cy of Phantasmagoria.

·How red you look!' exclaims the Atpulse of a child, the existence of sever. The poor woman tries to smile as she replies, 'le there anything strange in having a color after dancing."

complexion approximates to that of a lob ster, after its immersion in boiling water. She appeals to her next neighbor and ascertains it to be 'a weak invention of the ene-

A young gentleman having been so forwhich the waiter is bearing with very tan- Duke de Hermillo received three poniard talizing rapidity, offers one to the wife wounds as he was getting into his carriage, of our Attentive Husband. The latter de- and expired on the spot. The ministers tects his partner in the very act of rising a of justice in both countries are engaged in spoon surcharged with a portion of the con- investigating these tragical events, which tents of the whip glass to her lips. In an have occasioned the deepest emotions in instant, he is at her side, and with an air of many noble families. triumph removes the dangerous glass from her fair hand. 'What were you thinking of?' he asks with a half tender, half reproachful air I was going to eat the ice;' replies the pouting fair. 'Not one particle, my love. Ice after dancing? Monstrous! You are too warm -the ice too cold. It would be the death of you.'

-end they are eating ices.'

'These ladies may do precisely as they If they choose to tempt Proviplease. dence, it is no concern of mine. An ice! oh! no indeed. I know your constitution. And with these very conciliatory remarks, the gentleman parades before his wife, sipping the interdicted luxury, with tantalizing spoon and smack most satisfactory. Nor does he hesitate to say, 'Excellent! upon my soul-most excellent!' In a few moments, the orchestra commence the prelude of one of Strauss' magnificent waltzes. The lady, who is passionately ford of waltzing, accepts the arm of a young gentleman who is reputed a good waltzer and they spin round the saloon to the admiration of the speciators; but at the same time, refuse to declare any fixed no sooner does our Attentive Husband perceive the agreeable occupation of the las dy, than he rushes towards her, at the imminent risk of being prostrated by the throng of happy dancers, at d seizing her ciples to public scrutiny. by the arms, exclaims, 'Wha' are you afortunate I came in time to prevent the continuance of this absordity!'

'But my dear, you know I am passionately fond of waltzing."

consulted many medical gen lemen upon the subject, and they all assure me that waltzing is positively ruinous to ladies of permit it.'

But, my dear sir,' ventures the young gentleman, 'just a few turns.' 'Once or twice round the saloon,' chimes in the lady, with a supplicating air. But the husband is inexorable. He takes his wife by the arm, leads her to a seat and throws a cloak, a mantilla, a relisse, whatever comes to hand, over her shoulders, and then fo'ds his arms a la Napoleon, and surveys her with a look of tranquil triumph.

The lady dares not murmur. It would be bad taste to quarrel in public, and so as the Attentive Husband is the best of char acters, she is looked upon by all the married women as being supremely happy.-The supper is at hand, She has learned from the lips her fair hostess, that the ladies only will be seated at the table, and she anticipates a pleasant repast, free from the assiduous attentions of her husband Alas! how futile are cher hopes. About fifteen minutes before supper is announced he cheerfully presents himself, bearing his wife's cloak, in which he carefully envelopes her beloved form, while with an affable smile, he thus addresses her: 'My darling, the carriage is waiting for us at the

What! are you going so son?'

'So soon, my child! It is quite late.' But supper will be ready in a moment. 'Aha! the very reason for your going .-You might be tempted to eat something; and suppers are always unhealthy, particularly for you to-night,' he adds, with a cheerful chuckle. 'Come my dear, the carriage is waiting.' He draws her arm within his own-that most Attentive Gentleman. She could weep like Eve upon the threshold of Paradise, as she casts a 'longing look behind, upon the brilliant supper room, now glittering and glowing with chandeliers, and plumes, and flowers, and diamonds, and bright eyes, and happy faces. It fades like a vision, and as she enters the gloomy carriage, she gilently records a vow to live henceforth the life of a nun, and give up dinner parties; balls and all other festivi-are quite rare. Romance in Real Life.

