The first sensation is usually a feeling of dry-ness and heat in the nose, and a frequent inclina-tion to sneezing. There is an inability to breathe freely, as the nose becomes stopped up, some-imes on one side and sometimes on the other. Soon a clear, watery, sorid discharge makes to appearance, excortating the nostrikann edges of the libs, which become red and somewhat wollen. After a lew days the discharge be-somes tinks, yellowish, extremely drequent, and continues to be a marked feature of the disease, and a source of much danger and the greatest omes unick, yellowish, extremely frequent, and continues to be a marked feature of the disease, and a source of much danger and the greatest annoyance. After more or less time it becomes purulent, highly offensive, and assumes an extremely feith door. It is usually so profuse as to require, when confined to the nosethe frequent application of the handkerchief, or if it doops into the throat, which is more particularly the case; while the body is in a horizontal position, constant expectoration and sometimes both. Sieep is frequently disturbed by a sensation of choking, caused by the presence of the discharge in the throat. Owing to the heat in the head, the watery portion of the secretion often evsporated upper part of the throat, in the shape of crusts or hardened lumps. The accumulation of these in or hardened imps. The accumulation of these in crustations produces. a feeling of discomfort, and narrows the mass! passages so as to embarrass respiration. there is a large number of drinking saloons on the principal streets of all other cities both east and west, the citizens cannot but approve of this movement. The less drinking a loons in any city the better for the citizens themselves, who become less exposed to temptation in this line in proportion as the means of temptation diminishes. Besides this the general appearance of the street will be vastly improved and the good order of the city will be more easily preserved, as it is the universal opinion of those who are conversant with such matters that drinking houses do not tend to enforce good order in a city.

The School of Design.—The School of Design for women will soon be put into active operation. Those who are engaged in the work are already-making the necessary preparations for that purpose. The young ladies will no doubt willingly patronize the establishment, as the agricultures to the scool was held on Friday afternoon at the office of Thomas M. Howe for the purpose of organization. C. Thanksgiving Dinner in the Army Further About the Pirate Florida

New York, Nov. 27.—It is ascertained that most of the persons who were engaged in the attempt to burn this city came from Canada, most of them from Toronto and vicinity. Most of the conspirators were officers in the rebel army and had served as guerrillas in Kentucky and Missouri. The movements of the peared in the character of travelers leasing rooms for a few days. They carried small black leather values, with a facetious name on the hotel books and carried their own baggage to the hotel

So far as discovered the fire at the As tor, Belmont, Howard, Lovejoy's, Tammany, Metropolitan, St. Nicholas, Fifth Avenue, United States, New England, Lalarge and St. James Hotels originated simultaneously. They fired the ho tels in the upper and lower parts of the city, and while the fire department and police had their attention attracted to these portions of the city they were to fire the hotels and other public buildings in the more central points The next step would have been to fire the shipping beginning with the hay barges along side of the ships and steam ers. During this three of the gang were to attempt the destruction of the iron clads now in the harbor. They had provided themselves with numerous appliances, among which was a large quantity of Greek fire. As nearly as possible these rticks were to be taken together or so close upon each other as to render detection by the police almost mpossible. The failure in nearly all the cases is attributed to the incendiaries neglecting to open the windows in every hotel. The windows and transoms were tightly closed, thus giving no sir to the fismes. The detectives say that the whole force detained for the work had not arrived. The time was fixed for December 4th, but fears of discovery and frastration led to a premature attempt. Orders have been issued for revising the enrollment during the present week. Volunteering is quite active at the Supervisors' office. The Times' Army of the Polomac special says of the late storm: Our entrenchments have suffered greatly, whole lines of pits being flooded. The bomb-proofs have been completely satphosphorus was found, and is like those erations, supplies, and means conferring ruined. The forts have sunk to a fearused by the incendiaries elsewhere.

At Winter Garden, a terrible panic was aspects the move is formidable, and it is earth has forced in the supporting and inner walls of logs. The roads, in some places, are considerably flooded, but no great damage has been done them, except the occasional carrying away of bridges.

The Herald's Army of the Potomac special says: The supplies for the soldiers' Thanksgiving dinner arrived promptly and were generally distributed. The supply was ample and very acceptable to the soldiers. The execution of a deserter took place n the 10th corps on Friday morning. The Times Washington special says Eleven officers of the pirate Florida, who were taken from the Old Capitol prison several days ego and sent to Point Lookout, have been forwarded to Admiral Porter, who directed that they be turned over to Captain Collins, of the steamer Wachusett, lying at Hamp ton Roads. It is thought by some that this transfer indicates that the Florida and her officers and crew are to be returned to the jurisdiction of Brezil.

The Herdid's Washington special says: The attention of the State Department has been occupied during the week by interviews with the diplomatic corps concerning the seizure of the Florida. Lord Lyons seems to be the only European representative interested in the matter. He spent the greater portion of the day with Secretary Seward. reference to our prisoners now being ex. The result of the conference has not yet transpired, but the impression pre-vails in official circles that the matter will eventually be set at rest by a simple apology to the Brazilian Government. The Commercial's Washington spec ial says: It is not certain that Sherman intended to occupy Macon, as his advance on that city may only have been a feint. It is probable he has passed east of Macon, and seized the sail east of Macon, and seized the railroad at Gordon, and by this course he will be dence, you can once get on the track and as follows: Men reduced to living skel, enabled to pass eastward more rapid-
