when he was about two years old. Soon after his arrival here he was taken sick and lost his hearing. By degrees he became first deaf and then dumb. For nearly ten years he was a mute, unable to hear the loudest voice or to articulate a word. About one year ago he was placed by his parents in the hands of Dr. Lighthill, who has so far succeeded in restoring to him his lost powers of hearing and utterance that he can converse with those who speak to him distinctly and deliberately. During the past four or five months he has been under the tuition of Mr. Benneche, and has made considerable progress in reading and arithmetic."

Having been supplied with the lad's address, we further investigated the matter, and discovered previous to calling on Dr. Lighthill, the youth's case was considered hopeless, and he was for two years an inmate of a Deaf and Dumb Asylum. The Rev. John Nott, D. D., Professor in Union College, Schenectady, in a published letter, tenders his gratitude to Dr. Lighthill for treating successfully his case of deafness. Rev. Fred S. Jewell, Professor of the State Normal School at Albany, also testifies to have been cured of catarrh. Dr. Lighthill possesses other testimonials and tributes to his talents from some of the wealthiest and most prominent and respected citizens, which may be seen on application. It would be difficult to speak in any but terms of praise of his treatment, in the face of these many proofs and facts testifying to his success.

Remarkable Cure of Deafness.

From the Rev. Joseph M. Clarke, Rector of St. James' Church.

SYRACUSE, February 10th, 1864.

I have been deaf in one ear since I was in College, some twenty years ago. By the skill of Dr. Lighthill, its hearing was entirely restored, so that now I hear alike with both my ears, and I find that I can use my voice with much more ease and comfort than before.

The Armies Strongly Entrenched

The Steamer Ike Davis Captured

Outrage on the N. Y. & Erie R. R.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A Richmond dispatch of the 26 says: The hostile armies are so strongly intrenched that it would be sheer madness for either of them to attack each other in front. In some places they were 4,000 and in others not over 100 yards apart. They may keep their positions all winter, or any morning or night may bring on a collision. The Sentinel of the 26th says it is necessary that the rebel States should be solidly united, and declares that there has been negotiations for peace, and that nothing now could be more fatal.

There is nothing later from General Grant than telegraphed to-day. Dispatches from the Shenandoah Valley report all quiet.

The guerrillas between Martinsburg and Winchester are very bold, Guards are necessary to protect trains, and persons passing through report that the rebels are preparing for an extensive raid towards West Virginia.

A Herald New Orleans special says Gov. Allen has commenced the conscription of negroes for the rebel army. His cavalry is scouting the country for the purpose of enforcing the conscription. They carry off every negro able to bear arms.

Walker's rebel division is reported as having crossed the Mississippi river. Hurlbut has issued orders requiring the enrolment of all persons within his lines between the ages of 18 and 45.

Gen. Buckner, commanding the rebel forces west of Nashville, has issued orders requiring all deserters to return to the army, offering them free pardon if they return before the first of November.

It is now positively announced that the steamer Ike Davis, running from New Orleans to Bagdad, was captured by rebel passengers and taken to Brownsville. At the last accounts she was being fitted up as a rebel guaboat. She is one of the fastest steamers in the Gulf.

On Thursday night the passengers on the New York and Erie Railroad were attacked and robbed by a gang of ruffians from this city and Philadelphia, who were going to witness a prize fight. Last night the Chief of Police of Jersey City learned they were on their return, and made arrangements to arrest them, but on nearing the city the ruffians burst open the car doors, put down the brakes and stopped the cars sufficiently to jump off and escaped. Ten men, however, were arrested on suspicion of belonging to the gang, and twelve more were arrested on the midnight train, but on examination to-day, the conductor identified most of them as passengers.

FROM BALTIMORE.