The Paris Globe furnishes the follow ing Nepolitian romance: The Countess Mulfioli was left a rich and beautiful widow, at the age of twenty-two. Innumerable suitors came; but the Duke de Her . reciprocated. Their union was agreed upon, and deferred only fill the term of widowhood had expired. One day, at a Sete the young Counters took the lancy of

You should never have accepted. You consulting a fortune teller, who was there the principles on which it wishes to regard for the entertainment of the gues's. He. ize a party, will it tell us the measure sup-After the next dance, the moment her as usual, examined the lines of her hand, ure of her husband appears like one of those phantage that crice and trem plantage that crice are trem plantage to the crice are trem pl phantoms that arise so staringly by the agen- gates of the temple of happiness, but you the danger that they would encounter in ewill never enter, and will die in dispair." lecting to office such men as we have enu-The lady was deeply affected by this pretentive Husband, with the mournful air of diction; and all the affectionate soothings a watchful mother, who suspects from the of her lover were scarcely adequate to restore her mind to tranquility. Time and passion, however, had obliterated the impression, when the Duke de Hermillo went to visit Rome, and the Countess retired to No, not a little color I admit, but upon a convent, anxiously waiting his return. my soul, I never saw you look so feverish Days, weeks and months elapsed without the reappearance of her betrothed. At with burning shame and confusion those who 'An idea suddenly flashes across the mind last came from him the following cruei e- have denounced him as a "traiter" for his vetos of pistle: "Madame! we deceived ourselves the U.S. Bank. It would seem that Mr. Tyler palling that it visibly deepens the carnation in believing that we were destined for wrote a letter in the summer of 1840, distinctly of her cheek. Something whispers that her each other. To-morrow I shall be married to the Princess Maria Doria. Let us NEVER SIGN A CHARTER FOR SUCH AN forget our childish fancies, but ever remain friends." This was the stroke of fate; for, TION REMAINED IN ITS PRESENT FORM on finishing the letter, she sank to the The fact that such a letter as this was written in ground, and was taken up a tifeless corpse On the same evening, her father left Na tunate as to capture a couple of ice creams ples for Rome; and five days after, the

DAILY MORNING PUST TES. PHILLIPS & WM. H. SMITH, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

FITTSBURGH, SATURDAY, SEPT. 24, 1842

See First Page. The Workingmen.

The self-constituted organ of the Work. But t'ese ladies have all been dancing ingmen cannot be induced to declare the principles in favor of which it would enlist the workingmen of the city and county, but attempts to get over the questions we pro pounded to it, by telling an anecdote about a colored man and his master. This may satisfy the editor for a "come off" for the time being, but the workingmen whose votes are solicited, want'something more tangible than negro jokes or unmeaning twattle about the "shackles" of parties. The recent exa "generous confidence," on designing demprofessions of regard for their interests, but political policy, has taught them to be wary of such politicians, and to withhold their favors from all who refuse to trust their prinbout? What are you thinking of? How cates of the rights of the workingmen, and received an answer immediately, in which the have on all occasions, defended them against the insults of the party that believes that wealth should purchase its possessors polit-Very likely; but it does not agree with ical as well as social privileges not enjoyed you. You will be sick to-morrow. I have by the operatives of the country. One of our strongest reasons for being democrats, is the protection which the principles of a nervous temperament; so really I cannot that party give to the interests of the producing portion of the community, and the honest energy with which it opposes every ef fort on the part of the aristocracy, to deprive the workingmen of the privileges and rights so clearly guaranteed to them by the Con-

Examine the measures advocated and carried out by the democratic administrations, and see if they are inimical to the in terests of the workingmen. It cannot be shown. But, on the contrary, every important measure recommended and acted on by the administrations of Jackson and Van Bu- his late views of a Bank. He thought the counren, were calculated to bring the "greatest good to the greatest number,"& to curb the insolent encroachments on their rights, by a class of speculators, who were struggling o obtain legislative powers that would give them the privilege of filching from the producers the profits of their labor.

