PILES OF

TWENTY YEARS STANDING

CURED.

Below will be found a certificate from the one of most respectable citizens of Wilkins township in regard to Dr. Keyser's Lindsay' Blood Searcher. The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER:—I became afflicted with Piles about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me or work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could do ot anything account of them, they came o out on me as large as a hickory nut. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that fell in my way, but I could not get cured, sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterwar they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors who visited me at my house and gave me some medicine but it would not do, I could not get well. Over a year ag not an advertisement of your Lindsay's Blood-Searcher, made by yourself—when you sold it to me you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be re-newed by the medicine before I got well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me and used it according to your directions. I then call ed to see you again, when you said—I could n expect much benefit from one bottle. I bought it on, one bottle at a time, until Tha v bottles. After this quantity had been used, I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortur d me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years past. I have been well now for six months, and there is noappearance of a return of the disease; I can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles coming down and hurting me. I can pitch hay, shop wood, lift, or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I paid out your Blood-Searcher I kept on taking it until I got entirely well. I consider it my du-y to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was and do not know the value of your medicine. You may publish this if you like—I live in Wilkins Township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call on me. ELLIOTT DAVIS.
December 24th, 1863.

☞ Look out for the name of DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER on the cover of the bottle and buried over the cork; also for his stamp on the United States stamp on the top of the bottle to prevent being imposed upon by a spurious article which is in the market.

MEDICAL

THIRD EDITION, FIFTY THOUSAND, 96 pages, cloth covers, by

Robert E. Bell, M. D.,

Member of the roy's College of Surgeons, London, addressed to youth, the married and those

CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE:

Sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of ten cents. A careful perusal of this small book has been a boon to the afflicted, and has saved thousands from a life of misery and an untimely grave. It treats on the evils of, Youthful indiscretion, Self-Abuse, Seminal weakness, Emissions, Sexual Diseases, Genital Debility, Loss of Power, Nervousness, Premature Decay, Impotence, &c., &c., which unfit the sufferer from fulfilling the OBLIGATIONS OF MARRIAGE, and illustrates the means of cure by the use of

and other treatment necessary in some cases, and which never fails to cure, and can be relied on. They do not nauseate the stomach, or render the breath offensive, and they can be USED WITHOUT DETECTION.

They do not interfere with business pursuits, and are speedy in action. No change of diet is necessary. They are warranted in all cases to be effectual in removing and curing the disease. Upwards of two thousand cases are on record that have been cured by using BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS, and certificates can be shown from many that have used them.

No Case of Failure Occurs.

Upwards of a Hundred Physicians use them extensively in their practice, and they cannot effect cures without them.

IMPORTANT NOTICE,

BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS

Are the original and only genuine Specific Pills There are a host of imitators—BEWARE OF THEM.

These are Warranted.

They are adapted for male or female, old or young, and are the only reliable remedy known for the cure of all diseases arising from

YOUTHFUL INDISCRETION.

In all Sexual Diseases, as Gonorrhea, Strictures, Gleet, and in all Urinary and Kidney complaints,

They Act Like a Charm!

Relief is experienced by taking a single box; and from four to six boxes generally effect a cure.

Sold by Druggists generally, in boxes containing six pills, price $1 or six boxes, $5; also in large boxes, containing four of the small, price $3.

DR. J. BRYAN, BOX 5079,

who will take all risk if properly directed, and will send the Pills, secured from observation, by return mail, post Paid.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose they would not let one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physical that advertises, now else are they to know! Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Ball and M. Paul Ricord treated years in the treatment of these diseases! These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my general success: but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhea and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. OHIO RIVER BRIDGE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ON MONDAY, THE 24th DAY OF OCTOBER, 1864, the Holliday's Cove Rail Road Company will, under the authority of its charter from the Legislature of Virginia, and under the Act of Congress declaring the Railway Bridge at Steubenville a lawful structure, commence the elevation of the channel span of said Bridge, and for this purpose it will be necessary temporarily to obstruct the three hundred feet designed as a channel-way.

Attention of persons engaged in navigation is called to this provision of the second section of the Act of Congress; "and the officers and crews of all vessels and boats navigating said river, are required to regulate the use of their said vessels and boats and of any pipes or chimneys belonging thereto, so as not to interfere with the elevation construction and use of said Bridge."

All persons are also notified that the span next west of the channel span is erected at an elevation of 66 feet above low water, and there is a water-way exceeding two hundred feet, between the piers; and that the water-way between the piers next east of the channel span also exceeds two hundred feet, and that the headway here will be clear, as the company does not intend to proceed with the erection of this span until the channel span is completed, and the obstructions necessary for the erection removed.

All persons are notified further, that this Bridge is erected without a draw, and that all the restrictions by the Act of Congress have been complied with, by the company.

The erection of the channel span will be proceeded with as rapidly as possible, and due notice will be given as to the time when the obstructions will be removed.

Rebel Conscription of Editors.

A Lecture for Jeff. Davis.

The Constitution of the Confederate States extends to the Press the aegis of its protection, and, selecting it out from all other professions, gives it an honorable security against even the Congress of the Confederacy. Coupling it with the free worship of Almighty God, the Constitution connects it also with the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances. Its place in the Constitution is between the Vox Dei and the Vox Populi, subordinate to the one, superior to the other. This could not have been mere accident; there must have existed some reason for this protection and for the immediate conjunction with religion and popular petition.