Proclamation by Gov. Bradford

BALTIMORE, Oct 29.—Gov. Bradford has just proclaimed the free State Constitution of Maryland. The proclamation concludes as follows: "And whereas the results of said election have been duly certified to me by the proper judges of said several elections, and upon accurately counting and casting up the votes so returned to me for and against said Constitution, including the soldiers vote aforesaid, it doth appear that the were 30,174 ballots for the new Constitution, and 29,799 against the Constitution, and there were 61 blank ballots reported as given against the Constitution, but not counted, the persons offering them refusing to take the oath required by said Constitution, and there being therefore of the aggregate votes a majority in favor of the adoption of the said Constitution. Now, therefore, I, Augustus W. Bradford, Governor of the State of Maryland, in pursuance of the authority so vested in me by said act of Assembly and Constitution aforesaid, do by this my proclamation, declare and make known that the said Constitution and form of Government framed and adopted by the Convention aforesaid has been adopted by a majority of the votes of the State, and that in pursuance of the provision therein contained, the same will go into effect as the proper Constitution and form of government of this State, superceding the one now existing, on the first day of November next.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of Maryland, at the city of Annapolis, on the 29th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1864.

(Signed.) A. W. BRADFORD.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29th.—Richmond papers of the 26th contain the following: Speaking of Gen. Early's army the Enquirer says: All that our army now needs is some determined comander to keep up their inspiration now that they are once more invigorated to deeds of valor.

On Tuesday last some 600 Union prisoners were sent from Richmond to Salisbury, N. C., and on the following day 1,300 more were sent.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Gov. Seymour has appointed commissioners to proceed to Washington to investigate the charges of fraud in tampering with the soldiers' vote, and take such action as will vindicate the laws of the State and subserve the ends of justice.

FROM ST. LOUIS.

News from the Southwest.

ST. LOUIS, October 30.—Price left 300 killed and 1,200 wounded on the field in the late battle. His army was composed of nine brigades and thirty-six regiments, averaging 400 to a regiment, besides a large irregular force. He was in Jasper county on Friday, hard pressed by our forces, and had but two pieces of artillery, one of them disabled. The country is full of his stragglers.

Gen. Fisk, after a full conference with Gen. Rosecrans, has taken his command into North Missouri, and will immediately re-occupy Regalate, his old district. It is stated that Rosecrans has determined on a stern policy in this State hereafter. The rebels cruelly treated our wounded which have fallen into their hands, invariably leaving them naked with their wounds undressed.

Little Rock advices of the 20th inst. say that on the 18th 15,000 or 20,000 rebels were crossing Saline river, coming northward, just below Lisbon, and twenty-five miles west of Little Rock. The next morning reconnoitering parties were sent out, one moving south, the other going west. There is some appearance of an attack on Little Rock, but whether the rebel movement is designed to co-operate in any way with Price, or fall upon Steele, should he weaken his force by sending his troops to intercept Price and endeavor to retake the lower line of the Arkansas river, it is not known. It is believed, however, that Steele is now strong enough to hold the entire line of the Arkansas river and assume the offensive.

Three rebel soldiers were shot here yesterday in retaliation for the murder of major Wilson's men. A rebel major will be shot for Major Wilson as soon as one reaches here from the prisoners recently captured by Pleasanton.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Proclamation by the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—By the President of the United States of America.—A Proclamation.—Whereas, The Congress of the United States passed an act which was approved on the 21st day of March last, entitled "An act to enable the people of Nevada to form a constitution and State government, and for permission of such State into the Union on an an equal footing with the original States;" and whereas, the said constitution and State government have been formed pursuant to the conditions prescribed in the fifth section of the act of Congress aforesaid, and the certificate required by the said act, and also a copy of the constitution and ordinances have been submitted to the President of the United States, now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, in accordance with the duty imposed upon me by the act of Congress aforesaid, do hereby declare and claim that the said State of Nevada is admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this thirtieth day of October, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-ninth.

Yorell, was attacked this morning at daylight by Major Hill, with 350 rebels. Major Hill belonged to Imboden's command. After two hours hard fighting the rebels were repulsed and routed with the loss of one hundred and fifteen prisoners, fifteen killed and a large number killed and wounded.