The course pursued by the democratic party in our own county, is sufficient evidence of its attrchment to the interests of the workingmen, and its conviction of their honesty and competency to discharge the duties of official stations. We have no recollection of a ticket ever having been nominated by this county, of which a majority were not workingmen, and this year, the entire ticket, with one exception, are workingmen in the broadest meaning of the word. We think even the Journal cannot suppose that any of the following candidates are hos tile to the interests of the workingmen:

John Stevenson, Farmer, Victualler, John Anderegg, Mechanic, Wm. Karns. Farmer, James Connor, Cabinet Maker, Thos. Farley, Printer, W. H. Smith, Farmer, Jas. A. Gibson, Farmer,

J. E. McCabe. These gentlemen have always been entestive Husband? Happily, the species is gaged in laborious pursuits, and in sustaining the principles of, the democratic party, have felt that they were sustaining the only ask the Advocate but a single questionprinciples that fully recognized the equal rights of the workingmen. Mr. Brackenridgethe, only man on the ticket, who, strictly speaking, cannot be called a working. man, is an honest democrat, and warmly millo was the only one whose sighs were supports all the great measures of the party in the triumph of which the welfare of the workingmen are so deeply interested.

If the Journal cannot be induced to declare in France is twenty thousand.

ported by the democratic party, that are inmerated above?

Important Disclosures. A correspondent of the New York Union, Mr. Noah's paper who signs himself "Haon," and writes from Washington, under date of September 17, maks some important statements, which, if true, must give a new aspect to the relations of John Tyler with the federal party, and will cover declaring that, were he President, HE COULD none of the most steadfast, we do not like INSTITUTION, WHILST THE CONSTITU answer to questions put by his political friends. by Mr. Tyler, is proof positive that the whigs anticipated the possibility of Mr. Tgler's succeeding to the Presidency; but notwithstanding his candid avowal ct op nion, they were willing to vite for him, and trust to the hope of dragooning him into their measures, should he ever reach the Executive chair. Where, then, are the "traitors" and

But it seems that Mr. Clay's opinion was also asked and awarded. With characteristic frankness he "declared all his views unchanged" in regard to a Bank. But with a degree of deception which was unworthy of Lim, he "was willing to say little or nothing about it now ' And so, the grand plot to cheat and betray the people of the United States, formed at the Harrisburgh Convention was left undisturbed.

The name of Mr. Biddle of this city is used in · Huon's" letter. Can a knowledge of Mr. Tyler's views, obtained through the letter alluded to, have kept Mr. Biddle silent while all his fellow parti zans in this city, were d nouncing Tyler with double-distilled bitterness? It may be that Mr Biddle is withdrawing from politics, and therefore has refrained from mingling in the discussion on either side-but this much is certain, he has not taken any active part against the President.

We have no doubt Mr. Biddle will deny the matter stated in this letter if it be not true. If it goes uncontradicted the public must believe that John Tyler's silence on the Bank question in perience the people have had in bestowing 1840, was involuntary, and that circumstance wi'l render harmless the poisoned durts of the retain. agogues who seek their suffrages, with loud ers of Clay. We have selected the most imporant passages of the letter in the I nion:

[From our Correspondent]. WASHINGTON, SEPT. 17, 1842. "During the time which elapsed between the ominations at Harrisburgh and the election, and while Congress was in session, it was considered necessary by some that the views of Mr. Tyler igon a National Bank, should be obtained. For his purpose the Honorable Henry Wisc was se We have always been the warm advo- lected to address Mr. Tvl r on the subject, and that his views were unchanged on the President, HE COULD NEVER SIGN A CHAR. TER FOR SUCH AN INSTITUTION WHILST THE CONSTITUTION REMAINED IN ITS PRESENT FORM This he as plainly, unequi vocally stated, that it might be submitted to the Whigs of Congress and through them to the na-This letter was shown by Mr. Wise to Mr. Biddle of Pittsburgh and others, leading Whig members of Congress at that time; and it was left for them to say, whether the letter should be publish THEY DECIDED THAT MR. TY. ed or not. LER'S LETTER SHOULD NOT GO BEFORE

