LOOK AT THIS.
The attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and is known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility.
To the Agent, Mr. J. Kirby.
I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a couple, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness, and agrees well with my diet,—and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can freely recommend it to all others similarly afflicted. J. MINNICK, Borough of Chambersb'g.

PROSPECTUS
For publishing a new Daily Paper in the City of Pittsburgh, to be entitled the DAILY MORNING POST.
THE Subscribers having made arrangements to merge the American Manufacturer and Pittsburgh Mercury into one Journal, have concluded to publish a daily paper with the title of the Daily Morning Post.
The leading object of the "Post" will be the dissemination and defence of the political principles that have heretofore been maintained by the Editors, in their respective papers, and their best efforts will still be devoted to the advancement and success of those doctrines.
Although, in politics, the paper will be thoroughly democratic, yet the Editors hope, by giving an honest, candid History of passing Political events, Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, and brief notices of all matters and occurrences that come properly within the sphere of a Public Journal, to make their paper sufficiently interesting to entitle it to the patronage of the public, irrespective of party considerations.
In addition to the political and general news that will be found in the "Morning Post," the Editors will take pains to furnish the business community with the latest and most interesting COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE from all parts of the country, and to have prepared such accounts of the Markets and the State of Trade as will be advantageous to our Merchants and Business Men in their several callings.
Terms.—The Post will be published on a large imperial sheet of fine paper, (manufactured especially for this Journal) at the unusually low rate of FIVE DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. It will also be sold by news boys at the low rate of TWO CENTS a copy.
Advertisements will be inserted at the lowest rates charged by the other daily papers of the city.
☞ TWENTY active lads are wanted to sell the Post, who will be engaged on the most liberal terms

TO THE WISE.—It is now well understood how much disorders of the mind depend for their cure upon a due attention to the body. It is now understood how valuable is that medicine which will remove morbid accumulations without weakening the bodily power. It is now understood that there is a reciprocal influence between the mind and the body. It is now understood that purging with the Brandreth Pills will remove a melancholy, and even insanity is cured by perseveringly using them. It is now understood how much domestic happiness depends upon the healthy condition of the digestive organs.
It is now well known that the Brandreth Pills have cured thousands of hopeless and helpless persons, even when the first physicians had pronounced them beyond all human means of relief. It is now not only well known that the Brandreth Pills so cure, but it is also understood how they cure; that it is by their purifying effect on the blood that they restore the body to health.
The value of the medicine is becoming more and more manifest, it is recommended daily from family to family. The Brandreth Pills remove in an almost imperceptible manner all noxious accumulations and purify and invigorate the blood and their good effects are not counterbalanced by any inconveniences, being composed entirely of vegetables they do not expose those who use them to danger; and their effects are as certain as they are salutary; they are daily and safely administered to infancy, youth, manhood, and old age, and to women in the most critical and delicate circumstances. They do not disturb or shock the animal functions, but restore their order and establish their health.
Sold at Dr. Brandreth's Office, No. 93, Wood street, Pittsburgh. Price 25 cents per box, with full directions.
MACK.—The only place in Pittsburgh where the genuine Pills can be obtained, is the Doctor's own office, No. 93 Wood street. Sep 10

He hopes to share the confidence of his former patrons and the public generally, and solicits a renewal of a portion of their patronage. In connexion he would observe, that the operation of Lithotrity, (or breaking the stone in the bladder and allowing it to pass off with the urine,) is every where commanding the deepest interest. He hopes to extend the benefit of this branch of his profession to the afflicted. Strictures, Diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, which occasionally follow, will likewise receive attention.
Those from a distance wishing further information will apply personally or by letter, or if desired can be accommodated at his dwelling, in a retired part of the city, on Third, between Perry and Liberty sts. sep 10

THE LITERARY POST.

Knowledge.
Bentley's Miscellany, for September, contains, among other things, the following:
Anecdotal reminiscence of an English missionary named Clarke, who went out to convert the natives of India to Christianity, but failing his efforts, returned in despair to Calcutta. We give the rest of the anecdote in the writer's own words:—
One day our missionary learned, to his great joy, that a Brahmin of the very first rank had arrived in the metropolis. Determined to bring matters to an issue, Clarke wrote to him, and begged him to meet him on a certain day, when he undertook to convince him (the Hindoo priest) of the errors of his faith. To this the Brahmin consented, and at the time appointed, the heathen and Christian champion met to discuss, in presence of several witnesses, the merits of their respective creeds.
As is usual in polemical discussions, the controversy was opened by several inconsequential queries and answers. For half an hour neither party put forth a startling proposition; the wily Indian taking care to confine himself to the defensive. Tired at length at this scene, Clarke suddenly and abruptly asked him,
'Are you forbidden to eat anything in which animal life exists?'
'I am.'
'Have you ever broken this law?'
'Never.'
'May you not unconciously have been led into this crime?'—'Impossible.'
'Will you swear to it?'—'Most solemnly I do.'
'Do you ever eat pomegranates?'—'Daily.'
'Bring me some of the fruit then,' rejoined Clarke, turning to a servant. His order was complied with, the pomegranates were brought.
'Choose one.' The Brahmin did so.
'Cut it in two.' With this direction he complied.—'Place it here,' and Clarke assisted him to put it beneath a microscope. 'Now look at it.'
The Brahmin did so; but no sooner did he apply his eye, than he started back with affright—The fruit was perfectly alive with animalculæ. The puzzled Hindoo drew out the pomegranate, (which, perhaps, my readers are not aware is more closely filled with insects than any other fruit,) looked at it, examined it, replaced it, and again beheld the myriads of living creatures with which it was rife. He felt it with his hand, to convince himself that their was no trick in the affair. Then suddenly drawing himself up, he slowly uttered 'But such hi' (enough—it is true.)
'You acknowledge then that you have sinned unconsciously! That every thing being filled with animalculæ invisible to the naked eye, you can neither eat nor drink without committing a crime!'
The abashed Hindoo bowed.
'Shall I show you how full of insects every drop of water is?—'No! I have seen enough.'
'Do you desire farther proof?'—'I have a favor to ask,'
'What is it?—If I can, I will grant it.'
'Give me your microscope. I cannot buy it,