We find this same importance given to the press in the 16th article of the Bill of Rights, reported by Mr. Wythe, of the Virginia Convention, to the Federal Constitution, as follows: "That the freedom of the Press is one of the greatest bulwarks of liberty, and ought not to be violated." What sort of a bulwark of liberty would the press be with detailed editors—the underlings of an underling? It is to this degraded position that the President has deliberately recommended the Congress to reduce the Press. He does not say that the army needs their services, but that the exemption by law should be repealed, and that "a discretion be vested in the military authorities" to detail the editors, whensoever and wheresoever those authorities may regard them as "essential to the public service."

Editors, as individuals, deserve no more consideration from the Congress than "shoemakers, blacksmiths, printers, millers, miners, physicians and telegraph operators," but as the Press, without editors, would be playing Hamlet with the part of Hamlet omitted, there is something due to the intelligence of the people, which demands at the hands of Congress that the Press of the country be not wholly prostrated at the foot of the Executive power, and forced to petition for existence, and to receive it upon such conditions as the Executive or his detailing subordinates may choose to impose.

Exemption by law gave an honorable position to the Press, secured its independence, and left no rod suspended over its head, but such as the people raised by their support or rejection. But an editor emerging from that cesspool of corruption, the detail system, would be an object of offence to the virtuous people of those States, and the paper he conducted cease to be an organ of public opinion, and become the miserable conduct of those to whose favor he owed his exemption from the ranks.

No! for God's sake put us in the army the trenches, anywhere, but save us from the degraded position of a detailed editor.

Did the President, when he recommended this degradation to the Press of his country, know that neither "telegraph operators, workmen in mines, engineers, shoemakers, tanners, blacksmiths, nor millers," were exempt by law, and that his recommendation pointed only at professors, teachers, physicians, and the Press of the country?

The exemptions by the law of February 17, 1864, are: Ministers of religion at the time of the passage of the act; superintendents and physicians of asylums; one editor for each newspaper, and employes certified on oath to be indispensably necessary; public printers of Confederate and State Governments, and such journeyman printers certified on oath to be indispensable; skilled apothecaries, of date October 10, 1862, physicians over thirty years of age and of seven years practice; presidents and teachers of colleges, engaged as such two years before the passage of the law; overseers or agriculturists of fifteen negroes; presidents, &c., of railroads, and mail contractors.

These are all the "classes" exempt by law. There is no exemption in the law for "telegraph operators, workmen in the mines, engineers, shoemakers, tanners, blacksmiths and millers," and if any of these "classes" have been exempted, it is the fault, not of the law, but of its administration. The law also gives discretionary power to the President, under the "public necessity" clause, to make "additional exemptions," but is it necessary to destroy the Press of the country to repair the evil consequences that may have arisen from maladministration rather than defective legislation?

There can be no frauds where exemption is granted by law; but when the detail system or the "public necessity" clause is substituted, the door is opened wide to every species of corruption. The widest latitude of exemption by law does less injury than the closest system of detail. The one is open to the inspection of every official and of every citizen; the other is known only to the detailed man and to the officer. There can be no fraud in the former; there has been much in the latter. Had the President recommended the Congress to abandon all details and substitute a wider range of exemption, he would have suggested a measure for the suppression of fraud and corruption.

For sixty years the Richmond Enquirer has existed, a newspaper, free, unbought, unpurchasable, and never shall it exist otherwise with our consent. The support we have heretofore given the President, and the cause has been conscientious and free; no other support can we exercise. If the Congress considers that the bone and muscle of the press are worth more than its brains to the cause, send us all to the ranks—there we may do some service to the country, but as detailed editors we may become the tools, the minions of power, but we should cease to be the agencies of expression for a free people.

The press is not a "class;" it is an institution, as such recognized by enlightened opinion all over the world, and guarded as we have shown, by the power of the Constitution. Neither shoemaking, nor tanning, nor blacksmithing, nor millering, nor any other "classes" with which the President has connected the press, has any constitutional recognition. Religion and the Press, and popular petition, is the Trinity protected by the Constitution. When the President shall have succeeded in striking the central essence from this triune guard of public liberty, and deprived Religion of its organs and popular petition of its voice, he will have added not a hundred men to the army, but darkness will brood over the land, illuminated only by the rush-lights of pensioned and purchased papers edited by details.

The first step towards despotism will have been taken when the Press of the country is put under the control of the Executive details. The army will not receive one hundred recruits from this recommendation to substitute detail for exemption to the Press, but the world will soon learn what value to set upon the voice of a Press whose conductors owe their exemption from service to the favor of a detail.

Let it be remembered that unlimited and unrestrained power corrupted even the psalmist of Israel, and that, under "universally recognized paramount political duty of every member of society" to serve in the army, Uriah, the Hittite, was sacrificed to the guilty passions of King David, who sent him to the army with a letter to the commander, saying, "Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten and die," a fate easily visited on an obnoxious editor under the detail system.

Under the Virginia Bill of Rights the freedom of the Press is guaranteed. We do not believe that the State of Virginia will quietly permit her Press to be wholly destroyed. The only pleasure yet left to conductors of the Press is the kind and cheerful support given them by the people. They have uncomplainingly borne with all the embarrassments that have beset the Press, and aided and sustained us in all our difficulties. We do not believe they will permit this last disgrace to be visited upon the Press.