THE PUBLIC. The reason for this was obvious. They had determined to run their candidate upon one sim ple negative principle, and that was opposition to the Sub-Treasury, without saying a word for or against a National Bink. Many of the leaders had declared that the Bank was a mill stone that would drown any party foolish enough to adopt it as a measure, and hence their non-committal

It now became rec ssary to ascertain the views of Mr. Clay on the same subject, and his declaraions were as clear and positive as were Mr. Tyu's. Mr. Clay declared himself unchanged in try required such an institution—that it was entirely constitutional; but that under present circumstances he was wi ling to say little or nothing about it now, and would writ an expression of the cople on the subject at some future time. No .. this, too, was suppressed, and the battle of 1840 was fought simply under the banner of op positi m to the Sub-Treasury, without the question of a Bank bei g before the public, except so far as it was charged on the Whigs by the Democrats and by the former repe'led as forming no part of the Whig political creed. The first move at the extra session of 1841, was to kick over all former professions and grasp at the Bank as the ne plus ultra of universal good, without waiting an expression from the people on that subject: The result is known, and the thunder of the democracy at the fall elections of 1841, show most clearly where they supposed they were during the contest of the previous year."

The Neutral Press has a painful time to get along without displeasing any body. The proprietor of the Chronicle was system, and Mr. Clay's presence is necescharged with suppressing a Clay paper, and sary to take care of it. Will he do it by in his defence, in order to put the whigs into a good humor, he has a fling at Col. Johnson. And so, having as he supposes, equally offended both parties, he thinks number, it does not bring much spirit with neither will be displeased. It is rather va queer way to atone for an injury to one man, by insulting his neighbor.

"We must claim some credit for them the whigs] for having, in spite of the most strennous opposition of the Locofocos, at length passed a Tariff Bill which will afford the Protection desired."-Advocate.

And you prefer a most unjust and unfounded claim. We will for the present Could the late Tariff Bill have been passed, if Henry Clay, the Atlas of Whiggery, had retained his seat in the Senate?

A Mrs. Bryant, in Maryland, has raised peaches this geason over three quarters of a pound in weight.

The number of deaf and damb persons

Has the Gazette made any enquiry of Mr. Darsie, respecting the extra pay he collected for Mr. Lightner; or has that gentleman explained to the editor why he was instrumental in fleecing the state dollars, (for which not the slightest service was rendered, after evincing such defender of his Country, therefore, matter of the same kind? Some suppose otic veteran to the city. specting extra pay, and that the change of guished guest, his notions of the right and wrong of the published in the daily papers of the city. matter. Although we know Mr. D. to be to believe that another change has taken place in his opinions, and we would rath, er suppose that the money he drew from the Treasury of the state, on Isaac Lightner's unrighteous warrant, he deposited in the Treasury of Allegheny county, as he did with his own extra pay in 1840. Is this the way of it, Mr. White; or did Mr. Darsie aid Isaac Lightner, in carrying off to Missouri, one hundred and twenty dollars of the money of the people of Pennsylvania, to which he was not entitled? This matter must be explained; the people want to know if they are to be taxed to furnish they choose to take a trip to the west.

"Investigating Committee" respecting dishorest public servants.

Segars.—The Segars sold at TUTTLE's Medical Agency, 86 Fouth st., require no puffing to establish their excellence,-a mere sight of his Regalias, Cazadores, or Principes, will convince a smoker that to inhale their fragrance is the heighth of luxury. Those who chews to chaw-a practice which we by no means recommend-can procure first rate "Honey Dew" at the same establishment.

The Steam Boat Cleveland, Capt. HEMPHILL, after being repaired and thoroughly renovated, is again performing Private bills, Senate, her regular trips. She is an excellent craft, is well officered, and in every respect is worthy of public patronage.

The Times in Buffalo .- Getting good The merchants are doing a healthy business. The harbor for the last few weeks has been crowded with the products of the West and a run is anticipated. Merchants passing through on their way to N. York and seem to be flush of the ready. So says the Morning Gazette.

