The Secretary of State, Mr. Seward has since, his connection with the Administration of Mr. Lincoln, been singulariy unfortunate; his diplomatic en_ counters with foreign ministers, have been weak and halting, while his predictions. regarding our own domestic relations have been ridiculous. In his Anburn speech, the evening prior to the late Presidential election, Mr. Seward made a speech to his towns. men, in which he ventured the follow. wing prediction; he said:

"You have sleady abundant evidnces of the exhaustion os the rebels, but not yet evidence of their consciousness of that exhaustion. Those evidences will appear immediately on the announcement of the re-election of Abraham Lin-colo We do not quote these limes because we rejoice in Mr. Sewards being mis. taken; we would far rather see the reb. els exhausted than invigorated, because we would then begin took for the end of the rebellion; we quote them merely "Southern heart" is sufficiently "fired" to show how, the ablest man connected now; and needs no additional fuel to with the Administration, is willing to the Christian world, to human nature, trifle with even his nearest neighbors and to history. It is our duty to truth and friends. Instead of the South to place on record the facts which show being exhausted, she is still powertal our enemies to have treated with con- or controlling such products therein, and defient; so much so as to compel thempt the maxims of humanity and the are authorized to convey the products to the so is the places which have been or for more men, in the most frantic manner. MR. J. E. MURDOCH, CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE Has replaced the old worn-out inventions for coloring the hair, which the better experience of years had proved to be defective and deleterious. Unlike the compounds that MAKE WAR upon the health of the hair, and dry up and consume the juices which sustain it, this mild, genial and perfect dye is found to be a vitalizing as well as a coloring agent. These pills, as a first effect, act upon the arterial blood, increasing the circulation, by which impurities are deposited in the veins, and they throw off such collections into the bowels, which organs, by the energy derived from Brandreth's Fills, expel them from the system. When first used, the Fills may occasion griping, and even make the patient feel worse. This is an excellent sign, and shows the disease will soon be cured.
