PILES OF

TWENTY YEARS STANDING

CURED.

Below will be found a certificate from the one o most respectable citizens of Wilkins township in regard to Dr. Keyser's Lindsay' Blood Searcher The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER:—I became afflicted with Piles about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me or work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could do at anything account of them, they came o out on me as large as a hickory nut. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that feli in my way, but I could not get cured, sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterwar they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors who visited me at my house and gave me some medicine but it would not do, I could not get well. Over a year ago not an advertisement of your Lindsay's Blood-Searcher, made by yourself—when you sold it t me you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be renewed by the medicine before I got well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me and used it according to your directions. I then call d to see you again, when you said I could n expect much benefit from one bottle. I bought it on, one bottle at a time, until I ha bottles. After this quantity had been used, I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortur d me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years past. I have been well now for six months, and there is noappearance of a return of the disease; I can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles coming down and hurting me. I can pitch hay, chop wood, lift, or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I ound out your Blood-Searcher I kept on taking until I got entirely well. I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was and do not know the value of your medicine. You may publish this if you like—I live in Wilkins Township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call on me. ELLIOTT DAVIS.

December 26th, 1863.

☞ Look out. The name of DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER on the cover of the bottle and pasted over the cork; also for his stamp on the United States sta mp on the top of the bottle to prevent being imposed upon by a spurious article which is in the market.

MEDICAL.

MANHOOD,

THIRD EDITION, FIFTY THOUSAND, 96 pages, cloth covers, by

Robert E. Bell, M. D.,

Member of the roya College of Surgeons, London, addressed to youth, the married and those CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

Sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of ten cents A careful perusal of this small book has been a boon to the afflicted, and has saved thousands from a life of misery and an untimely grave. It treats on the evils of Youthful Indiscretion Self-Abuse, Seminal weakness, Emissions, Sexual Diseases, Genital Debility, Loss of Power, Nervousness, Premature Decay, Impotence, &c., &c., which unfit the sufferer from fulfilling the OBLIGATIONS OF MARRIAGE, and illustrates the means of cure by the use of

DR. BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS,

and other treatment necessary in some cases, and which never fails to cure, and can be relied on. They do not nauseate the stomach, or render the breath offensive, and they can be USED WITHOUT DETECTION.

They do not interfere with business pursuits, and are speedy in action. No change of diet is necessary. They are warranted in all cases to be effectual in removing and curing the disease. Upwards of two thousand cases are on record that have been cured by using BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS, and certificates can be shown from many that have used them.

No Case of Failure ever Occurs.

Upwards of a Hundred Physicians use them extensively in their practice, and they cannot effect cures without them.

IMPORTANT NOTICE,

BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS

Are the original and only genuine Specific Pills There are a host of imitators—BEWARE OF THEM.

These are Warranted.

They are adapted for male or female, old or young, and are the only reliable remedy known for the cure of all diseases arising from

YOUTHFUL INDISCRETION.

In all Sexual Diseases, as Gonorrhea, Stricture, Gleet, and in all Urinary and Kidney complaints,

They Act Like a Charm!

Relief is experienced by taking a single box and from four to six boxes generally effect a cure.

Sold by Druggists generally, in boxes containing six pills, price $1 or six boxes, $5; also in large boxes, containing four of the small, price $3.

If you need the Book, or the Pills, cut out this advertisement for reference; and if you cannot procure them of your druggist, do not be imposed upon by any other remedy, but enclose the money in a letter to the proprietor,

DR. J. BRYAN, BOX 5079,
76 Cedar Street, N. Y.

who will take all risk if properly directed, and will send the Pills, secured from observation, by return mail, post Paid.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose they would not let one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Bell and M. Paul Ricord devoted years to the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my general success; but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhea and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. A Landlord Outwitted.

Ben. W. Morrison was one of those free-and-easy, good-hearted, humorous fellows that was always ready to crack a joke or perpetrate a "sell."

Some fifteen years ago Ben was traveling in Butler county on professional business. The roads were tolerably bad; and worst of all the stage drivers and the landlord at a certain hotel where they stopped for dinner, had a understanding with each other like this: the passengers were taken in to dine, and when cleverly seated, the coach would furiously dash up to the door, and the driver would call for his passengers, stating that he could not delay a minute on account of making his time.

They would rush out, leaving their meals half finished, for fear of being left. For the half finished meal they were charged half a dollar. The victuals were kept for the next load of passengers, when the skinning process was repeated.