A reward has been offered by the authorities of New York, for the arrest of the persons concerned in the brutal murder of M'Coy, at the late prize fight. We carnestly hope they may be caught and p unished severely.

Lord Morpeth was in Albany the last heard of him.

When is a woman not a woman? When she's a suckling.

Legrand, secretary of state for Maryland is out of immediate danger. He is said to ed to 281,288 760 silver rubles. In the course of be partially deranged.

The N. Y. Chronicle is a first rate pa per - before our scizzors gets into it. Huzza for the Lalies - The ladies of Gloucester are about to get up a grand Mass Suffrage clam bake on Acote Hill,

The annual income of the Marquis of Waterford from land alone is 75,600l.

About $125,000 in specie were received at New Ocleans, during the forty- ight hours ending on the 5th inst.

Seventeen new cases of yellow fever at New Orleans on the 6th inst., and four Plain Talk.

The Spirit of Liberty thus discourseth of Henry Cay and the Tariff, in its notice of the new Clay organ.

"The Herald takes the ground that the present tariff is a revival of the protecting undertaken a hard task, the election of the great compromiser,' alias sacrificer, to the Presidency, and judging from the first it to this great work. To connect the name of Henry Clay with protection, and to call the present tariff a revival of the protecting policy, convicts the Herald of a want of information or of honesty; which disqualifies it to herald forth political truth. We say fearlessly, that Mr. til the present, opposed to protection, and that the present tariff is a tariff for revenue and not protection; the protection which it affords is incidental. We cannot bid this new daily God speed in heralding forth the political jesuitism of which the first number gives evidence."

Toeing the Mark .- Will you marry me?' said an eccentric looking youth, sticking his head under a girl's bonnet last Sunday morning, in the St. Louis cathedral.

Yes, I will cuss your ugly pictur, just as quick as you knows on, said the girl; and the young people were married .- N.

Reception of Col. R. M. Johnson. At a meeting of the Officers of the Pittsburgh Volunteer Legion held on Tuesday evening, 20th inst. Lient. Col. E. Trovillo was appointed chair man, aud Captain Robert Berter Secretary. On motion of the Secretary, the following pre amble and resolutions were unanimously adopted Whereas, information has recently been receivto the amount of one hundred and twenty ed that our city is soon to be favored with a visit suldier's welcome should, always await the heroic

Resolved, that the Pittsburgh Volunteer Legion honest scruples in 1840, in relation to a will parade on the occasion, and escort the patri-Resolved, that the several Volunteer Companies that the fact of Mt Darsie not being a cendidate this fall, has altered his views re-

Resolved, that the proceedings of this meeting h's position before the people has changed be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and ELIJAH TROVILIO, > ROBT. PORTER, Sec'y. Pittsburgh, Sept. 20th 1842.

The American Minister at St. Peters-burgh, formerly aid to Gen. Harrison— at the latest dates, to 9,570,0001 or. was invited to a military review by the Emperor, not long ago. Not being able to procure a horse of sufficient bravery a great bank expansion, which must and beauty for the splendid appearance he intended to make among the representa- by reducing the rate of interest on the tives of crowned heads, in the livery stables of St. Petersburgh, he borrowed a charger from the Emperor's stud, and charger from the Emperor's stud, and paper, of Sept 4 which we have just with the Thames uniform conspicuous on the Acadia, states that the demand; his person, he pranced and caracolled amid the assembled thousands. But alas! for the reasonable hopes of man! The gallant colonel was soon unhorsed, and his steed outfits for federal office holders, whenever ran masterless from the field. He was again mounted, and with no better fate; We would again ask the Gazette to and five successive times, from five sucgive us an extract from the Report of the cessive horses, he bit the ground! and then tion that no very favorable opinion could be entertained by the Cossacks of even a hero of the Thames, who could not perform the first duty of a cavalry officer .-

and hold on to his horse's back. The Money Voted by Congress. The Clerk of the House of Representatives, in compliance with an Act of Congress, has published in the National Intelligencer, a detailed state ment of the appropriations made during the late session of Congress, specifying the amount and object of each. The following is a recapitu'ation

99 363 293 53 Civil and Diplomatic list, 6 405.280 36 Army, 6.774.405 42 Navv. 278,000 00 Fortifications, 730 776 00 Indian Department, treaties, &c. 1.300,077 47 Private bills, House of Representatives, 37,585 01 62, 773 03

$24, 952,190 82 Twenty Hours Later from Europe.