Ben had heard of this place, and when they arrived at the hotel he set his wits to work to see if he could get the value of his money.

The bell rang for dinner, and the crowd rushed in. They had hardly got comfortably seated when the coach reined up before the door, and the driver vociferously shouted:

"Passengers all aboard—can't wait but five minutes."

A general rush was made, but Ben sat still, and ate his dinner very composedly. The stage drove off and left him, but he seemed to care very little about it.

Having disposed of his dinner, he was enjoying the luxury of a long nine in the side room, when the landlord approached him, saying:

"I—beg your pardon, sir, but did you see a set of silver tea-spoons on the table when you went to dinner?"

"I did sir."

"Well, they are missing—can't be found."

"Ah, yes," replied Ben; "one of the passengers gathered them up—I saw him do it."

"Would you know him again?" gasped the landlord.

"Certainly I would," replied Ben, with great coolness.

"Will you point him out to me if I hitch up my horse and buggy, and overtake the stage?"

"Certainly I will."

Boniface was ready in a few minutes, and getting Ben in with him, drove like Jehu for seven miles, till he overtook the driver. The coach stopped, the driver looked frightened and everybody wondered to see the landlord covered with mud, and his horse covered with sweat.

Ben jumped out of the buggy, and got into the stage, when the driver thinking that he had hired the landlord to bring him after, was on the point of driving off when the latter yelled out—

"Is that passenger in there?"

"Yes," replied Ben.

"Are you sure?"

"Yes, sir-ee," shouted our batchelor friend.

"Which one is it?"

"It's me," replied Ben, with a grin.

"You!" thundered Boniface, "what the d—l did you with the spoons?"

"I put them in the coffee pot; you will find them all safe," replied Ben, with a curious twinkle in his eye.

"Sold, by ginger, by that darned Yankee!" yelled the landlord, whilst the passengers roared in laughter, and putting the whip to his horse drove back, resolving to give the passengers ever afterwards ample time for dinner.

A Moorish Martyr.

Nearly three hundred years ago, a Moorish Christian, named Geronymo, was a captive in Algiers. His captors were engaged in building a mud fort for the defence of the city, and, after many efforts to induce him to abjure his faith, they threatened to bury him in the embankment if he refused to comply. Chained and guarded, he was brought to the wall of the unfinished fort, when the Pasha accosted him thus:

"Hello, dog, wherefore wilt thou not be a Mussulman?"

"I will not be one in anything," replied the martyr of God. "I am a Christian, and I shall be one still."

"Ah well," said the pasha, "if thou wilt not become a Mussulman, look there?" and he showed him a mould for a block of mud. "Look there; I will bury thee alive there."

"Do what you wilt," returned the holy man, admirable courage; "I am prepared for all things. The prospect of death will not make me abandon the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Enraged at his firmness, the Pasha fulfilled his threat; Geronymo was buried alive beneath the earth of which the bank was built. The Christian slaves who witnessed the atrocity were unable to prevent it or to remove the body after death; but they made a record of the fact, which was handed down to the time when the French were masters of Algeria, and the old-time earthworks were demolished. On the 27th of December, 1863, the soldiers employed in the demolition of the rampart facing the road, perceived upon the removal of the rubbish produced by the excavation of the mines extending lengthwise within a block of mud, an excavation inclosing a human skeleton, which was visible from the optical region to the articulation of the tibia with the femur.

In short, excepting the upper portion of the head and the lower portion of the legs, the whole body was visible. Believing the remains to be those of the martyr Geronymo, the officer in charge and took a cast in plaster of the cavity in which they were found. The result was a perfect model of a Moorish figure and face, with the eyes closed and a strange pathos in the expression, leaving no doubt that it was a reproduction of the martyred Moor. Photographs from this cast are now to be seen in Paris, and a wood cut from one of them, bearing the same mark, of, mournful resignation, is found in a late number of Once a Week.

The Pension List.

The Pension List, which in Democratic days was a small affair, has been swollen so that it now contains 51,000 names, who draw from the Government over $5,500,000 a year. As for the future, no trustworthy estimate can be made of the amount of money that will be required eventually to meet the obligations thus assumed by the Government, to our soldiers and seamen. The Pension Report adds:

The list of pensioners is constantly undergoing both increase and dimunition, and at present and for months to come it must be rapidly augmented, even should peace be restored without further hostilities. It is estimated that more than seven millions of dollars will be required to satisfy the claims accruing under the pension laws during the current fiscal year.

It is recommended that the National Banks be required to perform the duties of pension agents.