ARRIVAL OF THE ACADIA. The steam ship Acadia arrived at Boston or unday afternoon at 2 o'cleck. The news she brought was mostly anticipated by the Western. The Acadia landed 23 passengers at Hali'ax, received 12 at that port, and ought 52 to Boston.

There had been no alteration in cotton at Liverpool. Sales on the 3d inst. reached 2500 bags, mostly to the trade The best brands of flour advanced six pence on be given. he 31. It was a spurt only. It had been clearly escertained that the harvest would be a full aver-The disturbances in the manufacturing and mining districts were considered as over, yet town of Lawrencehurg (twenty fire some symptoms of turbulence occasionally appeared, and the people generally seemed indisposed to return to work until absolutely driven to it by personal suffering. Agitation was still going The Augsburg Gazette, of the 24th ult., state hat an extensive conspiracy, having for its object of the insolvent laws, and that sa the overthrow of the present government has been discovered in Serviu. Several persons of importance have been placed under arrest. According to the Berlin Guzette, the public debt of Russia, in the beginning of 1842, amountthe preceding year 19812,289 rubles of the Five per C nt. Loan, and 20,617,276 of the Six per Cent. Loan, were redeemed. The paper money in circulation had not diminished. On the 1st of January last it was 595,776,310 rubles.

The British and North American Royal Mail Steampicket Company's new steam-ship, Hibernia, will be launched at Greenock on the 8th current. She is two hundred tons farger than the of meipient decay, poli-hes and off present vessels, and of great r power. Captain Judkins, of the Columbia, will command her -Capt. Edward C. Miller, formerly of the Acadia, takes command of the Columbia.

The Cotton crop of Florida this season will Foreign Clippings. From the Liverpool Correspondent of the N. Y.

It is announced to appear in October, in 2 vol umes, and will be called "American Notes for General Circulation," On die that it will be dreadfully satrical. An Ir sh attorney, called Leonard, is coming out in Power's characters. He is said to be a very clever actor, and has an inimitable brogue. Daniel O'Connell declines to be re-elected Lord

Mayor of Dublin. The British have met with more reverses in India, and with a disastrous deseat at the Cape of eace over the Teeth and Gums; 15

Brougham and his wife, of the old Olympic, are on the wing for the United States.

The crops are abundant all over the kingdom.

RECEPTION OF

Col. R. M. JOHNSON. At a meeting of the Committee of Arrangement held at the House of Cor. TROVILLO, on Wednesday, the 21st inst. the following resolutions was

Resolved, that the several volunteer companies of Pittsburgh and vicinity are requested to co-op-Giay shas been, from the "compromise" un erate in the formation of a military and civiq procession, to escort the Hero of the Thames to the County Line on the morning of the 27th inst. at Pittsburgh, when and where you 8 o'clock, where he will be received by the glorions sons of the Star in the West.

It was resolved that the Hon. W. Wilkins be appointed to address Col. Johnson on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh and adjoining county on his arrival in this city at the Exchange Hotel, Temperance and Christian Amen on Monday the 26th, P. M.

Resolved, That the Citizens of the City and County of Allogheny, without distinction of Par ty, are respectfully invited to attend, to participate in the proceedings for the reception of the ALL ARE INVITED-LET ALL ATTEND.

RODY PATTERSON, Chairman. John Birningham, Scory's.

John Tyler like Balaam's age the Portland Argus auswen, talks more sense than those drive him.

Commercial No

IMMOI

MBER 24

me Affa

R. M. John

by notices

e preparat

eome.

to rece

county einate in se great

him to the ich he wi

-We saw

of which stood, bu

"the C nry Clay"- alle further to the bar

OCTRINE

TORACE GI

in como

'Laws of

tion of the maper with culation.

letters

d to sec

city. Bu

it on p it if it iow who ying the

are to ent that ed in fac

d Bridges

he held in

of 331

WATER IN

ARRIV

Clobe an e very

the exp

cle.

The British Mouey On the 20th of August, the f England amounted to 20.351 0'c of ninety eight million dollars, ber million dollars more than they re of July. But while the circulation of Bogland increased, that of the p Stock banks diminished, so that crease of paper issues in the three in not in the course of the month, to This decrease in the circulation and Joint Stock banks, is attributed the troubles in the mining and districts. It may be partly owing to and partly owing to a plan which England laid some time since, for planting the circulation of the Prin Stock banks by it own notes, so as: ultimately, the only bink of issue, The bullion in the Bink of East million dollars -a greater sum the merican banks now possess. This of bullion and the abundance of the counteracted by other causes. The the 31, was moderate, and amount 500 bags, nearly all o which had the trade. No change in prices h Great complaints are made of the tra le in France and Germany.

OUR WEEKLY

The Mercury and Ma Will be published this day, and great varie y of intere tog foreign news, miscellaneous matters, he The fight in New York, Indignation Procession in N Maine Elections.

Opposition Ticke', The Workingman, The Tariff. Florida News-More Murder Proceedings of Sapreme Coun

The Abduction Plat. Decisions in Bankruptev. The Iron Ship. Cabinet Changes, And a great rariety of Tales, h

&c., &c., &c. Price 6 cents at Attention, Legi You are hereby notified to me place (on Liberty street,) on Me nst. at 1 o'clock?. M.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 24th 1842.

O SMOKERS AND CHEWERS of Regulius, Cazadores, Printes. Half Spanish Cigars, and his rate is Tobacco may always he found at T

BOND AND MORTGABE

STATE OF INDIANA .- For land is about twenty miles from the nati) on the road to Indianapolis near said land. Apply to Mr. Ha

Market. CREDITORS take notice that Monday, the 24th day of October n me and my creditors at the cour when and where you may attend, it was NELSON CAMPANY, Letter Dresse

THORN'S TENBERRY TOO Teeth, their indispensable use, and decay, has ted to many inventions for et how to pre serre them in a state beauty, to the lates periods of ex niknown until the preparation. It forms a pure tincio etable ingredients, and is possessed odor. It eradicates tartar from the which it gives a pearl like whiteness fecting properties, possesses the virial As an Anti Scorbutic, the Gun edent powers; Scurvey is erudita heathy action and redress is induced notice of the medicl practitioner indi their healthful state. It has been several of the best physicians of the hesitation in recommending it as a he Teeth, Gums.etc. Among the recommendations to the Having tried Dr. "Thorn's Tesk and become acquainted with the insta sition, I cheerfully say, I consider it is one of the most the asaut Tool Pittsburgh Sep. 15, 1842 I take pleasure in stating, having. Pea Berry Tooth Wash," itriit trifices in use. Being in a liquid and removes the fartar from the a fragrance peculiarly desirable. The undersigned have used "The Berry Tooth Wash,"and have found ly pleasant dentifrice, exercising 13 accumulation of Tarter, and purif ing thoroughly tested its virtues, and commending it to the public, belief ticle of the kind now in use. M ROBERTSON. DARRAGH, M MOORE AD. JA.

Prepared only by WILLIAM

If the principal Druggists', and T 86 Fourth street. REDITORS TAKE NOTE to the Court of Common f. wealth of Pennsylvania, and that! appointed the 4th Monday of Oc sep 23--3t TUST RECEIVED, Nos. 5 and great variety of Temperance Do

MEDICAL CARD.—Wx. N. Wx. immediately relinquishing his determined to resume the practice. Be will give his attention to the cine and Surgery, in all of which